(AN APPRECIATION)

You came among us Sagart Arun, We grew to love you Sagart Arun God's love for you was stronger. You could stay with us no So alone and forlorn you left us Sagart Arun

The dull damp Saturday dawn of August 31st, tinged with the sadness of Autumn did not riest the friend and consoler of the poor sinner As a teacher he was also a perfectionist and will be sorely missed by his pupils and fellow-teachers Yet behind all that perfectionist outlook was a man full of pure Irich with and humans. of pure Irish wit and humour When his days toil was over and on Sundays his priestly duties completed he sat among his small circle of friends and the "crack" the discussions, the debates were out of this world and he was the guiding light He was a selfless man, never thinking of himself but always striving in the interests of his friends and others and when the fire of health was dving out and the embers were burning low it must have taken a super human effort to leave his super numan effort to leave his hospital bed to come and visit his friends in Dungarvan "Greater love than that no man hath"

He is with us no more, but as he strolls the corridors of Paradica we may that his

Paradise we pray that his spirit may walk among us, to guide us to cheer us to console us until one day with God's grace we may meet

You are gone Fr Bren Goodbye dear friend Ni bheidh do leitheid airis

SHAMROCKS G.A.A. NOTES

Shamrcoks 1-7 Kilgobinet 0-6

Our junior footballers became Western champions for the first time ever at Cappoquin on Sunday last with a historic and well merited win over a gallant Kilgobinet This was another great triumph for the club one that was celebrated with gusto into the early hours of Monday morning

It was a sweet victory for Shamrocks, especially when one considers that it was achieved against all the odds and no one could blame the players if they wept tears of joy as they left the field with the Doocey Cup, their first ever 1930s championship trophy in the conditions it proved a memorable final and for this great credit is due to Kilgobinet who and who lost no caste in defeat
