Mrs. Mary Cahill The passing of this great addy to her eternal reward is an occasion of deep sadness for her family and the great number of triends which she made during a very active christian life-time She died at St Patrick's Hos pital Wedlington Rd. Cork on fuesday, 28th November after rather lengthy illness. She was relict of the late George Cahili Clonmel, was a native of Cashel and resided at West Gate Cionmei, most of her life where her family was reared. She was a very frequent visitor to her daughters home Mrs Cena Walsh at Landsend, Abbeyside. As well as being a loving mother and grandmether she was noted for her religious and charmable disposition _ a lovely lady in every way. We extend our deepest sym pathy to her daughter son, brother grandchildren, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, sisters-in-law The funeral from St Pairicks Hosp tal to Abbeyside Church took place on Tuesday 28th November at 500 p.m coffin was received and blessed by Very Rev M. Farrell, P.P. assisted by Rev N O Mahoney

CC Requiem Mass then fol-lowed Requiem Mass was concele brated on Wednesday morning by Very Rev M Farrell PP, and Rev D J Ryan, CC Cas her at 1000 am and the interment took place afterwards in St Laurence's Cemetery, Bachn-road. A Mass for the repose of her soul will be celebrated at St Mary's Clonmel on Saturday 9th December at 730 pm

MELLERAY NOTES

On Sunday week last our first team lost to New Ross in a friendly The rugby played did not reach any great standard and this was partly due to the Wet miserable conditions Our forwards gave a very good display, playing as a unit, but our backs failed to impress Dungarvan played well in the opening half Sadiy the appeite for the game was not apparent in the second half Neither side looked like scoring from play and we lost by two penalties to one penalty Best for Dungarvan were the front row of D Dower P Mor-

russey and B Browne also T Clarke and M Hammahan

On Sunday next we are away to Cashel in the second round of the Garryowen Cup while our second string play Midleton in a friendly in Midleton
