FURTHER INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT

FOR DUNGARVAN

Big news during the past week was undoubtedly the announcement that the Industrial Development Authorit had findlised a major land dec reputed to be of the order of E3 million with purchases Dungaryan and Waterford The deal involved the put chase of 70 acres at Clogher ane, Dungarvan and 66 acres adjoining the Industrial Est te at Cork Road, Waterford and was completed subject to outline planning permission for industrial development being obtained

The property purchased Dungaryan is owned by Mr Jackie O'Donnell, Yougha Road and consists of the big field skirting the main Con road and running on to Fr Twomey's Road Mr Frank Burke, South East Regional Manager of the IDA has stated that the attractiveness of this site for development was that it was a "wet site" with approximately four mil lion gallons of water per day available for industrial use They would now, he said, be in a position to market this site to any industrialist in tending to set up a major water using industry in Ireland and the site had the added attraction that such sites were not easily come by throughout the country

The purchase of the land it Dungaryan would indicate that sooner or later there wil be a further major industrid development in the area and this can only prove good for the future prosperity of the

TUESDAY SECTION

Recently we held our first camp at Glenshillane since this section came into opera-tion. We had a total of 16 scouts camping and it proved a most successful camp especially as the majority were first time campers
The highlight of the weekend was the commando course which took six hours to com-plete and really tested every-one's ability and stamina The hillside speed course was very popular and demanding, and the kings of speed were DJ and Jackson with a time of 2 mins 17 secs. The rope tree climb proved that we had many a monkey in this section and congratulations to Darra on making D laugh so much. The raft making and testing event was a real thriller and Micky McC got a good wash Three Patrols produced rafts which were meant to be unsinkable but all you have to do is ask Derek Micky and Tony is the answer to the question yes or no Brian M didn't believe you could light a fire on a river but the Panthers really showed him how it could be done. how it could be done Timmy managed to get his feet wet, despite the cold water, although he didn't venture to the water a second time The winners of the Commando Course competition were Micky McCormack's team which in cluded Jimmy Organ, Gerry Kenneally and Darra McDermott

The lads were thred but happy coming home on Sunday and I am sure Fergal Johnny M AS Tomas Liam and the rest are looking forward to the VENTURERS

Congratulations to Billy and Raymond on their recent ap-pointments as Secretary and Treasurer of the Venturer Group Thanks goes to Kevin and Paddy for the great work they did while holding these positions
