Local Government (Water Pollution) Act, 1977
The above Act prohibits the discharge of trade effluent and certain sewerage effluents to waters except in accordance with a licence issued under the Act. The licencing system applies to discharges made to inland waters and to discharges from land based sources to tidal waters and the sea.

The 1st October, 1978 has been fixed as the date after which it will be an offence to make a licensable discharge to waters except in accordance with the provisions of the Act.
The licencing system will apply to existing discharges and unless application for licence is made before the 1st October 1978, persons making such discharges after this date will be in breach of the Act and will render themselves liable to prosecution.
Licence Application Forms and further details are available from the County Secretary, Waterford County Council Courthouse, Dungarvan

Gofer of the Fortnight which was keenly contested was won by T. McUchay with 118 pts, 2nd E. O'Connor 117 pts, 3rd J. Hogan 116 pts

Things have returned to normal this week and to day the Thursday group prize takes place and on Sunday the monthly medal will be played.

The Senior Cup team gave a good account of themselves in Tramore over the week-end as also did the County Clubs Cup team who were third in the final played in Ballygunner. These results were encouraging despite the lack of interest and apathy that is shown towards these competitions

Because of the busy schedule this year all the match play competitions, both single and doubles have fallen behind so any one involved please read the notice board

COMHALTAS NEWS

Preparations for the Silver Jubilee Social of the Dungarvan Branch are well advanced at the moment Dr Kevin McCann one time the popular M.O. in the Seskinane district and a founder member of the branch has written from Canada, where he has a large practice, to say that he is travelling home to the Old Land to be present at the function

The principal guest on the occasion will be Labhras O'Murchu, the National Director of the Comhaltas, and one of the kingspins of the movement. Labhras is popularly well respected and uncrowned. This may be gleaned from the fact that his arrest by the British authorities some short time ago (when on his way to an important Comhaltas function in that country), triggered off waves of protest from thousands of well-wishers at home and abroad

During the social a very interesting film made in connection with Fiea Ceoil na hEireann, which was held in the Old Borough in 1937 will be shown, and also some recordings of members (who have long since gone to their eternal reward) will be played to those present

ST. OLIVERS G.A.A. NOTES

Over the last two weeks things have been really going well. Our U14's won the Aglish Harvest Festival Tournament in hurling by hammering K.C.K. in the final. The result was a beautiful set of medals sponsored by J.A. Wood. But on last Friday night we really pulled out all the stops when we defeated the Ardmore U14 football in a thrilling final in the Clashmore Sports tournament. Here they received a beautiful cup and set of medals.

Both our Under 16's are still in the championship. On last Sunday we defeated K.C.K. in the second round of the hurling on the score 2-6 to 2-1

On to-night (Thursday) we play Eire Og in the 1st round of the football. In the U16's we must put in training if we hope to follow in the steps of our U14's

BRICKEYS END DUNGARVAN'S FOOTBALL HOPES

BRICKEY RANGERS 2-3, DUNGARVAN 1-4. Brickey Rangers ended Dungarvan's hopes of intermediate football honours at Fraher Field Dungarvan on Saturday night when they scored a merited two point win in a very disappointing game

The standard of football was way below par and in a game of contrasting halves a feature of the game was the number of good scoring chances wasted by both sides

Brickeys were the culprits in this respect in the first half when they held almost complete control. They squandered enough chances in this period to have the game virtually sewn up at half-time but they were happier in attack where only Jim McGrath showed any class and the measure of their effectiveness in this area can be gauged by the fact that their 2-3 total was scored by McGrath the three points from frees

Their second goal which came on the stroke of half-time from J. O'Connell came as the result of a terrible defensive blunder by the Dungarvan backs but it helped Brickeys to a 2-3 to 0-3 half-time lead

OUR MINOR HURLING SEMI-FINAL

Our minor hurlers play the Ballydur Shamrocks combination in the Western championship semi-final at Cappoquin on Saturday evening (7.30)

