Because of the fact that the Leamybrien venue is closed for attention, the Division 3 foot ball league final between Ballinacourty and De La Salle has been moved to Ballyduff Lower where the game will take place

It is so long since Bailing courty placed in this league that it is now impossible to assess their chances of winning and the opposition is such an unknown quantity that the same must be said for them Let us hope that the title comes

EAST AND WEST MEETING During the coming week end

he Officers of both the Eastern and Western Division, play to meet to discuss next year's in te mediate championships With East the intermediate hurling championship in the Division will be reduced to a two-team competition and this can hardly be regarded as a championship Ther would seem to be left with three options To force their two teams up to senior ranks or to regrade them to junior status The other option would be to leave them play in the Weste n championship

The intermediate football championship is also likely to be discussed Next year — if Shamrocks fail to beat Kilmac' on Sunday—the Western cham plonship will be reduced to four teams. The matter is being deal; with urgently in order that motions to remedy the position can be submitted to Convention

FRIARY SALE OF WORK FOR THE MISSIONS

This is the week-end all our Mission workers in Dungarvan, Abbeyside and surround ng areas have been striving towards—the Annual Sale of Work in the Friary Hall for the Augustinian Missions in Africa and South America

The Sale opens on Friday night next December 9th at 730 p.m. It combinues on Saturday with a children's Mainnee at 230 featuring Santa Claus and a Fancy Dress Children competing in the Fancy Dress Competition should gather in the Square before 2 o'clock and join in the parade to the Hall.

The concluding session of the Sale of Work begins at 730 p.m. on Saturday night. The admission charge for adults to night sessions is 20 pence and 10 pence for the children will not be admissed to the night sessions unless accompanied by parents. The afternoon Matinee on Saturday is organised specially for children if you haven't yet thought of a gift for the Sale—there is still time to send one! There are about ten different stalls as well as a great "Wheel of Fonume" with many attractive items, raffles gainer plus the big riffle for the attractive items, raffles gainer plus the big riffle for the suite of Waterford Crystal, Don't forgelt to visit the mini-case for a refreshing "cuppa"!

As in the jumor game the margin of victory was just two points but again there could be no disputing the Nire's author ity over the hour. Both sides mastered the very bad conditions to serve up a real thriller. The winners had the aid of the strong breeze in the first half but their half time lead of 0.6 to 0.2 looked anything but good. As expected the Eastern champions, made a determined bid in the second half but all though they attacked relentless by the Nire held on in a tension. pliment Kilmacthomas on
