O MAHONY — Birthday Memories of my dear brother, John O Mahony late of Keating Street, Dungarvan and Bury Lancs whose birthday is cauches in the upper part and beaches in the upper part and beaches in the upper part and searches in the part of the par Beautiful memories woven in gold, of one whose worth can never be well covered with bulrushes etc Extensive mud flats and sand bars form the floor to the estuary which is covered at high the principal waders present Large flocks of Lapwings fly in from adjoining farm lands over the Northern part of the estuary and settle on the rushy beaches during the high tides. Herons visit the estuary at 'ow trees on a nearby farm Cormorants fly in from the open sea regularly A colony of Swans was nesting in marsh lands up to recently They have abandoned this ground at least for the time being This I think might be due to the smoke from the smouldering fires on a nearby Council dump when the wind is unfavourable A large flock of Shelduck visited the estuary when in flood last summer The foregoing O'MAHONY — Loving Birthday last summer The foregoing Memories on October 23 of John list is not exhaustive. There O Mahony late of Keating Street are the occasional Turnstone Radishank, Ringed Plover and of course the Guls — Great Black Backed Lesser Herring and Blackhead as well as Hooded and Carrion Crows Oyster Catchers are dotted all over the estuary They number at least 1000 Godwits show in groups of 40 to 60 birds from the mouth of the estuary to half way or so upstream They number some 600 Curlews are solitary here I see the odd birds but I hear their cal's at night Lapwings-be-BUTLER — The husband sons cause of the large size flock aughters, brother grandchildren and their erratic sont of flight -are ampossible to count with

> There are many juveniles of NOTE—The above is a copy of a memo recently sent to the Irish Wild Bird Conservancy The IWC has entered an objection with the Minister to the reclamation of the estuary

G.A.A. NOTES

By Commentator | TALLOW AND ROUNDABOUT NOTES

WATERFORD MUST BEAT WEXFORD!

The Western junior hurhng final between Ardmore and St played at Dungarvan, has been refixed for November 5th in order that John Dauton and Declan Fitzpatrick will be available to the county selectors for the J National League game against Wexford on Sunday This means that there will be no championship game in the West next Sun-

defence and this will bring John Dalton in instead of Pat Mc-Grath Dalton and Murray may switch places There might be a switch in the full-line too involving Nicky Cas hin and Joe Murphy Decian Fitzpatrick may be introduced in an attempt to strengthen the attack

Because of the League situation, it is imperative that we win this game. In fact if we fail here it could eventually mean demotion again as we are facing Kilkenny, Galway Limerick and Offacy in the next rounds and if we fail to Wex-ford it is not likely that we will beat any of the others This game is timed for 3 p.m.

FOOTBALL

This is the refixture of the abortive match where the Clon-mel referee did not turn up at Dungarvan three months ago We beat them in a challenge on that day but the serious League competition is a different matter altogether. We have no fears of being demoted from this section of the League and winning of section honcurs is the main target This is pos-sible and if we beat Wicklow we have a good chance of dohave a copy immediately after it was announced. It shows only one change in personnel from last Sunday Robin Ahearne taking over at fullback instead of Pat O'Meara who moves to midfield to replace John Hennessey who is placed at right-corner forward. placed at right-corner forward were greeted by huge bondires Sean Power and Jim McGrath and hundreds of banner waving change places on the left side and enthusiastic supporters of the attack

WATERFORD MUST BEAT WEXFORD!

The Western junior hurling T Hunt final between Ardmore and St D O Murchu, R Ahearne, S Mary's, which was due to be Flavin played at Dungarvan, has been tenxed for November 5th in order that John Dallton and Dec-McGrath ian Futzpatrick will be available to the county selectors for the National League game against Wextord on Sunday This means ship game in the West next Sunday and supporters will be free to travel to Waish Park where a double-header in the National League is scheduled Waterford play Wexford in hurling and Wicklow in football and both games are of vital

The hurlers will have to field without Pat McGrath, who was sent off in a benefit game at Walsh Park last Sunday and this certainly spells trouble for the selectors who were considering moving the Mount Sion man to attack in an attempt to improve our scoring power The retention of J Murray, Dunhill and the return of John lease of McGrath but this can-

that there will be no champion-importance if the county is to selected at the time of writing so we do not know the mind of the selectors However it is unlikely that not more than one change will be made in defence and this will bring John Dalton in instead of Pat Mc-Grath Dalton and Murray may switch places There might be a switch in the fullline too involving Nicky Cas hin and Joe Murphy Decian Fitzpatrick may be introduced in an attempt to strengthen

Because of the League situation it is imperative that we win this game In fact if we fail here it could eventually mean demotion again as we are facing Kilkenny Galway Limerick and Offaly in the next

This is the refixture of the abortive match where the Clon-mei referee did not turn up at Dungarvan three months ago We beat them in a challenge on that day but the serious League competition is a different matter altogether. We have no fears of being demoted from this section of the League and to admit that Cappoquin were the main target. This is possible and if we beat Wicklow we have a good chance of do-ing this We must play Wicklow again in Aughrim in a couple of weeks time in round reasonably confident that we will win here In fact Joe is confident that if the present wonderful response to training is waintained we could win our Division

The team was announced Monday and the county PRO has been good enough to let us has been good enough to let us perienced so much interest in have a copy immediately after a county junior final and this have a copy immediately after it was announced. It shows only one change in personnel from last Sunday Robin Ahearne taking over at full back inistead of Pat O'Meara who moves to midfield to replace John Hennessey who is placed at might corner forward. placed at right-corner forward were greeted by huge bonfires Sean Power and Jim McGrath and hundreds of banner waving change places on the left side and enthusiastic supporters