We have strung together a very youthful side this year - many of them are Under 16 - so it is quite an achievement to have reached the semi-final Ballydur will start firm favourites but our boys will not go down without a strong challenge

Players to convene at Youghal Road at 6.45

I.F. DEFEAT

Our intermediate football hopes were dashed for another year at Fraher Field last Saturday evening when we went under to old rivals Brickey Rangers in the divisional semi-final on a 2-1 to 1-5 scoreline

It was a game we could undoubtedly have won but in truth did not deserve to do so. Our first half display was particularly poor and although we held our rivals throughout the second half, we failed to translate monopoly possession into scores

Congratulations however to our sporting rival and all of us will be hoping they will now go on and annex the title. Good luck to them.

HOSPITALISED

Best wishes for a speedy recovery to club committee member and player Billy Kelly who is presently hospitalised in Waterford

On that note too we welcome home Paddy Barry after his period of hospitalisation and we are glad to see him looking so fit and trim

ST. LAURENCE'S YOUTH CLUB

Last Tuesday night saw our usual married & singles ladies soccer match which was won this year by the married ladies. The score was 3-2. It was like the world cup all over again.

The winning team was Mai Daly, Ann Power, Maura Boland, Theresa Power, Bridget Landers, P. Veale, M. McGovern.

The single team was Ann Drohan, Mary Norris, Breda Fraher, Cait Drohan, Ann Reedy, B. Morrissey, Christina Flynn, Ber Fraher

So we congratulate the winning team, we might have better luck next year

VISIT TO SACRED HEART YOUTH CLUB

On Sunday last we visited the Sacred Heart Club in Waterford where we had fun and games from 3 o'clock until 6 o'clock. Then we went for tea and returned later for a Disco. A most enjoyable time was had by all

SOCCER MATCH

On Friday night next we will be going to Dungarvan Club for a boys soccer match. There will also be a Disco after the game. Dungarvan The Crazy night arranged for that night 21st July has been postponed until further notice

CYCLING TREASURE HUNT

Will be held on Tuesday, 25th July so you better get out your bikes and off them up for this event. - P.R.O.

And that's the reason I'm with Allied Irish Banks too. Because they give me a complete range of banking facilities. Plus that extra something indispensable to a farmer - an understanding of my problems, and a willingness to help me solve them. So it isn't just the cheque book facilities, or the deposit account facilities, or the availability of seasonal and development loans that attract me to AIB. It's the genuinely helpful and friendly attitude I find there. It's something we can all use plenty of - and they've got plenty of it at my AIB Branch.' Colourful Programme For Deise Festival

The Deise Festival '78 begins at Bohadon Dungarvan on Sunday July 23rd with all the colour excitement and entertainment which one can associate with the festivals of the past. This festival now in the final stages of preparation is one with a difference in so far as this year's programme is bigger, better and stronger than ever before. Big names such as Dermot O'Brien Eamon and Murph from the Riordans, Johnnie McEvoy, The Mainliners, Larry Gogan, Brendan Shine, Billy Donegan, Jim Tobin and the Firehouse, Donal Ring, The Cotton Mill Boys, Mike Williams and Michael O'Duffy.

DUNGARVAN ROWING CLUB

METROPOLITAN REGATTA This regatta at Blessington is the show-piece of Irish rowing and all the top crews in Ireland meet on this magnificent multi-laned course. Dungarvan had three second places in four entries and can be justly proud of this in such good company. Most unlucky were the Senior C Four who started favourites having beaten everyone of the eight other crews entered. They were well, but were beaten by a half length by Commercial (Dublin) in the final. The Junior B Four came second to Clonmel in a five boat final. The veteran four also showed promise in coming second to Cork Boat Club in a five boat final. Our Schools crew of Tony Murphy, Declan Flynn, Tony Clarke, Eugene Young and Austin Wyley, cox, acquitted themselves very well in the Junior A Fours event which included Ireland's representatives at the World Schools Championships at Yugoslavia and also Brentwood College Canada, finalists at Henley Regatta. Dungarvan led the other four finalists at the 250m and 500m marks, were well in contention at the 1000m mark and were only 2 lengths adrift of Irish schoolboy champions Commercial who won in a blistering Regatta. Fiddown Regatta Three wins and a dead-heat decision for Dungarvan was the talking point at Fiddown last Sunday. Dungarvan won the Division of a tele-hone look at Lower Main Street and also agreed to investigate the feasibility of providing similar facilities in the larger housing estates in the urban area. A further motion proposed by Cllr Wade and seconded by Cllr D Goode calling for the provision of a post box at the Square was also passed.

