Behind the SPOTLIGHT

ROAD ACCIDENTS CLAIMED ALMOST 600 VICTIMS LAST YEAR

The number of people killed on Irish roads in 1973 was the second highest ever recorded according to a report published last week by An Foras Forbartha (The National Institute for Physical Planning and Construction Research). Five hundred and ninety two people were killed in 556 fatal accidents. There were a further 8,761 people reported injured as well as 12,738 "material damage only" accidents reported.

Despite the fact that this number averages out at more than 10 deaths per week every week in 1973 on the roads it showed a fall of 48 or 8% on the overall when compared with 1972.

The report reveals that the figures for last year showed that the largest group of road users killed were pedestrians. Nine per cent of all the casualties were child pedestrians under fifteen years of age. Their typical behaviour was to "dart-out" across the road without heed. At the other end of the age scale, about one in six of all those killed were pedestrians over 50 years and further, about seventy per cent of all pedal cyclists killed were over 50 years.

There were 207 people killed and 4,881 injured in car accidents. A further 499 people were killed or injured in goods vehicles.

Almost twice as many motor cyclists not wearing crash helmets who were involved in accidents were killed compared to those wearing helmets. Somewhat similar figures emerge from the report for drivers of cars not using seat belts.

Other aspects of the report that must be noted are that eight fatal accidents occurred at traffic signals and forty-five at Stop or Yield signs. Approximately thirty of these were due to a driver ignoring the signs. Six fatal and 95 injury accidents occurred at pedestrian crossings. The month in which most accidents were recorded was August. The hour in which most people were killed was the hour after midnight in previous years the corresponding hour was the hour before midnight) while, as before the most accidents occurred at week-ends.

That was the report for 1973. What will the report for 1974 show? Will there be a welcome continuing drop in the number of fatal accidents? No figures are as yet available but in recent weeks the number of fatal road accidents is again on the increase. Of course we are now into the month of prime danger and the Bank holidays next week-end greatly heightens this danger. So if you are on the roads, driving, exercising a little more care and show a little more consideration to other users and so doing you will be helping to reduce this terrible scourge which still goes on on the roads all over Ireland.

DANGEROUS JUNCTION

The second last paragraph in the previous article should be read again by those people who apparently pay little or no attention to Stop or Yield signs. There are quite a number of them and from my own observations they appear to be on the increase. Particularly bad is the T-junction at the top of Mary Street, Dungarvan where it is crossed by the Mitchell Street-Emmet Street road-way. There is a Yield sign on the Emmet Street side of the junction which seems to receive little attention whatever. Many drivers who come to the junction and drive on to Mitchell Street without ever stopping to check the traffic from their right on Mary Street.

experiences myself at this junction recently which forced me to apply brakes to allow a non-yielding driver coming from the Emmet Street side to bulldoze his way through the junction. As the Foras Forbartha report points out, there were 45 fatal accidents at Stop or Yield signs in 1973, fortunately none of these occurred in Dungarvan but if these ill-mannered drivers, apparently oblivious of the dangers to which they expose others, as well, of course as themselves, continue to drive through these Stop and Yield signs as they have been doing we could well be not so fortunate when the time comes to compile the report for 1974.

This junction is also a danger for motorists who approach from the Mitchell Street side to drive straight through to Emmet Street as they find themselves caught in the main stream of traffic which passes through the town in ever increasing volume between Waterford and Cork. There is little that can be done to solve this problem beyond the continuing exercise of more and more care and attention and perhaps, if the road authorities have not already forgotten it, the construction of the "ring" road which would relieve much of the traffic congestion and chaos which is at present experienced in the town centre.

MORE VANDALISM

Further to my reference to the damage and removal of lifebelts in Dungarvan in last week's column I find I must again condemn the continuing vandalism which is going on in and around the town.

Following the publication of last week's "Leader" I was informed that not alone had the lifebelts been a target for the vandals but also the Urban Council Swimming Pool on the sea-front at the Look-Out. This is, as one would expect at this time of the year, a place very much frequented especially by children. What words therefore can be used to condemn the actions of those who, under the cover of dark, one night recently broke bottles and threw the broken glass into the pool.

When this was discovered the Council, very correctly had to close the pool to the public, have it cleared and the glass collected by Council workmen. I understand that over two-and-a-half buckets of broken glass were removed from the floor of the pool. What damage this could have done to many children, boys and girls had it not been discovered in time. On top of this the pool had to be closed for a considerable time and four men had to be put to work clearing and cleaning it—at the expense of the ratepayers! As I said last week, anyone seen or caught committing acts of vandalism like this should be reported at once and no sympathy should be shown to them.

