DUNGARYAN QUALIFY FOR SEMI-FINAL

Dungarvan Stradbally

Dungarvan's under 21 hurl squad had to withstand a mendous and almost success final quarter rally from Str bally when they clashed in the Western quarter final 1 championship game at Dung van on Sunday last

The home side, who we regarded as complete outside surprised the favourites wi the quality of their hurling an the earnestness of their edeavour in the first half Th held control throughout if field in this period and maki light of the heavy condition raced into a deserving 2—4 1—1 interval lead. They continued to domin in the third quarter and loo to be coasting to an easy when they led by eleven poi (4—4 to 1—2) The heavy mg and all out effort early took its toll on a team not a hundred per cent fit and Str bally with a do or die eff stormed back into the reck ing in an exciting final quar to almost pip the winners the post.

The losers scored 3—1 m t

According to Trevor Housey, Kilbren. Ballingmult.

According to Trevor Housby, Spur Dogs in English waters are getting bigger all the time A 10 lb Spur Dog a few years ago would have been looked upon as a good one, now a Spur Dog has to top 13 to 14 lbs before any real interest is paid in the catch. The English Spur Dog The postman, Robert Keane, gave evidence that on December 12 he called to the deceased's cottage with a package, and, after knocking and getting no reply, entered the sitting room and first saw that there were burn marks all about the fireplace. The woman's body had been so badly burned that he had been unable to recognise her. He had last seen her alive on the previous Monday, when he delivered her mail. He was satisfied, however, that the body was that of deceased for he identified the footwear she had on.
