Bride-View travelled to Killeagh last Sunday, only to be narrowly defeated by 3 goals to 2. There was nothing between the two sides in the first half with most of the play in midfield. Liam Moroney missed a chance in the 33rd minute when he hit the ball straight at the keeper from 8 yards and some of the trend of the game swung forwards tacked on score after score in the last twenty minutes to win by the big margin of 3—12 to 3 points.

This game was a poor test for our side as the least the keeper from 8 yards and some of the tackles.

I know also that pears which were purchased from a grower of 1p each by a shopkeeper found their way on to the shop shelves at 6p each These examples should surely open the eyes of the consumers to the manner in which they are being mulcted October and no field to play It is not the producer who makes the big money as most Herculean efforts have been people seem to think The petty prices which they receive for their goods clearly show this It is the middle-man who corners the market who makes the killing and killing indeed it is at the expense of both the producer and consumer No one would wish to deny anyone a livelihood based on a fair margin of will be held and all are welcome

THE MOUNTAIN MEN

There are a number of well known ballads about Michael O'Dwyer and his band of gal-lant men who defied the forces fastnesses of the Wicklow moun song written by William Rooney which is our choice for the ballad corner this week is not so well-known It may be sung to the air of Fineen the Rover

Did you mark e'er a smoke drift go sailing A while ago down by yon wood?
Did you hear in the glen the wind wailing Where a barrack a week ago stood Did you hear the Yeos boasting to trap us And hang us like dogs on a Why then we're not strang You'll join in this chorus

Chorus Sing ho! for the boys of the mountain And hey' for the boys of the Who never show heel to the Here's slainte to Dwyer and his men We're not given much to parading There's not many guns in the But he that comes spying our quarters Won't bother the world for troopers come seeking us daily To drive us to hell as they But the roads a bit long so Before us to show us the way

We laugh at their offers of money And scorn their power If we fail It wont be the soldiers or traitors Wholl bring us to grief Ill go bail We're only a few but the valleys And mountains are ours every hill nd while God leaves the strength in our sinews

We ll keep the old cause