HIS REAL REQUIEM CAME THIRTY YEARS LATER

The regretted death of Fr John C O'Donnell, formerly of Fernville, Lismore, which occurred recently in Port Elizabeth, South Africa as reported in the "News From Lismore and District" column in last week's "Leader," recalls an incident which occurred during World War II.

During the war, Fr O'Donnell served as Chaplain with the South African forces and during the German advance under Rommel in North Africa in 1941 he was captured in Tobruk and taken prisoner. He was reported missing after the attack and was presumed dead and when

John Egan, of London, son of Mr and Mrs Deakie Egan, Casseyville, Dungarvan has made a name for himself in boxing circles in the English capital since emigrating some years ago. Currently London champion in the featherweight division, he was recently voted the most stylish boxer of the evening following challenge bouts at the Europa Hotel, London, for which he received the "Thornheath" award who was beaten in the semi-final of the A B A's championships recently has boxed for London against Berlin in Berlin, and next October he will again represent London in a match against Scotland. He boxed in the lightweight division of the Irish championships in 1972, when he was beaten in the final by Charlie Nash. This year he went out narrowly to Derry's Damian McDermott in the featherweight class.

Two of his uncles, Noel Sheehan, London and Tommy Sheehan, Casseyville, Dungarvan are former Irish internationals.

Dungarvan-born Veterinary Surgeon controls transport of Canadian livestock

Veterinary Surgeons from 11 countries attended a recent conference in Surrey organised by the British Ministry of Agriculture's animal welfare chief Mr George Taylor.

The aim of the conference was to discuss the British regulations which govern the transport of livestock by air with a view to persuading the governments of the countries represented to establish an international code and to impose similar regulations to help prevent distress and loss of life currently suffered by a big number of animals each year as they are flown about the world.

It appears that most of the appalling suffering and loss of life stems from ignorance of the animals' welfare requirements and disastrous overcrowding causing death due to heat exhaustion heart failure arising from extreme distress, or simple suffocation.

Two veterinary surgeons at the conference who were much concerned with these problems were Dr John Langridge from the United States and Dr Brian Morrissey from Canada. Neither of these countries operates a code and both are among the world's largest livestock exporters. Both of these vets hope that as a result of the conference their governments will introduce legislation shortly based on a similar or modified version of the British regulations.

RESPONSIBLE FOR ALL CANADIAN LIVESTOCK

Mr Morrissey who went to Canada some years ago took up practice in Toronto and last year was appointed Chief Veterinary Officer at Toronto Airport. His outstanding ability was further recognised earlier this year when the Canadian Agriculture Department appointed him Chief Transport Officer with responsibility for the air transport of all animals imported and exported by air into and from Canada.

He is elder son of Mrs Betty Wright and the late Patrick J Morrissey Solicitor "Fatima House", Abbeyside Dungarvan and brother of Mr Pat Morrissey who also followed the Veterinary profession and who is particularly known in the Kilmachomas area where he carries on a flourishing practice as Veterinary Surgeon at present and of Miss Kathleen Morrissey BA HDE who is a member of the teaching staff of a Limerick Secondary School

WERE WED IN ST. MARY'S CHURCH DUNGARVAN

GURRY - TROY NUPTIALS

The wedding took place in St. Mary's Parish Church Dungarvan at 4 o'clock last Tuesday evening, July 30 of Mr Francis Curry youngest son of Mr and Mrs James Curry Crehana, Carrickbeg, to Miss Josephine Troy, younger daughter of Mr John J Troy and the late Mrs Margaret Troy 5 Friary Street, Dungarvan.

The ceremony with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing was performed by Rev W Callanan CC Dungarvan, assisted by Rev F Flawley CC Carrickbeg. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked radiant in a full-length crepe satin gown with head-dress to match. She carried a bouquet of multi-coloured carnations and maidenhair fern. She was attended, as bridesmaid, by her sister Miss Eileen Troy who wore a full-length mauve floral nylon dress with matching head dress and who also carried a bouquet of multi-hued carnations and maidenhair fern.

The bestman was Mr John Curry (brother of the groom). Another brother Mr Richard Curry read the lessons during the Nuptial Mass. Miss Maureen Donaldson presided at the organ and the soloist was Mr John Flynn.