More Telephone Facilities Called For

On the proposal of Cllr T Wade seconded by Cllr J Murphy, Dungarvan Urban Council at their monthly meeting unanimously recommended the provision of a tele-hone kiosk at Lower Main Street and also agreed to investigate the feasibility of providing similar facilities in the larger housing estates in the urban area. A further motion proposed by Cllr Wade and seconded by Cllr D Goode calling for the provision of a post box at the Square was also passed.

The old home is now quiet and
lonely,
The voice that once reigned there,
is still
May God in His mercy reward her,
She worked hard for us all with a will
In dreams we see her smiling face
And kiss her tender brow,
But in our aching hearts we know
We have no mother now

FOR SALE — First Anniversary —
In loving memory of my dear mother,
Margaret McCarthy, late of Parkdota, Tallow, who died on July 22nd, 1977
I had a wonderful mother
Her loss could never be told
The care and devotion she gave me,
More precious than silver or gold
You did so much for me, mam
Much more than I could say There's not a mother in all the world,
I could compare with you
You often said we'd miss you
Your words have sure come true,
I lost the best and only friend
mam,
The day that I lost you

The old home is now quiet and
lonely,
The voice that once reigned there,
is still
May God in His mercy reward her,
She worked hard for us all with
a will
In dreams we see her smiling face
And kiss her tender brow,
But in our aching hearts we know
We have no mother now

TALLOW AND ROUNDABOUT NOTES

Bride-View Utd Soccer Notes-
The registration forms have now reached us and manager Pat Noonan will be signing on his players for the coming season over the next fortnight. The club are delighted with the attendance at pre-season training and hope it will be kept up a few matches are to be arranged over the next couple of weeks to make sure everybody will be one hundred per cent fit for the start of the season on the third week in August.

Insurance of players is now very important and all players are asked to attend a meeting next Saturday night at 7.30 pm to discuss the subject.

NEWS FROM LISMORE AND DISTRICT

Won The Gold - Another six teen gold medals for the Lismore Community Games when in Dungarvan on Friday night the Lismore soccer team won their second successive county title by beating St Paul's Waterford, on penalties after extra time. This was the most exciting finals seen at this venue and the large crowd present really enjoyed this struggle.

Lismore opened the scoring well into the second half when Bridie Cashman scored from the spot after one of the St Paul's backs handled in the area and they held this lead until the closing minutes when the home side equalised again from the spot. After twenty minutes of extra time the score remained as it was and in the penalty taking session Lismore were victorious. Bridie Cashman, Gemma O'Brien and Jean Kennefick scored from the spot, while their opponents blazed the opening kick over the bar and real winners were saved brilliantly by Teresa O'Donnell.

On the night Lismore deserved their win as for most of the game they were on top and only a fortunate goal by O'Brien kepting by the visiting keeper plus some hard luck kept the score so low.

This team success once again goes in line with the successful panel of last season with just one or two additions, and when one considers that they had to field without captain Patricia Bolger and Patricia O'Grady, the remainder who raised their game when the chips were down and top marks to a fighting city side who never gave in.

