Dear Editor—I would deem it a great favour if you would publish this as my protest about the bus service, operating between Waterford and Dungarvan I arrived from London on Thursday, 22nd July, around 630 pm. and found to my amazement that there was no bus service operating from Waterford to take there was no bus service operating from Waterford to take people home to Dungarvan.
On making inquiries I was told that no buses operate on week days only week-ends. Surely this is all wrong How do they expect people to get home without some form of home without some form of transport if one hires a taxi it can cost up to £10

MINOR HURLERS PLAYED

WELL

Abbeyside are the 1976 Western minor hurling championship winners, but only by a margin of 1-7 to 1-4 after a gallant effort by Tallow whom they defeated in Cappoquin on Friday evening last

Victory favoured Abbeyside in a match in which Tallow, fielding a "weak" minor side, really dominated much of the proceedings against such a strong Abbeyside combination

Ahead by 1-3 to 0-5 at halftime it was really unbelieveable from a Tallow point of
