Now thanks to a question put down by Senator Deasy the chronology of the negotiations which have been taking place between the Council and CIE in regard to the property has become available in a report which was submitted to the memmeeting by the Acting Town ! Clerk Mr B White

The first date mentioned in the report is March 26 from the Causeway to Ballinroad to the UDC No proposal elopsed before the next step! when the Urban Council sent a further letter to CIE on April 9 1974 asking them again about a proposal

On May 1, 1974 a letter was received from CIE was received from CIE in the situation. At last Monday's meeting of the storing that "it is intended to but a proposal to the UDC drop off in the employment in the near future" and two decline in the milk flow as the building of three public toys later on May 3, the decline in the milk flow as conveniences at the seaside and Annestown lown Clerk, to ensure, time topse would again occur, at the summer peak the drop took the matter up with in the daily intake at the oroposal within three weeks Unlike the previous occaor CIE were true to their *ord this time and on May $000 for that area of the General Workers Union inhae from Dungarvan to Boll proad, farmer gate lodges at the old down especially from Dublin, including four the crossings Seven days after on May 29, the Town Clerk replied to this proposal by indicate and the control of the control o by indicating that the Urban Council were interested only the property within the ban area and requesting that an opportunment of the

As has been the policy for several years now, next Sunday All-Ireland day will be a closed date in the county and no matches are scheduled. county will travel to Croke Park to see the final in which All-Ireland champions Limerick will meet Kilkenny This final is made all the more interesting by the fact that the Kil-kenny lineout will include Eddie Kerr Jim Tracey and Kieran Purcell who were missing from the side which lost to Limerick in last year's final Limerick are still confident that they will retain the title Such a result would certainly boost our hurling stock considerably, hav-ing held them to a point in the Munster semi-final and the Munster semi-final and then beating them in the Oireachtas semi-final one of their outstanding players and Sylvester Murray persevere with their efforts that On the home front, for the week-end we have several attractive under 21 football ties as well as the minor hurling final so very many of our rlayers and officials will have more on their minds than the All Ireland final

CLASHMORE V BALLINACOURTY

This will be an interesting Under 21 clash on Saturday at the Fraher Field with the winthe more experienced side in this grade and must be fancied

On Friday night at Lismore, Dungarvan who will be able to field the majority of last season's under 21 side will be fancied to beat the Shamrocks The meeting of Ring and the Nire has posed a venue problem for the Board but wherever the venue the game must go on over the week-end both of these teams still in the running for adult championship honours and players from both sides available to the under 21 teams the standard will be very good

The same can be said of the Abbeyside on Saturday night brought them such a good measure of success this year, then football will be all the better in the Division HURLING FINAL

Tallow and Ballyduff will meet in the Western minor hurling final at Cappoquin on again at Gormanstown College tonight (Friday) and while Tallows very good performance in students representing 27 count beating Abbeyside in the semi-ties took part in the course final on Friday night last will the Course has now been in send them into the game as favourites the results is by no means a foregone conclusion With players from Lismore, Ballysaggart and Melleray in-cluded on their side, Ballyduff must be a force to be reckoned with and their chances cannot be discounted They have already accounted for Ballinameela and Shamrocks Tallow's experience must be a major factor and with Kleran Ryan and Pat Daly etc to lead them they must be given the vote to get to the county final NEWS BITS was member of a most esteemed family A most charming and inoffensive lady, the late Mrs Dalton made many friends Well, in the first place, we were wrong last week when we referred to the new park ing pattern as being a "herring-bone" pattern It is not, as the bays run parallel to each other at an oblique angle on either side of the throughway Last week-end we carried

Wednesday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church followed out a mini-survey amongst a number of motorists and Requiem Mass was offered on garage owners and indeed there was a few non-motorists included also The consensus we found agreed that the large concourse was present bays were wrongly angled Rev T Canon Cassidy, VF, officiated at the Cassidy, at present and that they should, in fact, be faced in the apposite direction

However there was a min ority opinion which agreed with the present lay-out pro vided that motorists were stopped from driving into the bays immediately adjacent to the throughway so that they would not have to back out into the mainstream of traffic to get gwav

In the circumstances we think the best thing to do is to give the new system a chance and see how it works

Outside our cabın door The landlord and the sheriff Were there the day before And then my loving mother And sisters three also Were forced to go with broken hearts

For three long months bereft of work I wandered far and near went then to the poor house For to see my mother dear The news I heard nigh broke

my heart

But still in all my woe I blessed the friends who made their graves In the Glen of Aherlow Bereft of home and kith and

With plenty all round
I starved within my cabin
And slept upon the ground But cruel as my lot was I ne'er did hardship know Till I joined the British army Far away from Aherlow O Blessed Virgin Mary

Mine is a mournful tale A poor blind prisoner here l In Dublin's dreary jail Struck blind within trenches

Where I never feared the for And now I ll never see again My own sweet Aherlow Then Irish youths dear countrymen Take heed of what I say For if you join the English You'll surely rue the day
