were well below their best all though good enough on the light to score a clear cut and decrive win in the end. Tramore fully merited this men's hopes of retaining the though they were far from impressive for long periods they did produce some passages of good football Some of these saw them bring the ball from defence to attack in fine sweeping movements which culiminated in finely kicked points and if the could main this form over an hour they could prove hard to beat. They were best served by Phil Flavin, John Flavin Milo Walsh Tony Partridge Tony Burns Billy Fleming, J Walsh J Purcell and R Prenderville Ardmore who will want to forget this defeat and get on with the joh of re-establishing with a throw of 39 27 metres, but in each of his putts in the U 3 shot he bettered the existing u-13 record His best effort a colossal heave of 13 65m not only shattered the existing record with a throw of 39 27 metres, but in each of his putts in the U 3 shot he bettered the existing u-13 record His best effort a colossal heave of 13 65m not only shattered the existing record with a throw of 39 27 metres, but in each of his putts in the U 3 shot he bettered the existing record with a throw of 13 65m not only shattered the existing record with a throw of 39 27 metres, but in each of his putts in the U 3 shot he bettered the existing u-13 record His best effort a colossal heave of 13 65m not only shattered the existing record with a colossal heave of 13 65m not only shattered the existing record with a colossal heave of 13 65m not only shattered the existing record with a colossal heave of 13 65m not only shattered the existing record with a colossal heave of 13 65m not only shattered the existing record with a colossal heave of 13 65m not only shattered the existing record with a colossal heave of 13 65m not only shattered the existing the product of the county of the colon on the colon on the colos on the colon on the c

Regning senior football champons for the scoring kept interest the first half but here of the soring kept interest alive at least to the three qual and on the following night tast and in a game barren of high class footballing skill, surrendered their title tamely, if unwillingly, when they went under to Tramore by 1-14 to 1-8 in a losers group clash. The look of dejection on the faces of the Ardmore players at the end of an uninspring hour told its own tale of woe. They were betten decisively by Stradbally in the first round proper, failed to take heed of the warning and even the prospect of losing the title in this vital losers group clash failed to lift the side from the medicerty into which it has sunk in recent times.

While not wanting to detract from the merits of Tramores win it will be admitted by most people in the small attendance that Ardmore were but a pale shadow of the side who won the title last year The bite has gone from the trigone and at times in last Saturday's clash they looked the fifteen strangers so often did their passes go astray.

Tramore too did not inspire confidence in their aballaty to take the coveted title where the might to score a clear cut and decisive win in the college and the confidence in their aballaty to take the coveted title where the might to score a clear cut and decisive win in the college and developed into the first half but the side were level as the lose of the wind behind them and using the proposition of the propositi
