SUSPENDED SENTENCE FOR STEALING SUIT

Hotel Dungarvan as follows to one month in prison by Dis-Cappoquin v Kinsalebeg and truct Justice W F O'Connell Touraneena v Ballyduff Lower at Dungarvan Court last PANEL SPEAKING

Next Monday night is the property of Michael Gamclosing date for entries for the bon, Bonmahon on Thursday, January 13 last
Supt M Sills Tramore who much appreciated

Ring and Brickeys will contest both codes but in a joint Meeting Mr Jim Troy will give if the leagues will be followed New Zealand

At Monday nights Executive prosecuted said that the defendant who appeared before the court in custody had entered the house of Mr Gambon tered the house of Mn. Gambon when no one was at home and took the jacket of the suit and h d the slacks in the house before he left. He said that between 1966 and 1969 Kelly had a long list of convictions in this country and in England but had a clear record from 1969 up to this Ms G Bonner Soir (Far-rell & Mornssey) who defend-ed appealed for leniency She said that the defendant who lived with his father on a 30-acre farm in Ballina had a drink problem and was living at home with his father until he had a row with him recent-ly and left She said that if were given a chance he would return home and resume work on the farm The District Justice said that he had been observing the defendant's attitude in the court and he appeared to approach the situation in a very casual fashion. "If he does not realise the seriousness of this offence then I will impress It on him very quickly" he

Questioned by the District Justice the defendant said that he did not know what happened to him when he had drink taken. He said that he would not have gone near the house that day at all but he got caught in the blizzard and was looking for shelter. He went up and knocked at the drop of the strength door several times but got no answer and then pushed it in He was drenched and took the dry jacket He promised that if he was given a chance he would go back home to his father again Having imposed the sentence the District Justice said that the District Justice said that he would suspend it on condition that the defendant would enter a bond to be of good behaviour for 12 months.

Supt Sills informed the Count that the defendant was wanted in the Ballina area on other charges The stolen suit had been recovered in particular. had been recovered in perfect condition

Tillage is Profitable

On suitable land, CASH CROPS, including BARLEY and WHEAT for which MARKETS are ASSURED, pay better than drystock farming.

If you're already in tillage . . . why not increase the acreage. If you are not in tillage ... think about it... contractors can do the work for you.

Have a word with your Agricultural Adviser. He's got the facts.
