SCHOOLS SAFETY

The efforts of CIE awakening a consciousness of Road Safety in school-children were mentioned at a Presentation Ceremony in Dungaryan Vocational School, on Tuesday last, when the prize of £5 was presented to Michael Shalloe, Mount Stuart, Aglish, Cappo

quin
The prize was in respect of a recent competition, organised by the Accident Prevention Unit of Coras Iompair Eireann on the subject of Road Safety Education for their assistance in promoting the scheme which was very successful in awakening in our school-going children an awayenger of word safety an awareness of road safety.

SALES BY NORMAN WALSH, M.I A.V I.

CROUGHNAGREE, BALLYMACARBRY, CLONMEL (For the Reps of James Tobin, deceased) HIGHLY IMPORTANT SALE BY AUCTION OF 81 ACRE RESIDENTIAL ROADSIDE FARM OF GOOD LANDS WITH NEVER FAILING WATER SUPPLY ON WEDNESDAY NEXT, 15th JANUARY, 1975, AT 3 pm

AT THE CLONMEL ARMS HOTEL Area - 81 acres, 3 rds, 20 pers, or thereabouts (SM) RV

£23 25 on Lands, £4 25 on Buildings Annuity £6 25 (Half-Yearly) Folio No 08299 Co Waterford

This is basically a good sound farm with by far the greater acreage (about 60 acres) of arable lands, and the balance potentially arable, but presently more suited to Grazing The Lands are Roadside and have a never failing Water Supply The Residence is 2-Storey and slated but needs repair, there is a small garden therewith The Outoffices need substantial The Lands are conveniently situated close to the village of Ballymacarbry (Creamery, Stores Post Office, Schools) and some 6 miles from the important and most progressive and industrial town of Clohmel (Mart and Market) and close to the beautiful Nire Valley This sale of an 81 Acre Residential Roadside Farm should prove particularly attractive just now, when the outlook for the Agricultural Industry looks much brighter in 1975, and should prove most attractive also to adjoining Land Owners, who are presented with a golden opportunity, of enlarging their own Holdings Inspection cordially invited

From a discussion wi took place at last Monda owned by the Council at I wick has been permitted many years but in 1974 so of the local residents who adjacent to the site rai objections and initiated Council for nuisance aris from the use of the site of caravan park and camp area This action was disc tinued, when the Council go an undertaking that t would not permit caravans to the site after the 19

People living in the Helv and Ring areas have fo issue, those living close to site want to have it clos because of the nuisance a others, and these include i local shopkeepers and pub cans, are mounting a car paign, to have the site opened However, I feel th most of the people are neuti in their attitude and are n concerned very much one we

a long number of years f a sense of grievance that the facilities which they had Helvick will no longer available to them, at least this Boant However once some of local residents objected to t continuation of the site as caravan park, the Coun-had no option but to agr not to permit its use for the future It was not a develop -site and possessed no prop sonitary arrangements a the Council was advised th the grovision of such faciliti would be an uneconomic pr position Consequently Council agreed, at its Nover ber meeting, to close the sit Fallowing this decision veh culor access to the site w sealed off and at last Mo day's meeting the Council was asked to approve an ord under Section 31 of the Loc Government (Sanitary Se vices) Act, 1948, prohibiting the perection or retention temporary dwellings on a Council property in Helvi for the future Such on ord was considered necessary b cause the Council, in addition to the actual site used by t cordians, owns other areas open space there and the include the car parking are
