On Waterford Team To Play

Cork—Kieran Ryan of Tallow GAA Club is the only hurler of the local clubs to be selected on the Waterford team to play Cork in the Munster semi-final at Thurles this coming Sunday We wish Kieran and his team-mates every success against the All-Ireland cham-

Big Turn Out For Flanna Fai! Rally—A most enthusiastic reception was given the Flanna Fail condidates in the Fianna Fail condidates in the final party rally through Cappoquin, Lismore Ballyduff and Tallow on Monday evening last The Castlelyons Pipe Band led the parade to the four centres at which the four candidates were the main engagers. didates were the main speakers Eucharistic Procession—The annual Eucharistic Procession—The annual Eucharistic Procession was held in Tallow on Thursday evening of last week Although the procession began at the Carmelite Convent shortly after 7 d'clock it did not take the route of former years to the Grotto at Barrack Street due to the inclement weather conditions Instead the procession went straight to weather conditions Instead the procession went straight to the Church where Benediction was imparted by Very Rev Donal Clancy P.F. Glasgow
The route of the procession was suitably decorated The Monstrance was borne by Rev Fr Clancy and the canopy carried by members of the various community associations of the parish The choir sang hymns en route and also in the Church

during Benediction
Very Rev Michael Walsh PP, was loud in his praise from the altar after the procession for the great efforts put into the organisation and the large number of parishioners