After the ceremony the bridal party motored to Waterford where a reception was held at the Bridge Hotel after which the newly-weds left for their honeymoon which is being spent touring the south and west of Ireland. Going away the bride wore a bride skirt and brown jacket. The bride and groom are both employed at Dungarvan Crystal Ltd and enjoy widespread popularity. We join with their many friends in wishing them health, happiness and prosperity in the years ahead.

SHAMROCKS G.A.A. NOTES

MINOR FOOTBALL
 Our minor footballers play St. Michael's in the semi-final of the Western championship at Cappoquin on Sunday next. St. Michael's are a combination drawn from the parish of St. Patrick and Clashmore and are a pretty good side. They showed when beating the champions, Tallow on Sunday last. Our lads have done nothing wrong either so far this year. They beat Bruckey Rangers early in the first round and accounted for Ballyduff after a replay in the second round and they must now go into this game with every chance.
 Joe Ahearne will be back at mid-field and with John Kelly, Noel Tobin, Michael Leahy, Mick Hogan and the Athletic lads, Mick and John Power and Jim O'Connell playing so well at the moment they are sure to give a good account of themselves on Sunday.
 The best of luck to them and we hope it will be a clean and sporting game.

TOURNAMENT
 Our seniors will be playing Abbeyside in the semi-final of the Lismore Senior Hurling Tournament on Tuesday next, 6th of August at 3.0 pm. This tournament is run in conjunction with the Lismore Festival.

TRAINING
 Our junior footballers will have training on this Saturday night, August 3rd, on Sunday morning and on Thursday night of next week in preparation for their championship match with Ardmore on Sunday 11th of August. All members of the panel are requested to turn up.

MEETING
 A meeting of the club will be held at the Technical School after training on Thursday night August 6th.

JUVENILES
 Tallow were much too good for our under 16 footballers in the second round of the championship at Lismore on Monday night. Tallow led from start to finish and it was only in the last quarter that our lads scored when it was much too late as Tallow had built up a good lead at this stage.

BALLYSGAGG NOTES

G.A.A. — On Sunday next Ballyduff/Ballysgagg senior team face their toughest as yet in the final of the County semi-final. Portlaoise can boast of hurlers whose names are household names in the county over the past few years — Martin Hickey, John Galvin the Wheelans, Paul Kelly and of course that evergreen veteran Tom Cheasty. With that line-up any team would have to be confident. What of the chances of our lads? At the time of writing there is no definite news of Bobby Begley and if he is absent he will be a big loss. There has been a fairly good turnout at training not 100% always but the panel should be fit and we know that every man on the team will hurl his heart out so we wish them the very best of luck.
 We hope that the supporters will turn out in strength and let the boys know that win or draw we are proud of them for getting so far in their first year together.

Church Gate Collection — On Sunday next Ballysgagg G.A.A. Club will hold their annual Church Gate Collection. It is hoped that the people will contribute generously as they usually do.

Holidaymakers — We have many visitors on holidays amongst us at the moment and we wish them a pleasant time.

LADY CAPTAIN'S PRIZE
 Miss R M Foley's day was favoured by suitable summer weather. From my seat in the Clubhouse the ladies looked decorative and elegant and I also saw some fine Postmen Competition (draw for partners and compete partners with markers for a further 9 holes). There will be an event arranged for Monday August 5. The accent throughout the weekend will be on the social aspect of the game — a little light relief after the serious golf of the Open fortnight.

Sensational win for Ring/Geraldines

MITCHELS RELINQUISH THEIR CROWN

RING GERALDINES 1-6, JOHN MITCHELS 1-5

Anyone who would venture to suggest that the Ring/Geraldines combination would defeat the county senior football champions John Mitchels on Sunday would undoubtedly have been treated as a freak who needed medical assistance.

Yet few in the attendance at the losers group semi-final clash at Fraher field Dungarvan last Sunday could question the credibility of the group side's sensational one point win in a four game series which will be relished for quite some time by the winners and their supporters.

Make no mistake about it, this was a deserved win by a 1-6 outsiders by betting folk. The scoreline does less than justice to them. They should have been further ahead so great was their superiority over the losers in the closing stages. But for the poor showing of their forwards who lacked great cohesion they must surely have chalked up a greater number of scores over the hour and particularly in the latter stages of the game.