Team and panel - Teresa O'Donnell, Jean Kennefick and Patricia Feeney. Bridie Cashman centre back who had a masterly game flanked by Bernice and Marion Coleman. Caroline Bolger, Gemma O'Brien, Margaret Kennefick, Bridie Kennefick and Karen Tinnelly, Mary McGrath, Karen Feeney, Jacinta Crowley, Patricia Bolger, Anne Sheehan, Mr John Fitzgerald Hon Sec Waterford Community Games and Mr J Mernagh Hon Treas presented the medals to the winners in a display of good sportsmanship to both sides on such a festive display.

Festival Time Draws Near - Festival time once again is just a few days away and relatives day August 4th to the following

NEWS FROM CAPPOQUIN

N.A.G.A. News - Club members were at Tallow sports on Sunday and again there was an impressive list of winners. Hilda Burke 3rd, Deirdra Burke 2nd, Nuala Barry 1st and Fiona Cunningham 3rd Donagh Cummins 3rd, Michael Cahill 3rd, Gerard O'Brien 3rd, Lily Hamngan 1st and 3rd, Phillip Bergin 2nd and 3rd, (twice), Martin Kett two 1st and two 2nd.

The next outings will be to Glanmire and Goatenbridge on Sunday next the 23rd. Even ages travel to Glanmire and odd ages to Goatenbridge. All members to meet in Mill Street at 1 p.m.

Fishing Competition - There was a good turnout for Sunday's competition and the following were the results - Visitors heaviest bag - 1 B Larkin, 2 S Cooke, 3 P Brader 4 R Williams. Club members heaviest bag - 1, Eileen Curley, 2, Deevy, Heaviest fish - 1, Conway Junior 1, S Wade 2, K. Walsh.

Junior Advances - Cappoquin won well in the end against Ballygunner on Sunday evening and the seven point margin was a fair reflection of their superiority. For spectators this was a game to forget and not rank as the poorest in the current championship. It was impossible to believe what hard work the winners made of what should have been a relatively easy task. Indeed, were it not for the superlative goalkeeping of Michael Phelan behind a non-existent defence the result might have gone the other way.

The final score was 1-10 Curran and Johnny Mason did their best work in the closing stages.

Pitch And Putt - Sunday's winner was James Morris with a joint second place filled by Pat Casey and Paddy Mason.

Patronage continues to increase and preparations for the Kerton Cup tournament are in train.

Cappoquin Macra News - The list of prize-winners at Ballysaggart Field Evening published last week should have read - 1st prize winners Margo Prendergast, Eamonn Lonergan, Finbar Power. 2nd prize-winners Angela O'Brien, Maureen Prendergast and Liam Neville.

At our last meeting three new members were welcomed, Angela O'Brien, Patricia O'Brien and John G Neville.

Our chairman congratulated members who passed examinations and took up posts recently. Congratulations too to John G Neville on winning a prize at Ballysaggart Field Evening.

Just a reminder of our own Field Evening today (Friday) when the very full programme should provide an enjoyable evening for everyone. The football match starts at 7.30 and to be followed by tug-o-war competitions and children's sports both commencing at 8.45. There will be races under 10, 12 and 14 for boys and girls.

There is an open stock-judging competition, general knowledge quiz, personality quiz pegs on line smash the ball putting and the weight of the ball. Dancing afterwards to Telstar in the Boathouse Ballroom. The venue is Tourin G.A.A. grounds and a good evening's entertainment is assured.

G.A.A. NOTES (By Commentator)

Dunhill Will Be Difficult To Beat

NEXT SUNDAY
By standards the programme for next Sunday, is by far the most attractive one that has been planned for a long time.

With one or possibly two exceptions all the games listed should be thrillers.

The meeting of Dunhill and Ballinacoury in round three of the senior football championship at Leamybreen on Sunday evening could be the football game of the season and I doubt if in the hurling championship, we will see a better game than the clash between neighbours, Tallow and Shamrocks at Cappoquin, on Sunday afternoon.

