NEXT SUNDAY

After several weeks of footgames are listed among the championship matches arranged for the day

Among these will be the eagerly awaited clash between Shamrocks and Abbeyside in the losers group semi-final at Cappoquin on Sunday evening In the afternoon at the same venue we have the big guns in the intermediate hurling championship Tallow and Fourmilewater and Geraldines versus Ballysaggart This is quite a programme for the Cornerstone venue and pat-rons should be compensated here by all-round improve-ment in recent standards The big attraction at Dungarvan will also be in the evening with Ballyduff playing the County champions John Mit-

Six weeks ago when Abbey-side took a hammering from Lismore some critics were inclined to regard them as a spent force as far as semior They hurling was concerned looked scraggy and lifeless and at times played like a play Port Cladach in the first team of men who did not of the County semi-finals on know each other. In short it was their worst ever championship display Will they be better than this on Sunday ent First result is Gaill Tir evening? From the improvement that they have shown in Cladhach play Rogha Eireann, and the winners will play Gaill Tir in the senior County final Congratulations to Port Cladhach Tire of the meantime they must be matches they drew first with Butlerstown and a week later Cladhach they beat them by four points in a game that showed that they had recaptured some of their old form. Pat Enright, Nicky Cashin Michael Kelly Humphrey Kelleher Michael Flynn, Jimmy Fraher, Felix Shields Gregg Fives Liam Enright, John Byrne and com-League begin All fixtures are going very smoothly and both senior and junior championships will be finished in good time this year Under 18 championships begin early in August Next County Board meeting is in Port Cladhach on Tuesday 30th July at 8 pm

WATERFORD ARE MUNSTER CHAMPIONS

How delightful it was to hear n Sunday night that our bril hant young under 21 hurling side had confounded the form book by defeating the hotly facied Clare side in a thrilling Munster hurling final at Thurles This was a great hour for Waterford hurling and the excitement which followed the final was comparable with the jubilation which follows the winning of a senior title Clare were simply amazed at the sheer brilliance of Waterford The victory stemmed from a team effort and every man on the side deserved to share in the honour and full credit too must be given to the selectors. must be given to the selectors.

BALLINAMEELA

Ballmameela ICA finished its years work with a blaze of activity, especially in the field of cookery expertise Defendant — I must watch it The June meeting was held in the local hall on the 18th Mrs Fining Leahy £4 on each of Helen Wade, president was in

The main business of the appeared on similar charges it evening was a demonstration would be Mountjoy or Limerick by Mr Pat McCarthy of salad for him dishes suitable for the season As this was an open meeting those who attended Mr Mc-Carthy's cookery classes in Dungarvan thronged to hear him again A fee was charged and the crowd was so large that the Guild was in the bosi-tion to contribute to three favourite charities when the final reckoning had been made Mr McCarthy on this occa-sion demonstrated salad tonel lo salad de fruits de mar, salad Marco Polo etc He was so im-pressed by the enthuslasm of the audience that he offered to come again for the next meeting without charging a fee

All the wonderful salads were raffled after the demonstration No suitable date could be arranged for the July meeting so peculiarly enough, it was held on June 27 Mrs Helen Wade was again in the chair The main dish demonstrated on this occasion by Mr McCarthy was Salmon Moscovite This dish had wonderful eye appeal and was greatly admired and the lucky raffle winner can vouch for its taste appeal
will be glad to hear that he intends to hold cookery classes in oughal in the Autumn Many thanks to the guild members who entertained pupils from St Michaels Cappoquin on July 10 and to those who helped during the year with meals on wheels Guild meetings will be resumed in September, DV

THE LITTLE WHITE CROSS

A reader in Dublin who was popular family and Peter was struck by our reference to the associated with practically late Frank O'Donovan in last every club in town He was a playing member of the local soccer and cricket clubs a founder member of the bad-minton club and also constitute white Cross." As he enclosed us of another ballad written by Frank called "The Little White Cross" As he enclosed the words I don't thing it would be out of place to make the ballad our choice for this

Once I saw by the wayside a little white cross At the bend of the road near Clonree, By wild grass overgrown and half covered with moss 'Neath a twisted old whitethorn tree And it bore no proud name nor yet even a prayer ave an almost effaced 'RIP" All forgotten by those een who planted it there At the bend of the road near Clonree And the summer sun shines and the winter winds blow the bend of the road at Clonree There's a pall of white blossoms or mantle of snow Neath that twisted old whitethorn tree But I wonder who sleeps 'neath that little white

Clonree Some bold ambush that failed some young hem At the bend of the road near Clonree Giving all to uphold Erins honour and pride Neath that twisted old white-No reward but to sleep neath that little white cross