True they lived rather perilously at times and their goal had some narrow shaves from goal seeking Mitchels forwards. Again they were rather fortunate when a shot which looked a definite Mitchel's point was signalled wide early in the second half. Yet it would have been something of an injustice had they lost.

It will probably be their only claim to fame that they knocked the county champions for 1-6. They themselves will be goal and Ring/Geraldines were well and truly back in the game with more than an even chance they forced the pace relentlessly and it was obvious that they must score. Yet their forwards were wasting some great chances. Ring man Sean Lenane broke the deadlock when he pointed a free to level in the 20th minute. Still the winners pressed but the goal score was agonisingly slow in coming. It did not come in fact until just a minute from time. And again it was a Ring man who came to the rescue. This time it was centre back Tom Maher who sent over the winner after a great solo effort.

FULL MARKS

Full marks to the winners who literally took the ball on the hop on Sunday last. They took advantage of the champions' deficiencies and there certainly cannot be any arguments as to the worth of their victory.

They had excellent defenders in John Cotter, Tom Maher, P. Tobin and Michael Drummy. Mick Tobin and Donald Murphy ruled the midfield area and Sean Lenane, Eilest Murray, Michael Whelan and Michael Brien were all excellent in attack.

Mitchels will think on this ignominious defeat for quite some time. Seldom have a team been installed as such certain only to go crashing but if there are any recriminations then they must be directed towards those who took the field completely unfit and unprepared for the game.

Their best were Marty Whelan, Joe Whelan, Michael Barry, Robbie Whelan, John Walsh and Brendan O'Reilly.

Scorers: Ring/Geraldines— Whelan (1-0), S. Lenane and B. Murray (0-2 each), B. Merrin and Tom Maher (0-1 each), Mitchels (0-3), K. Power (1-1), Whelan (0-3), Gough (0-1).

Mount Sion— M. O'Brien, S. Murphy, N. Merrin, J. Cotter, J. Merrin, J. Manahan, T. Maher, M. Drummy, M. Tobin, D. Murphy, T. Whelan, B. Merrin, S. Lenane, B. Murray, J. Walsh, M. O'Brien, Sub — P. Tobin for Manahan.

John Mitchels— J. Cahill, M. Whelan, W. Connors, J. Whelan, M. Barry, S. Kelly, M. Kirwan, T. Gough, K. Power, R. Whelan, J. Whelan, J. Walsh, P. Morrissey, S. O'Reilly, O. Connors, S. Kelly, R. Connors for O. Connors.

SEQUEL TO "INCIDENTS" IN AGLISH

COURT ADJOURNMENTS FOLLOW "UNDERTAKINGS"

All the factions involved in a series of assault incidents in the village of Aglish on different dates earlier this year together with their solicitors, were congratulated by District Justice Garavan at Cappelquin Court last Thursday when told that undertakings had been given all round to stay away from each other in the future.

The undertakings were announced by the three solicitors involved in the lengthy hearing. The District Justice said he was very glad that this decision had been reached between the parties.

Before the court were the brothers John and Thomas Cotter, Aglish William Ronayne, do, and Patrick Ronayne, Coonee Dromore, Patrick O'Brien, Ballingrove Villierstown, and Thomas Daly Coonee Drogheda. All faced assault charges arising from incidents in Aglish, while a seventh defendant Michael Beston Shanakill Aglish, was charged with causing malicious damage to the licensed premises of Thomas Foskin, Aglish.

In addition applications were brought by the State to have all the accused bound to the peace.

Before the court recessed for lunch, three of the defendants Patrick O'Brien and Thomas Cotter and John Cotter had given evidence in relation to incidents in Aglish on the night of March 16.

John Cotter told of incidents in the village on January 13 and March 16.

After the lunch recess Mr Brian Carroll solicitor (for the Cotters), Mr A. R. Farrell solicitor (for the Ronaynes and O'Brien) and Mr Lavan solicitor (for Daly) said that during the lunchtime break they had got together and were now prepared to give an undertaking 'all round' that all of the fighting factions would stay away from each other if all the charges were adjourned for a period of time.

Inspector M. McQuinn who prosecuted said he had no objection to the arrangement. Mr Carroll said that not only were all of the defendants neighbours but many of them were also related. Justice Garavan said he thought the idea was a very good one.

The Justice adjourned all the assault charges to January 1975 and adjourned the malicious damage charge against Michael Beston to the September court.

