Assistants
Mr T Healy said that the problem was that no engineers wanted to enter the public service and the reason was that they were not offering adequate salary scales He said that he had served on an interview board recently which was to appoint 12 engineers for the public service but only three people presented themselves the Representative Body of the we don't do something about I heard a brown thrush warbling nigh Leamybrien last June, the kepresentative Body of the Church of Ireland to the Catholic Church for Service whilst Glendine Church was public service.

To the Editor Dungaryan Leader ' An Appreciation

Dear Sir—I parked my car outside my shop around 230 am on Friday (20th inst.)—as usual carefully locking doors and booth and switching on light over doorway Three hours later—having an urgent drive I found to my consternation car had been

I immediately phoned local garda station reporting loss of an hour later at 640 am local Barrack orderly Garda Lohan rang with the glad that same had been undamaged in Co Cork thanl Gardal concerned for such prompt action in recovering car in the small hours. Also the Youghal and Midleton mobile patrols who also kept an eye on car and contents until I collected same at 930

Many individuals may have mixed and detached feelings where police duties and crime prevention-detection is concern ed but believe me they deserve much more public co-operation than is sometimes intended-Go raibh a mile maith acu

BALLYDUFF G.A.A. NOTES

On Sunday next at Lismore we are due to meet Geraldines in the Western intermediate hurling semi-final This will be our first game in the champion ship as we received a walk-over from Dungarvan in the first round On current form The Green The news of his we have the winning of this death was learned with widefirst round On current form game but we cannot afford to spread regret be complacent in the face of a determined Geraldines challenge Our side must be pre-pared not to take anything for granted as nothing less than a convincing victory will satisfy ment in the advance of the convincing victory will satisfy our supporters

Once again we have to draw by Reyour attention to the old bogey bally of current Ballyduff teams - a total lack of the necessary fitness and training to be able to give a creditable performance for one s club During the first few months we have had a certain amount of hard luck in the hurling field with the loss of some crucial games by the minimum of margins. In the first round of the senior hurling championship we beat Mt Sion then went on to defeat Bally The remains were removed to gunner in the second round on Sunday evening and the pionship we went out to Portburial took place in St Car-law after a storming game thage's Cemetery on Tuesday and in the meantime Mount Sion worked their way back in She is survived by Sr M to the championship through Benignus, Presentation Convent the losers group They then reached the county final and are now county champions

At the moment with some key players on the mjured list week Ballyin much better effort if we are atives to salvage a title this season more than anxious that they should get one hundred per due to many requests be presented again by the Lismore Dramatic Society The date will should get one hundred per speaking reading and writing cent response from the players of the Irish learned over the players themselves

WAS JOHN BETJEMAN EVER IN DUNGARVAN >

Our recent references in this column to John Betjeman and the poems which he composed about Dungarvan and Tallow germinated a great deal of interest A Dungarvan man who has been a great admirer of Betjeman and ot his poems, and who wrote a letter to the English Poet Laureate when he was knight ed some years ago has sug gested that Betjeman did in fact visit Dungarvan as o young man

The suggestion, I can only refer to it as a suggestion as no proof has been produced. was that John Betjeman toured Ireland sometime in the 1919-22 period as a pany of the late Anew Mc Master which was touring around during those years and that in one or other of came to the town He elab orates the suggestion that the poem "Dungarvan In The Rain" written by Betjeman was inspired by something that happened on the occa sion of that visit and that the Swedish beauty "Greta Hellstrom," mentioned in the poem, was in fact a female member of the Company lipass on the suggestion for what it is worth

THE OUTLAW OF LOCH LEIN

This is ballad written by James Joseph Callanan who at the beginning of the 19th century wandered through West Cork and Kerry learning the old traditional stories and bal a travelling man Best remem bered for his eloquent poem Gougane Barra his style is very well reflected in this bal-lad The Outlaw of Loch The Outlaw of Loch Lein -

O many a day I made good ale in the glen That came not of stream or malt like the brewing of My bed was the ground roof the greenwood above And the wealth that I sought one fair kind glance from

Alas on that night when the horses I drove from the That I was not near from terror my angel to shield! She stretched forth her arms her mantle she flung to the

And swam oer Loch Lem her outlawd lover to find O would that a freezing sleetwing d tempest did sweep
And I and my love were alone far off in the deep I d ask not a ship or a barque or the wave Tis down by the lake where the wild tree fringes its or a pinnace to save With her hand round my waist I d fear not the wind sides The maid of my heart my fair one of heaven resides think as at eve she wanders its mazes among The birds go to sleep by the sweet wild twist of her