At a slightly lower level, but nonetheless equally important to the clubs and a huge following of supporters we will have the eagerly awaited meeting of Western champions Fourmilewater and Dungarvan in the intermediate hurling semi-final at Cappoquin on Sunday evening.

At the Fraher field on Sunday two junior games are listed for decision and while both are important to the clubs concerned they are completely overshadowed by the fixtures being played at the other venues. The Dungarvan games will be the junior hurling two, between Westown and Bruckees and Ballinacoury v Clashmore.

DUNHILL V BALLINACOURY
Ballinacoury played great football when beating the champions in the semi-final of the senior league and in this have shown very impressive form. In recent weeks they beat Abbeyside having drawn with Dunhill. As well as the Ballymac Jags, several other very good class hurling tournaments and have fared very well. It is also worthy of comment that in their own hurling tournament they defeated Dungarvan so all in all it looks like being Fourmilewater again here in the role of underdogs. Dungarvan may play better hurling this time and the champions, who I understand will have to field without Jim Ryan who is away at the same venue last year, are in the same stage of the championship.

Ballinacoury have yet to win a championship game at Leamybreen and Dunhill have never lost a match at Kirossary's venue. This of course might be just a coincidence, but it is the kind of thing that could affect a team who can not yet enjoy the kind of confidence with which Dunhill can play.

Football people who saw them plying their last game are still asking how good were Ballinacoury or how poor were Stradbally. After next Sunday's match supporters will decide for themselves and rate Ballinacoury as a really good side or just a match at their busy against Stradbally was only a flash-in-the-pan.

I believe that Ballinacoury's fortunes on Sunday will depend entirely on their mental approach to the game. If they go out believing that Dunhill are unbeatable, because of the venue or for any other reason, then they will lose. On the other hand if they tie down to playing the kind of attacking football that overpowered Stradbally some weeks ago then they must be given a good chance of beating Dunhill.

Dunhill, who are due to play Portlaoine in senior hurling on the following Sunday say that they are more interested in the big old game and are gearing themselves for football at the expense of hurling. Last year, Dunhill fancied their chances of recapturing the title but were ousted on the way by Stradbally in the semi-final at Leamybreen. Following this game the team were severely criticised for their mental display in a game that followers say they could have won. Determined that no such criticism will be voiced on this occasion, the team are more committed and can be expected to play better.

Led by Tom Moore, Tom Casey, Rob Power, Willie Moore, John Maher and company they will be a very difficult side to beat but it is certain that the John Dwyer, Matty Harahan, John Moloney, Michael Flynn, Joe Power, Pat Enright, Jim Kieley, Nucky Cahill etc., etc. reproduce the form they showed against Stradbally, they could bring off yet another shock.

TALLOW V SHAMROCKS
As I have already written this could be the game of the championship if one is to be guided by the results of past meetings between the clubs in the would be a difficult task to choose between them. Billy Sheehan told me during the week that in the last eight meetings between the clubs in the adult hurling championships the winning margin was never more than a goal on any occasion. I know that the game will be well previewed in the notes from the clubs so I will leave this one to them. Personally I have a sneaking suspicion that Tallow will win by a small margin.

DUNGARVAN V FOURMILEWATER
These sides met in the Western Intermediate hurling final at Dungarvan Fourmilewater ran out easy and deserved winners in a game that never lived up to the expectations of the crowd that turned up expecting to see a thriller. This was a game in which Dungarvan played well below the form they showed against Stradbally. Ballymac Jags in the earlier rounds. It was only in the closing stages, when all seemed lost that the Blues came into the game and played the kind of hurling that they had played in the earlier rounds.

In the meantime Fourmilewater having lost the county final to Clones, were promoted to the next division of the senior league and in this have shown very impressive form. In recent weeks they beat Abbeyside having drawn with Dunhill. As well as the Ballymac Jags, several other very good class hurling tournaments and have fared very well. It is also worthy of comment that in their own hurling tournament they defeated Dungarvan so all in all it looks like being Fourmilewater again here in the role of underdogs.