DUNGARVAN WIDOW ALLEGES SHE WAS AGAIN ATTACKED BY WHIPPETS

A Dungarvan widow who had been awarded a Circuit Court decree for £171, costs and expenses, after she had been attacked and bitten by a neighbour's whippet dogs, was still being attacked by them. District Justice J. Garavan was told at Cappelquin Court last Thursday on behalf of the complainant Mrs Anne Boland Inchindrisla Dungarvan sought to have three further charges against the owner Mrs Wendell T. Howell, farmer Inchindrisla, alleged attacks by the whippets on Mrs Boland, heard by the Court.

Mr A. R. Farrell Solicitor for the defendant objected to the hearing of the charges on the grounds that they had never been served on his client. Furthermore Mr Farrell said other charges had already been adjourned to the October court by District Justice B. J. Carroll.

Mr Farrell said Mrs Boland was the only person in the entire neighbourhood that was making a complaint about the defendant's dogs.

Justice Garavan adjourned the hearing of the new charges to the September court. However he ordered that the dogs be kept under strict control during the hours of 8-10 a.m. daily.

ULSTER WORKERS COUNCIL STRIKE WAS "BREATH OF FRESH AIR"

SAYS WATERFORD DAIL DEPUTY

The Adjournment Debate which took place in the Dail last Friday marked the end of the present session prior to the long summer recess. The debate followed the statement by the Taoiseach, Mr Cosgrave on the State of the Nation.

In the course of the debate the Minister for Local Government, Mr Tully, gave way to Mr T. Kyne (Lab, Waterford) who protested against the recent practice in the House of calling Ministers or former Ministers to speak before backbenchers. He reminded the House that backbenchers of all parties had a duty to express the views of their constituents. He had sympathy with the backbenchers' position having been one for 21 years.

Referring to the Taoiseach's speech opening the debate Mr Kyne asked: What did he say? He said nothing just nothing at all. He did not think that was very constructive and he did not think that Mr Jack Lynch was any better.

Events occurring in Northern Ireland in the past six months were worthy of note. The action of the Ulster Workers Council was a breath of fresh air in the North and it was interesting to people in the North were beginning to realise how they had been used by their Loyalist bosses. He said that we should talk to the minority in the North and that interesting in their affairs would suggest that they might talk to Mr Murray and the various people in the Workers' Council so that there might be established a true indication of their superiority in an entertaining game and particularly in the second half in which Briceys fighting to the end registered only one score a goal by Jim McGrath.

Dungarvan went through the first half probing for weaknesses and registered 1-4 to Briceys 1-2. The second half saw them at their best as they exposed the chunks in Briceys' armour to steal through for some fine scores — 3-3 in total.

Dungarvan's best were Joe Kelly, S. Meehan, Bill Sheehan and M. Hurley. Briceys had one of the best footballers in view in Jim McGrath while others to play well were J. Fraher, J. O'Donnell and D. McGrath.

Scorers: Dungarvan — J. Flynn and S. Meehan (1-1 each), B. Flynn and M. Hurley (1-0 each), K. Foley (0-3), J. Meehan and B. Sheehan (0-1 each), Briceys — J. McGrath (1-2), T. Whelan (1-0).

Dungarvan — R. Power, M. Murphy, J. McGrath, A. Burke, K. Kelly, J. Kelly, A. Tully, B. Sheehan, S. Meehan, J. Meehan, J. Flynn, N. Hurley, L. Flynn, C. Foley, T. Egan.

Briceys Rangers — W. Whelan, N. Hackett, L. Flynn, T. Whelan, J. McGrath, M. Veale, R. Ryan, G. Fraher, B. Hennessy, F. O'Brien, D. McGrath, F. Collins, J. O'Donnell, J. Wail, M. Culloo.

MR KYNE ASKS DAIL QUESTION ON RTE RECEPTION IN LONDON

In the Dail last week Mr T. Kyne, TD asked the Minister for Posts and Telegraphs if he was aware of the non-reception of RTE radio programmes in the London area in view of the great interest in Irish news and sports broadcasts in that area. He would consider the feasibility of his reception there and if he would inquire whether the setting up of a new commercial station had the effect of blotting out RTE radio completely.

Mr Cruse O'Brien — I am aware that a local radio station which commenced operation in the London area last year is causing interference with reception of RTE radio programmes in that area. I raised the matter with Sir John Eden, the then British Minister for Posts and Telecommunications when I met him in May last year. He told me then that the interference was temporary but that it would go on for about two years until the present temporary station is replaced by a permanent one on a different frequency. I presume therefore that an end to the interference may be expected within about a year.

