B.L.E. ATHLETIC NOTES

BALLY AC ARE MUNSTER CHAMPIONS

In this day and age the standard of juvenile athletics is so high that few clubs can boast of holding a provincial team title On Sunday last in Clonmel Bally AC the Ballylaneen-based club, took on and defeated the challenge of all Munster dub championship

When the team results were made up Bally had 14 points to spare over Limerick Emeralds and the boys who brought this coveted title to their club were Alan Dwan Tim Dalton, Michael Phelan and Ned Power As on many occasions before the fair-haired Alan Dwan was the first Bally athlete Tim Dalton and Michael Phelan behalf of gave consistent displays as usual and Ned Power again earned the tag of old reliable by virtue of his determined dis-play To complete a great day for Bally Ann Dunphy was third in the Girls u/11 championship with the club finishing second to Youghal

Despite constant competition since the first Sunday in October these athletes are not showing any signs of being over-taxed They may not this season or next season but let's face it how many of these athletes will have the appetite for competition when they are 14 and 15 It is up to the County Board at its next meeting to ensure that all of our young athletes enjoy a long deserved and needy break during Christmas and to spread out competition during FURTHER SUCCESS

Apart from the feats of Bally AC Waterford met with further success Peter O'Leary of Tramore won the individual title in the boys u 11 race while only nine points deprived Waterford of the gold in the inter-county competition
In the boys u 13 age group

Waterford finished third In the girls u/13 race Waterford was first in all three competitions Margaret Hennessy (St Johns Park) won the individual race ner club won the inter-club competition and Waterford were clear winners from Clare and Cork in the county race MUNSTER MEDAL FOR

Abbeyside Parish AC won its first gold Munster medal when ning Waterford team in the girls u 13 race This was a great performance and a great honour for this Abbeyside girl and as our behalf previously stated her future in committee athletics looks good To complete a great day for Waterford the past athletics the county finished to the third to Cork and Limerick in

DUNGARVAN DRAMATIC CLUB TO STAGE "THE WINSLOW

Following "The Dramatics" romp into the sheer farce of See How They Run' last year the forthcoming play marks a return to the elegant theatre By Order of the Minister for Posts and Telegraphs
From the old barracks at Terence Rattigan's dramatisation of a father's fight for his wrongly-convicted son against plob uilleann curths of Coleman (sister of the bride)

The stubborn determination of the father, Arthur Winslow, to achieve justice for his son, even at the cost of ruining him to Waterford County self financially and in health, is beautifully caught in Jim O'Keeffe's portrayal The constant support of his daughter, Catherine, even at the cost of great loss to herself is caught with the panache always shown by Eileen O'Mahony Liam Stack as the fourteen-year-old Ronnie Winslow at the centre of the play brings remarkable confidence to his playing while Joy O'Callaghan as the fussy Mrs Grace Winslow and Tom D'Arcy as her gadabout elder son, Dickie, show fine characterisations As an ex-officio member of the family the part of Violet, the maid, is given great credence by Ann Power's playing while the gushing newspaper reporter Miss Barnes, is well caught by a new member of the club Ruth require top-class direction to be moulded into worthy enter-tainment and the artistic touch, the eye for detail and the feeling for authenticity that have the half marks of Branden been the hallmarks of Brendan Breen's productions over the years are well-stamped on "The Winslow Boy" It can thoroughly recommended fine entertainment as

The over-robust exchanges continued to prevail in the second half and Offaly centre back Padraig Horan went off with a head injury after two minutes It was supprising that Cork referee P Cronin failed to disciplinary action until 40th minute when he sent Waterford's Martin Hickey for a dangerous pull on Offalys P. Ennis 6, Dungaryan 0

Dungarvan were most unlucky losers on Sunday last when they were defeated in Ennis by a me diocre Ennis team in the Manseragh Cup The reason for this defeat is still being hotly debated but one thing at least appears clear — Dungarvan for-wards were not to blame They literally gave the Ennis pack all roasting hooking several balls against the head as well as winning more than their share of possession from line-outs and loose play Most of the play for the duration of the game took place in the Ennis half, yet the Dungarvan attack failed to reg-ister a score Full marks must go to the Ennis defence which on this occasion, was impregnable and was successful in giving the Dungarvan attack literally no room in which to manoeuvre After 15 minutes of the first half, Ennis opened the score with a drop goal This score was taken by the Ennis scrum half during one of their few at-tacks Fifteen minutes later Dungarvan had a chance to equalize with a penalty shot, from a reasonable kickable position, but P Morrissey was wide of the mark Just before half time, Ennis scored a penalty kick from 25 yards bring ing their total to 6 points without reply from Dingaryan is Without reply from Dungarvan Early in the second half Dungarvan were awarded a penalty kick 25 yards out in front of the posts This was a vital kick for Dungarvan but penalty kick by Dungarvan also failed to reach the mark Best for Dungarvan was the pack as a unit with E Walsh Morrissey and N Phelan being particularly prominent In short, this will be a day nat Dungarvan R.F.C. will wish to forget Additional bad news was that Youghal defeat-ed Carrick-on-Suir in the Jun-ior League, thus collecting a total of 10 points, and eliminat-ing the possibility of a playing the possibility of a play-off with Dungarvan for divis ional honours

TYPE TRADERS

"Fly By Night" type of traders—those who set up in business for a day in ballrooms throughout the country - were verbally slammed by members of the South Eastern Regional Development Organisation at their meeting in Waterford City

A call on the government to take whatever steps necessary to use existing legislation to The Christmas Draw takes to use existing legislation to place at the Band Room Wolfe curb what was condemned as Tone Road, on Tuesday night unfair trading practices was next, December 9th As well as reiterated, along with a demand that new legislation be introduced to deal with the problem directly, rather than in_a roundabout way This particular topic, a bone of contention with the members for some time past, was > by the organisation However, Councillor Tommy Wade Dungarvan Urban Council differed with the forthright views of his colleagues by maintaining "surely the legitimate shopkeepers must be at fault to some extent"

Having agreed that some form of Valued Added Tax assessment should be placed on the roadside traders when being granted a licence Councillor Wade stressed that there were welcomed The Secretary and Treasurer gave their reports

Election miles down the country, pay transportation accommodation and in some cases hire out a dance hall and still be petitive with the local shop-

RESTRICTIONS

He alleged that when occalike confirmation and Communion days apsions Holy proached then bang up goes the prices" While there should Mrs Rebecca Keevers, | Press be some, maybe necessary, reOfficer, Mrs Ben Flynn Committee—Mrs Stack, Mrs Ann traders, he did not think there was any need to banish them altogether

Councillor P Kenneally Water-ford County Council, said that the reason why the roadside traders were able to be so competitive was that the goods were being bought by them "for a song" after the bombings in the North and then taken down

"ANOTHER DAY'S WORK" Councillor T Martin Kil-kenny Corporation, said that if o'clock
The outgoing President, Mrs
