Councillor Urban Councillor or Corpora member that Comhairle Ceanntair involved be the deciding body on the question of co-option

The continuing problems arising from the position of ground rents, especially in the appequin area, is reflected in a motion from the Coppoaum Cumann which calls on the Fianna Fail parliamentary porty to urge the government to introduce legislation deal. ing with ground rents as a matter of urgency

A number of Cumainn, inkuding Touraneena, Kill and others are sponsoring a motion which requests that the banished Donegal Deputy and ormer Minister, Neil Bloney, be invited bock into the party This should undoubted. y cause a great deal of inter estima discussion and its outcome should show whether there is any real swing away from the conservative policy on Northern Ireland as enunclated by the Party Leader and the Party Spokesmen on Northern Affairs in recent

All in all the Convention should provide the members of the Party with the apportunty to have frank and full discussions on the many matters affecting policy and organisation within the party not only at county level but at national level as well

THE SHOALS OF HERRIN'

The herring fishing season is coming to an end and much has been said and written in recent weeks about the fast vanishing shoals of herring which have made the south-east coast of Ireland one of the most lucrative fishing grounds in the world and consequently one of the most poached of fishing areas I was reminded of this when I ame across the ballad about the North Sea herring fishing grounds "The Shoals of Her rin" over the week-end and thought that it would be a topical choice for our ballad corner this week —

With our nets and boats we're farm On the wild and wasteful Its out there on the deep that we harvest our bread, As we hunt the bonny shoals

It was on a fair and pleasant Out of Yarmouth harbour I was farin As a cabin boy on a sailin' lugger For to hunt the bonny shoals of herrin'

Now we left the home grounds in the month of June And for Grannoch Shiels we With a hundred cran of the silver darlin
That we'd taken from the shoals of herrin

Now the work was hard and the hours were long And the treatment 'sure it took some bearin And I used to sleep standing on my feet
And I'd dream about the shoals of herrin'

Now you re up on deck, you re a fisher lad And you're learnin' all about sea-farin That's your education scraps of navigation As you hunt the bonny shoals of herrin

In the biting wind and the driving rain Sure you earn the gear that you are wearin' Sailed ten thousands miles, caught ten million fishes As we hunt the bonny shoals of herrin'

FRIARY SET-DANCERS

OUALIFY The Friary Set Dancers who last year won the Ali-ireland Slogadh Competition have again qualified for the All-Ireland mai this year 'Slogadh, organised jointly by Gael Linn and Aer ingus, is open to all schools, clubs and youth organisations in the country This year the Friary put in two set dancing teams—one under 16 and the other over 16 (composed of girls from Mercy Convent and boys from St Augustine's College) Both eams have now qualified for the All-Ireland final in Galway (March 26-28) Joining them will be the well-known Brickey Set (under 19) and the youthful but very attractive Sliabh gCua set (under 12) It speaks volumes for the vitality of dancing tradition in West Waterford that four groups have Won through the egional finals against opposition from Wexford, Kilkenny, Offaly, Kildare, Tippersry and Wicklow—and now go forward to Galway with high hopes of All-Ireland honours A great tribute to Monnie Hallahan who trains three out of the four teams and Mairead Nic Craith who trains the Brickeys The Sets will not be alone, however, in keeping the banner of traditional music fluttering gaily in Galway The Friary Ceili Band, with traditional players from Ballymacarbry, ouraneena, Kilnafrehan and Abbeyside, have also qualified for the All-Ireland—and seeking a treble is Matty Fahey (Kilnafrehan) who is in the Friary Set, plays in the Celli Band and has also qualified for mental music section Go n-eiri

DRUISKEEN LAN

We have been asked for the words of the rousing old dibling song 'Cruiskeen Lan' once a firm favourite but no seldom heard. Here they are

Let the farmer praise H grounds Let the huntsman praise h hounds

The shepherd his sweet scented lawn, But I, more bless'd than the Spend each happy night an With my darling little crus keen lan.

Gra machree ma cruiskeen Slainte geal mavourneen. Gra machree a coolin bar

Oh gra machree ma crais Immortal and divine Great Bacchus, god of wine, Create me by adoption you

In faith that you'll comply That my glass shall ne'er me Or my darling little cruisies And when grim appears In a few but pleasant years To tell me that my race he been run I'll say 'Be gone you knave For great Bacchus gave m For to take another cruisked Then fill your glasses high Let's not part with lips a dry Though the lark now pro-claims it is dawn

And since we can't remain May we shortly meet again To fill another cruiskeen is SHAMROCKS