Mr Molloy is the Minister aware that it is practically impossible to get reception of RTE radio programmes on car radios in certain parts of Connaught and that when Radio Luxembourg comes through loud and clear?

An Ceann Comhairle That is a separate question.

Mr Molloy In view of this would the Minister consider boosting the power?

Dr Cruse O'Brien The situation to a large extent will be solved when the new high power transmitter replaces the old transmitter. We had hoped that the new transmitter would be in service before the end of this year but I understand from RTE that this may not now be possible because of a hitch regarding the mast of the new transmitter which is being put right by the company.

DROVE AROUND TALLOW AFTER DRINKING TWENTY PINTS

A motorist under two years suspension who drove around Tallow having consumed 20 pints and crashed into a mini bus causing £150 worth of damage appeared at Clonmel Court last week. He was Philip O'Driscoll aged 20 Ash Road Skibbereen and it was stated that he could not remember the crash afterwards.

Justice Carroll told the defendant that he could not expect any leniency from the court having set out from Skibbereen in open defiance of the law by driving while under suspension. The public had to be protected from people like him who could have taken him to court and could not remember very much after that.

He then sentenced him to six months for driving without insurance six months for driving while under disqualification and three months for failing to report an accident. He ordered the sentences to run concurrently and suspended O'Driscoll from driving for two years from the date of the court.

M. Kelly solicitor defending said his client was the second eldest in a family of 12. He had been in a certain amount of trouble all his life and on this occasion had a huge amount of drink taken and could not remember very much after that. He said that if he got this chance he would seek work and start paying compensation immediately.

Justice Carroll said that here was a man under suspension who drives around highly intoxicated crashes into a mini bus and does not even remember it. He could just as easily have knocked down the father of a family and not remember that either. On his own admission he had a terrific amount of drink taken and was to be expected to be in the streets of Tallow. The public were entitled to protection from a man like this.

MOUNT SION WIN DOOR SENIOR HURLING CLASH

MOUNT SION 5-8, ABBEYSIDE 5-2

Only four points separated Mount Sion and Abbeyside after a door senior hurling losers group clash played at Fraher field Dungarvan on Sunday last.

But what a bitter disappointment for those who turned up for the game. They saw little goal hurling from two poor sides who did nothing to enhance their prospects of making a major break-through in the foreseeable future.

For Abbeyside the fruits of the labour was poor and even when they came within a whisker of the winners they were kept by the poor goal keeping of Mount Sion net minder, M. O'Brien who to say the least did not have a disastrous hour.

The Mount Sion men bidding to gain old glories could find a better consolation even in victory.

With so many of the county's best men in action this was expected to be a near flawless display. Alas the power which these men can unleash stayed hidden and the team on the whole failed dismally to come up to scratch.

They led from start to finish however and were 2-4 to 0-4 at the interval after Nicky Cashin had sent direct to the net.

All in all it was a poor display from both sides with Mt Sion although the victors not impressing as being capable of taking the title this year.

Best for Mount Sion were S. Sutton, Jim Greene, Pat McGrath, Pat O'Grady, Stephen McGrath, S. Meehan and Martin Geary.

Abbeyside's best were Humphrey Kelleher, Nicky Cashin, Michael Kelly, Joe Power, Pat Enright and Jimmy Kelleher.

Scorers: Mt Sion — S. Greene (2-0), P. O'Grady (1-3), M. Geary (1-2), B. Power (1-0), N. Delahunty (0-1), Abbeyside — J. Kiely (3-0), P. Enright (1-1), N. Cashin (0-0), M. Kiely (0-1).

Mount Sion — M. O'Brien, S. Sutton, G. Cunningham, J. Greene, J. Hayes, E. Kehoe, P. McGrath, P. O'Grady, B. Knox, S. Greene, E. Ryan, S. Meehan, N. Delahunty, S. Kelly, M. Geary, Sub — B. Power for Delahunty.

Abbeyside — H. Kelleher, P. McGovern, J. McGrath, B. Shields, J. Byrne, N. Cashin, J. Fraher, M. Kelly, J. Power, M. Kiely, P. Enright, M. Hanrahan, J. Kiely, G. Fisher, Sub — L. Enright for Hanrahan.

DUNGARVAN DEFEAT BRICEYS IN ENTERTAINING GAME

DUNGARVAN 4-7, BRICEYS RANGERS 2-2

Dungarvan scored a good win over Briceys Rangers in the juvenile football quarter final at Fraher field Dungarvan on Monday night last.

