Book in Verse — Rev Fr P J Twohig Ballyvourney Co

J Twohig Ballyvourney Co Cork, has written a little book purporting to be a history of Ireland in verse It is a rather vociferous minority who clambrate the control of the unusual book but according to our for an RTE 2 but who Rev Thomas O Flach President themselves are the recipients of County Secretary, Mr B J Mc-

In a country like Ireland where oral tradition was so powerful, verse was always used extensively for the transmission of learning because it was more easily memorised than prose The story of the Children of Israel and the life of Christ of Israel and the life of Christ was turned into Saltair na Many other works such as the life of saints were ven fied in verse

In his little book Fr Twohig who was curâte at Conna at one time has the following to say about Conna "In the parish register of Conna Co Cork under advisement there appears names totally alien to tradition eg Keppel, Dobbin, Mountain Mantle Tremble Brereton Northeast Webb Monaga Durham Bernoch French, Bowles, Huitre and Willoughby all of which disappeared around about the time of the great famine "Many others of Planter stock whose names are still with us have long become transmuted to 'mere Irish"—a being in nature not in law At the time of their arrival in our midst Conna which was then a sprawling township with hundreds of cabins with scarce-"standing room" is now a dwindling village of a few doze

One startling statement appears in the book Referring to the Irish Peace Keeping Force m the Congo a few years ago Fr Twohig says 'The day the Irish UN Troops first gazed on the murky Congo river was the day Missionary Ireland died in It is published by Cork Tower Books and priced at 75p
