LAST LEG OF COUNTY - --CHAMPIONSHIPS

The fourth and last of the County championships were held at Newtown College last Sunday under rather blustery conditions. The only successful athlete from Dungarvan was Rachel Cotter who won the adies shot putt.
Other members of our ladies team at Waterford were Bernadette Cotter Catherine Moore and Marian Moore, all of whom gave a very good performance All these athletes will be in action at our sports at the Friary Sports Grounds, by kind permission on the 22nd June. I would like to take this opportunity on behalf of the Dungarvan A.C. Committee to thank the Friars who have been so good to us in the past, helping us out in every way pos-

MOST STRIKE PRONE COUNTRY IN WORLD

Tuesday's meeting of the County Waterford Committee of Agriculture in Dungaryan decided to send immediate telegrams to both parties in the present veterinary surgeons dispute appealing to them to "get together and let common sense prevail" IN MEMORIAM Mr Sean Whelan said the seriousness of the current im-passe could not be overstressed.

The agricultural community as a whole would suffer because of it and it was imperative that the dispute was settled sooner rather than later.

Mr. Jack Cullinane revealed that the

that the employees of Cappe-quin Bacon Co were now work ing on a "day to day notice" basis because of the dispute The situation generally was most serious and as a respon-sible agricultural body they should appeal to the vets union and the Department to try and resolve matters before further damage was done Mr Patrick Kenneally said that vets were the only body that vets were the only body of professional men giving a round the clock service to the

DRAGGED ON

Mr Patrick Wall said there was more to the dispute than the appointment of lay technicians "I believe the Minister is being wrongly advised in a dispute which started in 1972 and has dragged on ever since" and has dragged on ever since"
The Chairman, Mr Kieran O'Ryan said the great pity was that the matter could not have been resolved without the introduction of the dreaded strike weapon "Ours is the most strike prone country in the world" Mr O'Ryan said, "and I am fed up with the spate of strikes we have been experiencing of late"

ing of late"

The meeting finally decided unanimously that because of the present dispute they would send telegrams to both parties appealing to them to arrange an immediate meeting to try and re-solve the issue

THE POLITICAL SCENE

On a number of occasions and ed June, comments have been made verbally and in print concerning the political future of Deputy Tom Kyne The last of these which was described Tas being "categorical" stated house that Deputy Kyne had decided Esta to retire as a TD when the Frid life of the present Dail comes ed b to an end When this state-gary ment appeared in print it was histo not subsequently denied and sure so it has gained credence ever open

Following an exclusive in- neve terview which I had during occa the week I am now able to VIP state with outhority that invit Deputy Kyne will not be re- sent tiring and that, God willing, with he will again present himself of St for election as Labour Deputy ford for Waterford at the next Dail mem election The statement came the from Deputy Kyne's colleague Sena on Waterford County Council Coun Olfr Frankie King, who was City expected to be the man who senio would assume Deputy Kyne's ment clock in the event of the witho latter's retirement from the gathe

Cllr King told me that State after a great deal of consider- Th ation he had decided that in house the best interests of the impre Labour Party in the Con- by th stituency it would not be Russe proper for him to seek the the Party nomination at the next led election as he felt that he recita had not as yet made sufficient Praye headway as a public representative in the county to be warml able to hold the seat for of gar Labout In the circumstances sion w he said that he had decided one H to stand down in favour of long b Deputy Kyne who had now that agreed that he would again be left wi a condidate

Deputy Kyne confirmed this Chairm and said that he was unable Ministr to make his position clear limitat until Clir King had made his had did decision Now, however, that tions to Cilr King had declared his Ministe position, he was glad to be looking able to say that he would when the ogain be the standard bearer up to the of the Labour Party in the "go" at next general election

It is a pleasure for me to reasons be able to publish this state- be in D ment exclusively this week and was the feel sure that Deputy Kyne's honour thousands of supporters will official eceive the news with equal would