The Old Boro boys showed some deft touches and a football maturity beyond their years. Their eleven points winning margin is a true indication of their superiority in an entertaining game and particularly in the second half in which Briceys fighting to the end registered only one score a goal by Jim McGrath.

Dungarvan went through the first half probing for weaknesses and registered 1-4 to Briceys 1-2. The second half saw them at their best as they exposed the chunks in Briceys' armour to steal through for some fine scores — 3-3 in total.

GLOOM AND FOREBODING OF CRUISE O'BRIEN

Mr Kyne said that he would suggest the Ulster Workers Council as being the first thing they had seen which gave them any hope in the future that working people in the North and the South could come together and build up a united Ireland. Not a Pinnia Fail united Ireland or a Fine Gael one or even a Labour united Ireland but a united Ireland which would give all the people North and South freedom and liberty and a good living. This was the aspiration of the ordinary people, North and South. The UWC should be encouraged.

He was making a suggestion which he thought would be preferable to the gloom and foreboding of the statements of Dr Conor Cruise O'Brien or of Mr Jack Lynch, or even of the Taoiseach. He thought that Sunningdale had been a genuine effort on the part of the Government here and of the British Government. The principle of power-sharing was good but did not blame the people in the North objecting to a nominated Government. He thought that such a Government should not be supported.

NATIONALISE BUILDING SOCIETIES

Mr Kyne said he was sick and tired of the Opposition

The rates of subsidy will be £1 per head in the months September/December 1974 and £1.50 in the months January/April 1975.

ARDMORE MAKE NO MISTAKE IN REPLAY

ARDMORE 3-5, KILGOBINET 1-2

Ardmore made no mistake in their major hurling championship replay with Kilgobinet at Fraher field Dungarvan on Sunday last. Rather unexciting in the draw, the game there was no sign of their supremacy in this encounter and their display they considered favourable to take Dungarvan in the second round.

Michael Brett goal minutes failed to lift in a game which will be remembered more for its boring nature than anything else. John Joe Carlton some Ardmore's first best score of the game, but he was not holding the win until the superb hurling of the man who moved from the centre forward to the half coupled with a through fitness of the Ardmore forwards proved a problem for Kilgobinet. They trailed by 2-3 to 0-1 at the interval and were to be much further behind.

Ardmore consolidated their third quarter lead when they led by 3-5 to 0-1. A measure of their lead that Kilgobinet could not score again until the fifteenth minute when they scored a point. This 47 scoreless period showed the ineffectiveness of the track and despite three and a half hours of play, Kilgobinet never at any time looked capable of reaching the standard of the drawn game.

As stated Ardmore's Matty Cronin, both in defence and attack, was the hurrier of the hour. He proved a constant problem for a succession of Kilgobinet players. In defence the winners had outstanding players in goalkeeper John Colbert, Pat Pender and Bertie Hallahan.

Dennis Conway and Richie Hennessy were at the peak of their form at midfield while in attack John Hennessy, Michael Hennessy, John Joe Carlton and Jim Rooney impressed most. Perhaps it was their lack of fitness which proved Kilgobinet's undoing. They were invariably second to almost every ball and few of them showed any real relish for the game. The exceptions were Willie Power, Peter Power, Pat Lynch, Mick Brett, Martin Walsh and Michael Keohane.

Scorers: Ardmore — M. Cronin (1-1), D. Conway (1-0), J. Hennessy, J. Rooney, M. Hennessy (0-1 each), Kilgobinet — M. Brett (1-1), W. Power (0-1).

Ardmore — J. Colbert, M. Power, P. Pender, B. Murphy, J. Pender, M. Cronin, B. Hallahan, R. Hennessy, D. Conway, M. Hennessy, J. Hennessy, J. Quinn, F. Hallahan, J. J. Carlton, J. Rooney, Sub — N. Conway for F. Hallahan.

Kilgobinet — T. Power, M. Walsh, E. Byrne, W. Power, P. Ballins, P. Power, M. Ryan, M. Fraher, P. Lynch, J. Cooney, L. Maher, J. Landers, M. Brett, M. Keohane, C. Kelleher, Sub — V. Tobin for Landers, M. McNulty for L. Maher, J. Regan for V. Tobin.

Referee — J. J. Landers (Af. lene/Cappelquin)
