Till one day he stopped and laid down both his ears
As if saying to his driver
I have blood and some pride And will no more be your van horse from the banks of the Bride

The driver at once to his in-

The driver at once to his instincts did bow And the Van Boy was sold to a farmer to plough, Until one day while riding him home to his feed, The little horse galloped with ease and full speed since the race Van Boy ran He was known from the Col-trim right down to the van, And when making top speed at Brown's Cross near

Lismore,
He came home in a canter past fast Galteemore.

At the Point-to-Point meetings held by UHC, Clonmult, Ballylegion and old Bartlemy, Good horses the Van Boy did easily outpace And earned fresh laurels in each farmers race

POSITION OF TRUST

District Justice O'Connell said that despite all Mr King had said he could not overlook the fact that the defendant was in a position of trust and stole and embezzled a good ease and full speed

He was then groomed and cantered and trained how to fence

And down by the Blackwater his racing commenced,
He was matched against "Vanity," hailed as of great stuff,

The result was a dead-heat near sweet Ballyduff

Twelve years have now gone since the race Van Boy ran and stole and embezzled a good amount of money from his employer. The matter might have gone undetected but for the good work of the Guards However he said, that in view of the promise of full restitution he would adjourn the question of penalty to the October Court when he hoped the matter of recompence would be fixed up He said that he would decide then what he would do in the light of what happened in the meantime

BALLINROAD SOCCER CLUB NOTES

Ballinroad 1 St. Josephs 0 Ballinroad kicked off the new season at their home ground on Sunday last with a good win over last year's Div 3 champions St Josephs While the scoreline would suggest a close affair, this was a game in which the homeside dominated from the start but their forwards just failed to capitalise on a magnificent outfled service The goal which decided issue came midway through the first half when Vince Tobin raced in behind the visitors de-fence to place the ball well wide of the keeper. The city side almost snatched a dramatic late point when their centre-forward headed over with only Landers

ABOUR PARTY TO DECIDE IM NEXT SUNDAY

The controversial issue as w to who will carry the Labour II arty-banner in the Waterford instituency in the next general election in succession to sitting Deputy Tom Kyne will he decided at a Labour Party Selection Conference which will be held in Dungarvan next Sunday Ever since Deputy Kyne b ublicly announced that he would not be standing for election to the Darl again, the notter as to who would succeed him as the Party standard bearer in the constituency has been the source of much speculation I understand that the matter will be inally decided next Sunday n Dungarvan when delegates rom all the Lobour Party branches in the constituency, which includes the county and rily, will decide who is to get e nomination

Deputy Kyne has made no bones about the fact that his own personal choice is County Councillor Frank King and he nas already been in the wars with Labour Party leaders on this issue So much so that then Cllr King failed to ecure the Senate seat acated when Labour Senator rendan Halligan was elected to the Dail, Deputy Kyne resigned as Chairman of the arliamentary Labour Party in

On the other side of the om there is Waterford Corocation Alderman rennan who is an old comagner in the constituency has unsuccessfully stood is a Labour condidate in the constituency previously but once Deputy Kyne made a ositive announcement of his etirement from active poliis at national level at the lose of the lifetime of the resent Dail he at once nnounced that he would be eeking the Party nomination or the next election, this depite Mr Kyne's publicly innounced preference for Clir ing or perhaps it might be ore correct to say, in spite

Another who will be seek the nomination at next inday's Selection Conference ille be Dungarvan Urban Councillor Tommy Wade file the name of Mrs Morar rom Tromore has also been ntioned

However it would appear the two main conenders will be Councillor ing and Alderman Brennan nd if the messages passing hrough the grapevine at the me of writing mean anyhing it would appear that the najority of the delegates will supporting the former Vhatever the outcome, one hing appears to be certained that is that the conferfrair.
