At Dungarvan, Colligan looked good in beating Tourin, in what was probably the best jame of the week-end. With some improvement Collision same of the week-end. With some improvement Colling an should be good enough to take on all comers this season. Tourin with improvement can come through the losers group Colligan just about deserved their seven points winning margin.

The junior hurling game between Ardmore and Villierstown was brought to a halt ten min-sites after the start on Sunday evening, to allow referee Mick White reduce the Villerstown team to 15 players. Ten minutes earlier they began the game with cult thirteen. Now there seventeen, and one noticed that they "had an awful growd" in the forward line the referee was advised. This was not the only troppage in the game, which wice in the second half and Villierstown can consider them seives lucky to have finished with fitteen men on the field serious misconduct of one particular player should have been penalised and had he dealt with according to rule he would not be seen in girsey again this year

NEWS BITS When the Coisde Gnoths met last week to deal with the un-der 21 championship arrange-ments they decided to wait for a turther three weeks as the Management Committee had not yet produced a formula setlining the manner in which such teams can be formed. A decision will likely be given on May 9th—the date of the next County Board meeting incidentally, one of the mat-ters to be dealt with at the County Board meeting will be the matter of the mind ball challenge game against Offaly at Tullamore on Satur-day evening last. The selectors will be asked to explain why a few of the players did not arrive at their homes until

DUNGARYAN/ ABBEYSIDE CLASH IN BYRNE CUP FOR MILLEADHA MEMORIAL FUND

Few hurling pairings can quite generate the excitement Dungarvan-Abbeysk a derby" meeting The ~iocal great rivals have not met in adult competition now for several years so that in it self will whet the appetite all the more when they clash in the final of the Vincent Byrne Cup at Fraher Field on Friday night of next week May 6th
This game is being staged in aid of the Padraigh O Mileadha Memorial Fund and in addition to the cup a beautiful set of inscribed medals will be presented to the victors t is a game that can hardly fail to excite. Dungarvan are living for the day when they return to their rightful place in senior ranks and a good display against the villagers would be just the kind of prechampionship uplift to set them on their way Injury may deny them the services of star defender Michael services of star defender and all horris, while John Moylan too must be rated a doubtal starter But for all that the Blucs will field a formidable line-up that includes Martin and Liam Sandford Eddle and Noel Shashan Bu Mechan. Noel Sheehan, Pa Meehan, Liam Simms Frammy Healy, John Power Jimmy Sullivan and Peter Hayes Abbeyside will more than

Abbeyside will more than likely field at championship strength Nicky Cashin is of course their big name, but in Pat Enright, Joe Power Michael Hanrahan, Eddie Cashin, John McGrath Paul McGovern and such rising youngsters as John Regan and Jim Kiev they boast of a fine array of talent.

FAVOURITES

The Villagers must on start favourites, but very little form counts for precious in local derbies Certain that these arch rivals will give us a game to remember mark game that will fittingly the revival of the Byrne It should be a really night at Fraher Field game apart. INFIRMARY CUP

Dungarvan 1, Johnville 2 Our club has known cup disappointments in the past but May Day at Springmount this year was a hearthreak day for our 1st div side Johnville, who had already once they weathered the early as they got and our hopes were high when Donal O'Connor got the vital lead goal with 12 min-The half time talk centered on whether or not our defence could hold out, or would Johnfootball, manage an equaliser Michael Sheridan was m the game instead of 'Nipper' Hur-ley and his midfield play added

NEXT YEAR

While this season was dis-Crosson and Power made sure appointing as far as our teams were concerned it is now time to plan for next year's competi-tions Some new ideas are being investigated to make ut easier for the team managers
The general meeting will be the place that these ideas can be decided on but in the comfor the future The curtain has now closed on another season for the club meeting some of the players to get their views on these and other matters concerning our half of the club like to thank all who helped financially and otherwise during the past

CONGRATULATIONS To Martin and Breda John and Marion Jum and Bridget congratulations on their recent happy events SOCIAL '77

All tackets for this year's printing of these notes and that social are now distributed and if you have not ordered one as yet you will have to depend on Keane, Player of the Year who are connected with the any tickets that might be returned to the committee J D. Year Willie Joe O'Connor This O'Shea and Jim Walsh are the is purely a personal choice and men to see of you have any has nothing to do with club proerupes.

Our supporters club are once again very kindly sponsoring the trophies for Clubman and Player of the Year and that stead for Butler and Foley local "Superstar" James Ducey will donate the under age trophy So all that remains to be got now are names to go with the trophies. The voting for pllayer of the year will be done at committee level and the Supporters Olub will pick the clubman of the year so this month's Friday the 13th will be lucky for sometody!
