BALLINAMEELA G.A.A. NOTES

Our junior hurlers made their ship when going under narrowly to Clashmore at Dungarvan on Sunday last the final score being 3 6 to 2-6 Entering the game as outsiders we produced some good hurling and made the opposition fight all the way. There could in fact have been a different result on the scoreboard. ent result on the scoreboard only for some poor shooting by our forwards and also occasional lapses by our backs.

Scorers — P O'Keeffe 1-4, E Walsh 1-0 T O'Brien and M Culloo 0-1 each Meanwhile it is back to train ing an football and a rather busy period hes ahead with matches in Ardmore Modelago and Boha-don tournaments, leading us up to our championship clash with Lismore on August 13th.

CLANCY—Second Anniversary _

COLEMAN-Tenth Anniversary-on July 25, 1968, late of 14 Park's Road Lismore RIP

We do not need a special day to bring you to our mand, A day without a thought of you would be very hard to find lf memories bring us closer We are never far apart,

God has you in His keeping

Like the one we had in you

I lost a father with a heart

He shared my troubles

If I follow his footsteps

He never deserved what he (Always remembered by your lov-ing daughter Norah, sch-in-law Jim

Don't Let Your Electric Fence Become A Source

If, by accident, an electric power line comes in contact with an electric fence, the whole fence can become live at a very high voltage This can cause serious or even fatal injury to people and livestock A few common sense precautions can minimise > Never attach an electric fence cable to an ESB pole It must have its own supports Don't run an electric fence parallel and very close to a power line. If your electric fence must run parallel with the power line set it off at least 6 metres (20 ft) to one side of the line If the electric fence must cross the route of a powerline, ngit, on its own supports, so it crossesthe line at right angles, 1 2 metres (3 6 feet) out from

They lost to Clashmore in the going to the losers group final first round when the Wanners against a moderate Rathgor-mack team in the next round at share of hard luck this year

Aragan with Liam Power are not the side that showed such promise jast season and suffered a first round defeat by Ballinameela about six weeks ago So this could be a very open game Expectations are that for making them Araglin will still prove them selves to be a shade better and such warm favourites Of course they must realise that if they lose here that the door will be shut behind them BRICKEYS v BALLINACOURTY vate them into playing the kind tainment at the Fraher field on of football that won them the to-night (Friday) The Brickeys title a couple of years ago

the reason

They are very fit and are noted tryers all the way They have many times adopted a wearing down process and I have seen them pip quite a few of their more highly-rated opponents in the closing stages of the game would not for one minute rule them out of this one and as I said in the beginning, I football and players like Tom Crotty, Paddy Joe, Willie and Jım Ryan, Tyler Walsh Mick Connolly, the Moores John Morgan, Michael Ryan etc did not have to wait until now to prove themselves on the football field Yes this is no open-and-shut-game It cannot be very comforting to their mentors erther that a few of their players are on duty m under 21 football against Balnacourty to to-night (Friday) Old Parish's display against VIIlersbown great, but I understand that they were not prepared so well for that match Now they have trained seriously and did well Ardmore tournament they should even with their mjury problems measure up to what will be required here

Melleray just scrope through Ballynaggart in the first round and unless they are much bet ter than they were in that game cannot see them coming through here RING V ST MARY'S

This is listed as the feature came of the afternoon at the Fraher field and despite Ring's poor record as a hurling force the game will be better and closer than many 1mag much closer than many mas me The club has a number of very promising hurlers who were seen to good effect in their two successful outings in the first rounds They may not be good enough to beat St Marys now but such will not be the case for long if the build up of inte est in hurling continues in

I saw St Mary's play Glen Rovers at Cappoquin some weeks ago, and I cannot say that they were impressive So far they have far ed to show the kind of form that made them favourites for the championship last year Still they should beat Ring

SENIOR DRAWS Following a meeting of the County Fuxtures Committee at last, the following fixtures were announced

Senior Football Semil-final -Dungarvan, Affane v Nire at Dungarvan on 29th July, Clash-more v firossanty at Dungarabove versus losers group winners, Nire or Affiane play Tramore in the final of the losers
