ISSUE The decision of the Auditor to surcharge members of the County Waterford Commit-County tee of Agraculture in respect of the £144 paid out as expenses for a deputation which prevelled to Dublin to discuss hshery problems with the then Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister was referred to again at the monthly meeting of the Committee in Dungarvan last Monday

At a previous meeting it was agreed that the Minister be asked to waive the Auditor's decision but a letter from the Department read at last Monunder the Department of Agriculture and therefore he had no that as far as he was concerned he would pay no surcharge and the Department could take them to Limerick if they liked but this would cost them a lot more than the measiy £144 involved in the issue

Mr J Fahey, TD said that as requested he had discussed kerel for their own table, these of the Youghal branch at 70, back to port

The newly appointed Manager the matter with the Minister and of the Youghal branch at 70, back to port

The newly appointed Manager the matter with the Minister and it was pointed out that Agricul-North Main Street is Maurice ture and Fisheries were two Minister's hands were tied He pointed out that the exercise showed that expenses could not know that there was an auditor

Mr Pat Crotty-I for one will not hand back this money The harvest is over new and they can do what they like Mr J Quirke-I have no intention of giving it back either Mr P Kenneally said that the best thing for the Committee to do was just to sit tight and do nothing and wait to see what the Department would do Finally it was agreed that the Chairman Mr K O'Rvan should explain that the deputation had gone bona fide to Dublin and had been received and that as cerned the expenses involved

Increase In County Agricultural Advisory Staff

At the monthly meeting of the County Waterford Commit-tee of Agriculture in Dungarvan last Monday the C.A.O Mr G Frost informed the members that in accordance with a request from the Committee the local Appointments Commissioners had appointed David A. White Main Street, Ballinamore Co Leitrim a native of Cork, to the position of permanent instructor in Agriculture

Stating that the Committee were receiving excellent co-operation and had a very happy relationship with Waterford Co-op Society in the matter of the Advisory Service Mr Frost said that following an informal meeting last week had agreed to pay half the cost of appointing two further advisors and half cost of an additional clerical officer

Mr Frost said that this would bring the number of agriculadvisors in the county from 9 to 12 and all would operate under the Committee
