CAPOQUIN CPO INQUIRY TO RE-OPEN

An official government notice published in last week's "Leader" indicates that the Minister for the Environment, Mr Sylvester Barrett, T.D., has ordered that the public local inquiry into the application of Waterford County Council for a Compulsory Purchase Order relating to certain lands portion of which are owned by Sir Richard Keane in Cappoquin be reopened on next Wednesday morning, January 25 at 11 o'clock to hear an objection which he has received against the confirmation of the Order.

The inquiry was initially held on June 29 of last year when an objection against the Order was lodged by the landowner. In a letter to Deputy Austin Deasy dated December 22, the Minister stated that after careful consideration of the evidence tendered and adduced at the inquiry, he now found it necessary to direct that it be re-opened for the purpose of obtaining further evidence on housing needs and the availability of any alternative housing sites in the Cappoquin area.

The Minister's Inspector appointed to hold the inquiry, Mr R. H. Dobbyn, F.R.I.A., will sit at the Courthouse, Dungarvan on next Wednesday to hear such further evidence and will subsequently report his findings and

WE'RE STILL NOT THE WORST

It may feel as if a record sum on alcohol was spent again over the Christmas and New Year holidays and while without doubt, the amount spent in pubs, lounge bars and hotels did far exceed that of previous years, and contrary to popular belief, the Irish do not seem to head the European drink statistics. At least that appears to be so according to the latest survey of alcohol consumption within the European Community—based on 1976 figures.

The country with the heaviest alcohol drinking in the Community during 1976 was Luxembourg with 4 1/2 litres (a little more than 4 pints) of distilled alcohol per person Ireland, at 1.98 litres (roughly 3 1/2 pints), lies in sixth place, behind Germany (2.83 litres), France (2.5 litres), Netherlands (2.49 litres) and Italy (2.0 litres). The United Kingdom is placed last with 1.66 litres per head.

But in the beer-drinking league, Ireland moves up to fourth place consuming 123 litres (almost 218 pints) of beer per person. Germany leads with a consumption rate of 150.9 litres (almost 265 pints), followed by Belgium (145 litres) and Luxembourg (130 litres). And the country where they drank least beer during 1976 was Italy with a

LIONS CLUB FOR DUNGARVAN

A meeting to discuss the formation of a Lions Club in Dungarvan will be held in Lawlor's Hotel on to-morrow (Friday) night, January 20 at 8.30 p.m.

A Lion's Club is a group of community-minded men who pool their talents to determine how best they may serve the less fortunate members of the community.

Their services to the physically and mentally handicapped, the sick, the aged and the needy illustrate that Lions respond to human needs and live up to their motto
"We Serve."

Clonmel Lions Club has been invited to address the meeting and will explain the aims and objects of the Association of Lions Clubs and give any assistance that may be required in forming the new Club in Dungarvan.

DUNGARVAN C.B.S. NEWS BULLETIN

Our sincere thanks to the people of Dungarvan and Abbeyside for their generous response to last week-end's house-to-house collection in aid of the proposed new secondary school.
Aid has now been made in the "local contribution" that has to be made and while we must travel a long road yet, financially the house-to-house collection shortened it considerably.

Incidentally any householders who missed out on the collection can hand in their subscriptions at the school or to any member of the fund raising committee.

A number of people have also expressed their willingness to subscribe the sum of £1 a week for a specific number of weeks into the fund. If you feel you can do the same any committee member will arrange it for you.
Finally a sincere word of thanks to our many collectors without whom the whole effort could not have been mounted.

"RURAL" COLLECTION
The collection in the rural areas will be continued this week-end. A meeting of parents or rural pupils was convened on Tuesday night, last when arrangements for the collection were finalised. We trust the response here will be equally generous.

SOCIAL NIGHTS
The fortnightly social nights have now been resumed at the CBS Hall and are proving tremendously popular. A really marvellous night's enjoyment can be had for a nominal admission charge. The next social night is on Thursday 26th inst.

NON STOP DRAW
Arrangements are now well advanced for our non-stop draw which we are hoping to get under way next month. Again we appeal with confidence to every one to support the draw. Promoters will be calling on you shortly while you can also signify your intention of joining the draw by giving your name to any committee member until next week. P.R.O.

Personal Visit by Garrett

Dr Garrett Fitzgerald, T.D.
Leader of the Fine Gael Party and former Minister for Foreign Affairs made a whistle-stop tour of the Waterford Constituency on Monday and Tuesday last.

