Another item in the report refers to the functions of the Special Traffic Corps and this should prove of interest in this county where a branch of the Corps operates with very special emphasis in one sphere. The Special Traffic Corps which was set up in 1973 is operational in all Garda divisions throughout the country. The Traffic Corps Unit in each division is under the direct control of the Divisional Chief Superintendent, who exercises day-to-day control through a nominated Inspector. The Special Traffic Corps complements the activities of the Force in general in the management and control of traffic and accident prevention."

as the bells of awakening ring The dreams we've preamt are forgotten. time to start once again

Another new day here to greet wonder what this new day will bring Into the unknown once more we must go and take our fate as it comes

The river of time we must all follow blind. never knowing where that great river runs As one we must face the future and leave the past far behind People in search of tomorow

the blind leading the blind To our posts in life we must fight or fall we must try

To live a life we never asked for. because we're all afraid to die Bleary eyed our vision hazed we must wander on Only living on in hope till lifes sweet breath is gone We lie here waiting for the

an un-named group The auction has sparked off a wave of angry protests by the town's traders who last Friday even ing met to consider the possible implications the auction will have on their own businesses Saturday's auction advertised by way of circular ironically stated that traders are welcome meeting also roundly condemn ed the decision of two Youghal companies to join forces this

P W D L Pts county who he said were with out equal in their dedication in bringing out the young athletes and this week's three was a sizeable volume of support among the traders on Friday might to place unofficial pickets on both Saturday's and the county as they had done ed against such a move opting instead to mount a campaign of protest and demonstration against all such auctions that will be strictly within the law. STATEMENT

In a statement issued follow ing the meeting the traders stressed that while they had no cursion later this year is But the auctions proposed for Salins A fund has been set up turday and this week could not which members can pay come into that category panies to involve themselves in this kind of thing the statement states 'Youghal is a town priding itself on having an active Traders Association but we wonder how the Association would react if the roles were reversed The statement is also highly critical of those in the town who make the facilities available for the holding of the These people are stabbing their fellow townsmen and women in the back,' the statement adds

"We simply cannot compete with this kind of competition which now poses a very serious threat to our businesses as well as to the jobs of close on 1000 employed within the business firms of the town" the statement concludes At present too the Dugarvan traders are waging a war of words against street traders who do business in the town on the monthly fair days Already they have gone by way of deputation to meetings of the Urban Council in an effort to thwart street trading and now the matter is to be raised in the Dail by TDs from the con-
