JUNIOR HURLERS WIN Once again we have reached the junior hurling championship semi-final At Lismore last Saturday night we scored a comprehensive 5—13 to 2—3 victory over Cappoquin and now we wait a semi-final clash with Shamrocks sometime of next

We were always in full control of Saturday night's game and at times moved with real over impressive and clearly better things will be expected of us if we hope to reach the divisional final Lack of fitness was an obvious drawback to several players and from here on in its going to have to be "full steam ahead' as far as training is concerned Martin Sandford continues to be in charge but now Bro Cleary is also joining him as co-trainer and these two dedicated clubmen are entitled to expect the fullest co-opera-

We also welcome Rev Bro Whelan who has transferred from Clonmel and we hope he too will add further support, both in a playing and administrative capacity, to the club UNDER 21 HURLING

hurlers this coming Saturday the quarter final of the chami-pionship at Fraher Field This (sharp) so all players are to be at the venue at 630 We should the winning of this one although we will need to be at full strength to advance to the ALL IRELAND TICKETS

Portlaw qualified for their third consecutive final with such consummate ease that one could only wonder at the vast difference in standards of these two semi-final combatants. #### DUNGARVAN PASSING OF ESTEEMED MEMBER

Last week our club suffered News Of Town

And Round About

Augustinian pilgrimage

Last week our club suffered an incalculable loss by the very untimely death of Jimmy O'Brien, Congress Villas

A former Chairman of the club, Jimmy had also been team trainer for a time and this year to re-produce the form was a member of our junior to re-produce the form they hurling selection committee A direless worker, he epitomised against Stradbally and as a result were outpaced by a very the spirit that one expects from a true and loyal club member Certainly our club cannot afford the loss of member afford in the loss of members and in the loss of members are sent-final of the county championship at Division and the loss of members are sent-final of the county championship at Division and the loss of members are sent-final of the county championship at Division and the loss of the county championship at the loss of the county championship at the loss of the county championship at the loss of the county champions are sent-final or the loss of the county champions are sent-final or the loss of the county champions are sent-final or the loss of the county champions are sent-final or the loss of the county champions are sent-final or the loss of the county champions are sent-final or the loss of the county champions are sent-final or the loss of the county champions are sent-final or the loss of the county champions are sent-final or the loss of the county champions are sent-final or the loss of the county champions are sent-final or the loss of the loss the loss of members of Jimmy's pionship at Dungarvan on Sun-calibre and we deeply and sincerely mourn his passing His death, of course, is also a tragic loss to his wife, mother

The objections by the CL or warding of the fact that we failed to first for a charge of from the fact that we failed to fair from the fact that we failed to fa of victory is now in the air so, perhaps we can expect a con-tinuance of this week's turn-outs Let us hope so at any

Again a reminder to club members of our raffle for two All-Ireland football tickets and Several prominent members still have not obtained a card and that is not good enough The tickets are only ten pence and with so attrac-tive a prize there should be no difficulty in disposing of them

Re-Allegations of Bias Dear Mr Editor-I would like

o make a few observations on week's issue re Bias First of all I would like to remind him that I am PRO for Lismore Combairle Ceannair of Figure such to report Fianna Fail news from CC area and indeed I must admit I have fallen down on the job on more than one occasion Now Mr Hickey may prophet or a crystal ball gazer Surely in your organisation which I believe is Fine Gael you have PROs whose duty it would be to acquaint me of meetings to be held etc when I would gladly report them or alternatively send a report of when I would include them in my Another very large concourse such as Mr Hickey should feel frustrated and full of fear about the future and why he puts all the blame on the I.R A French (widow) Jimmie, Mic for the conditions prevailing is hard to understand Remember was the harrassment of catholics in Northern Ireland that started it all The LRA intervened to prevent wholesale murder and whether the cure was worse than the disease is irrelevant now What I do be-lieve is that a United Irish peo-ple could do much to end the partition of our country England's policy towards Ireland has been "divide and conquer" If we showed a United front towards Britain in our quest to end the division of our country we would achieve better results than acting as we are like two horses yoked tail to tail Some of Mr Hickey's remarks

emind me of a story I overheard It goes like this A Battalion of soldiers came marching through a certain own One of the soldiers was a native of the town and his other was at an upstairs window-"Oh" she shouted as they "they're all out of step ut my Johnny As far as I am concerned this senseless correspondence is now closed

Thanking your Mr Editor

Here I am back again after rurd a two weeks break, part of which was spent in the isola- sha tion of south Kerry I never take cease to marvel at the dec majestic breath-taking beauty sam of the scenery there and no lices matter how often I go back part it always seems to be new Now I must try to take up again where I left off three mon weeks ago and forget, for that another year at any rate, the min beauties of Kerry

ANNUAL COLLECTION FOR ST JOHN'S SCHOOL The annual collection for St John's Special School for mentally handicapped children will take place at all ally Masses at the churchgates in all parishes throughout West Waterford on next Sunday with the exception of Dun-and garvan and Abbeyside collection is later thanl usual this year—the usual Sunday in recent years was gran the last Sunday in May—but this year it had to be postponed until now

I know that the public are bombarded by collections and flag days and hardly a Sunday goes by without somebody making an appeal Nobody can get by without money and sporting and social clubs and was the exist organisations, feeling financial pinch, find them-one selves forced to queue for a Gart collection date And because title there are so many it means lopt in Dungarvan at any rate, that Mass-goers must run the source gountlet of the collectors box on stactically every Sunday of the vear

Despite all this I feel I do not need to make an apology m appealing to the public to be as generous as they kind possibly can when they meet by the the collectors for St John's School on next Sunday This inclu school caters for the educa- wide tional needs of the mentally seriou handicapped children from comm the entire West Waterford ceeds region And this year—in the purpo very near future—the dedicated members of the Associ- not ation attached to St John's the A hope to see the realisation of origin a six years old dream by the years opening and occupation of a May

tor the education and com- next fort of the children This year also marks the appointment of a new princi-i pal teacher at the school and it is the earnest hope of the School Manager and the members of the School Management Committee that they have now surmounted the last of the many disappointments Fair C which they had to face since the building of the new school commenced three years

However all this takes money and because of the desperate rate of inflation prices have soared since construction work first started and more than was first anticipated will now be required to meet the local contribution towards the entire cost Added to this the dayto-day running costs have also increased enormously But in the end the effort will be well worth it all as the children concerned will have a beautiful new school It is for this reason then that I would add my voice to the appeal to the public to be as generous as they can where St John's is concerned on Sunday next