On Monday the articulate Doctor had a working lunch with all the Constituency officers of Fine Gael in Lawlor's Hotel Dungarvan, and later received a number of deputations.
Before leaving town he made a personal visit to the "Leader" Office where he met the Editor and some of the staff. He was accompanied by Deputy Austin Deasy and Cliff R. A. Walsh. He then went to Waterford where he addressed a public meeting

COLDEST NIGHT

Monday night last was, according to the Meteorological Office, the coldest so far this year with temperatures ranging from minus 4 Celsius to minus ten in some inland areas.
It was a night of widespread severe frost with snow showers in some places. However, it was not the coldest night of the winter as similar temperatures were recorded in November

"National Games A Way Of Life" CHAIRMAN'S ADDRESS TO WESTERN CONVENTION

It is gratifying to the extreme to look back on a year when supporters turned out in greater numbers than ever before to see our games enjoy the thrills of championship battles and to show by their presence at the games in record numbers that in West Waterford the National games are not, alone alive and vibrant but continuing as a way of life as far as many people are concerned.

So said Mr John A. Murphy, Chairman, when he addressed the 52nd annual convention of the West Waterford G.A.A. Board held at Cappoquin on Sunday last.

That in itself," Mr Murphy told the record attendance (162 delegates) "should be the spur to ensure that in the years that lie ahead the good work now so firmly under way will not alone be maintained but intensified.

Referring to 1977 as Felle na nGael Year Mr Murphy said that Waterford had been honoured with the task of staging this remarkably successful national week end festival for the young and he was happy to say they had come through with flying colours.

LUNATIC MADNESS

Having praised and thanked everyone for the work they put in organising the Felle na nGael Year, Mr Murphy said that from what he had said so far it must be construed that everything in the garden was rosy and that incidents were conspicuous by their absence. This however, was not the case.

We continue the Chairman went on to witness far too many incidents in our many games, and indeed for a two week spell lunatic madness during last year referees sent of players in imports, championship games with a frequency that was disconcerting to say the least.

The general standard of sportsmanship in the division was not the Chairman said, all that could be so much better and to suggest otherwise would be incorrect. The year also saw a worrying increase in the number of foul match disturbances when very often the referees were the target for all kinds of abuse.

In fact the Chairman said it seems to be a very regular feature throughout the country that clubs are increasing in using abusive when defenceless players are not in important games. But instead of blaming any one of the causes of these defeats they conveniently make the referee the scapegoat and turn their vengeful attention in that direction.

It is the Chairman stressed that a situation no Board condone. This Board can do all it can to ensure that no such delegates will no longer be prepared to handle our games.

If we are expected to find consolation in the fact that this situation is also a problem at national level, are that in national games referees can be abused insulted and threatened we cannot be expected to be satisfied with the unsatisfactory manner in which higher officials have dealt with offenders.

TIPP WERE NO CHALLENGE

Waterford 37, Tipperary 9. A Waterford display of encouragement and promise but Tipperary a performance that was a question mark over their prospects of salvaging premier division status in the current season.

That was said in last Sunday's challenge game at Dungarvan, won decisively by the home county who were always the masters of a near full strength Tipperary whose limitations in attack were clearly exposed over the hour.

Although the game showed Waterford to be still vulnerable in more than one place they always looked to have the beating of Tipperary whose lethargic approach matched their general ineffectiveness.

Waterford opened most impressively and were well ahead before Tommy Butler had Tipperary's first score a point free after nine minutes. But with Mossy Whelan emerging as the dominant midfielder as well as being in form, Kieran Ryan, Waterford continued to hold sway and but for fluffing some tight edge chances would have enjoyed a more commanding lead than the 1-5 to 0-3 interval advantage.

The game died as a contest however in the third quarter when first corner forward Pats Kelly scored in the 39th minute followed by another from Jim Green four minutes later. Tipperary enjoyed the better of matters in the closing stages but an intense attack seemed looked capable of breaching Waterford's defensive wall.

Mossy Whelan apart Waterford were splendidly served by goalkeeper Michael Phelan, Nicky Cashin (Seamie Hannon), Mossie Walsh, Kieran Ryan, Pats Kelly and scorer in chief Jim Green.

Few Tipperary reputations were enhanced although the back trio of Tade O'Connor, Pat Fitzelle and Noel O'Dwyer were a ways to the fore. Tommy Butler too looked hard at the field but Pat Butler apart the story up front was a dismal one for Tipperary.

Scorers for Waterford were— Jim Green 2-1, Pats Kelly 1-0, Michael Phelan 0-2, Tipperary—Tom Butler 0-2, Pats Kelly 0-2 each, J. Dunlea 0-1.

Waterford—M. Phelan, R. Cashin, N. Cashin, S. Hannon, J. Dalton, J. Galvin, P. McGrath, M. Whelan, K. Ryan, M. Walsh, N. Connors, R. Walsh, M. Hekey, J. Green, P. Kelly, S. Dalton, E. Dalton, E. Ryan for McGrath.

Tipperary—P. McLoughney, P. Williams, J. Keogh, J. Doyle, T. O'Connor, P. Fitzelle, N. O'Dwyer, T. Butler, J. Moran, K. P. Butler, T. Carey, L. McGrath, J. Williams.

Referee Noel Dalton.
