Fire Safety Precautions At Dungarvan Town

Mr T Wade raised the matter of nre safety precaution measures at Dungarvan Town Hall especially in regard to the numbers permitted to attend functions there at the monthly meet ing of the Urban Council las Monday night he said that people crowded in there for oingo sessions and he was not at ad happy about the position if a fire did break out on such occasions He felt that there should be more control over the numbers allowed Mr J A Murphy said that under the Court rules in granting the licence for the hall the maximum number mentioned Mr Wade-You could double that and more where the bingo s concerned Mr B White, Town Clerk, old the meeting that the Town Engineer was at present preparing a seating plan for the hall which would have to be adhered to in all future lettings

Three Councillors For Munich Conference Dungarvan Housing

Arising from an invitation from the Council of Europe to Waterford County Council to send three delegates to the delegates to these conferences It was agreed to forward the tenders to the Consultants for the scheme for report and rehe thought that the EEC should foot the bill for the expenses involved and that the ratepayers of the county should not be asked to finance the cost of sending tourists to places like Mun-On the proposal of Cilr Wade ich He did not think it was an essential service of the Coun to do this and said that the better purposes Mr C Curran, Chairman stating that the expenses in these cases were pretty high agreed with Mr Kyne and said that the matter was one that could be discussed at next meeting if motion on it was put down This was agreed

Chr T Kyme again drew attention to the very had turn at Nugent's Corner at Skeha the skeha that the three transfer of the control of the central balcony of the control of the control balcony of the control o crine, Abbeyside and said that the throng underwent a mark-there had almost been a smash ed change when he announced case also

Clar T Wade described as the eyesores the old derelict buildings at the former level crossing at Strandside South and Sarsfield Street, Abbeyside and sand that it was time that CIE bashop of Cracow in Poland Cardinal Workship to cress them did something to crase them They were a danger to children who played around in them and

Mr C A O Connor, Co Manager said that the delay in handing this property over to the Co Council was due to the fact that certain people along the old railway line were claiming rights from CIE and the Council were not going to get in-volved until this was cleared up Deputy A Deasy said that irrespective of this he thought the Co Council should move in and demolish these bundings which were rat infested It was agreed to contact both the Co Council and C.I.E about the matter

CREDITABLE PERFORMANCE BY WATERFORD

CLARE 3-6, WATERFORD 1-6

Waterford made their return to Division 1A of the National Huring League at Tulia last Sunday and despite being beaten by the League champions. Care gave a creditable enough encounter

The game, played in excellent conditions was watched by a large attendance and what it acked in skills it made up for with the whole hearted endeavour of both teams

Care although they deserved their victory were by no means fattering and had Waterford any penetration in attack then the winners might have pand the penalty for their loss of form

Waterford had the breeze in the first half and were two points up after five manutes. They he d the upper hand in this half but met stubborn resistance from the Care half back line which proved Clare's cost effective line over the hour Courled to this Waterford's lack of penetration up front made scores hard to come by and although the visitors led by 03 to 0-1 after ten minutes. Clare struck back with their first goal, when Brendan Gillingan Sh to to the net

Waterford added three further points but Clare finished the half strongly adding a goal and 2 points in the last five minutes to load 9. Clare looked to be well on the way to victory when playing with the aid of the breeze in the second half but Waterford refused to give up and offered strong resistance

Clare had stretched their lead to 6 points (2-6 to 0-6) by the end of the third quarter but Waterford hit back with a Pat Daly goal

Despite strong pressure after this the Clare defence held
