AN BANNA CEOIL

Pipe Band have attended the finals each year since 1976 for 3rd/4th CLASS FINAL and their presence is greatly ap preciated by the organisers players and spectators

The pre-match parade comes ings of each boy marching be-hind the band

When all the players are in position for the game the National Anthem is played — an important event on Street Final night which brings to mind our nationality and our love for our national games Thus the scene is set for hopefully what will be an exciting and enter-taining game of hurling

And so we come to this year s finals The leagues have been However next Tuesday even- in progress since Easter and and the streets and areas now taking part gives us an idea of changing times in Dungarvan and its environs geographical wise

Tis gesture is much appre-ciated by the organisers and by all associated with the Street Leagues

MEET THE TEAMS

The scene it is set
The date is the twelfth
Six teams in action They are surely well met

The cups they are polished The prizes are new Each young lad is hoping
His wish will come true The games they will enjoy The crowd and the day

The Pipe Band will be there To set them on their way The Villas the three games

Yes they will paly The others shout 'Remember And what happened that day

The Mitchels once and the Youghal Road Twice over The Villa meet All bent on stopping this re markable feat But whatever the result When the whistle is sounded Here's hoping enjoyment

Will have been founded

This league has proved to be very interesting as it has involved a neck and neck struggle between three teams—The Mitchels The Villas and Childers Estate—from the very outset All three teams finished their league programme on 11 points and in the play of stage that followed The Villas qualified to meet The Mitchels in the final This should be an entertaining game as these young lads are game as these young lads are really enjoying their first taste of hurling

Don't let your E.S.B. bills mount up

When the present postal difficulties are over, you could face bills for nearly six months electricity-six months of a very severe Winter when all fuel bills were high For your own sake, act now, so you aren't faced with an unmanageable bill

If you haven't paid anything...

since the beginning of the dispute, the first thing to do is to find out how much you owe now Your local ESB Service Centre (address on your bill) can tell you how much this is. Try to clear this now, or at least make a payment on account Bring an old bill with you-it'll speed things up.

If you've made a payment...

thank you very much To keep up-to-date, you should make a payment every 2 months So if the date on your last ESB receipt is more than 2 months ago, you're due to pay again now

Remember, you can pay the ESB by Bank Giro at any bank Please quote your ESB account number (on your last bill) and "ESB Account, AlB Dame Street, Dublin

PLEASE KEEP YOUR ESB PAYMENTS UP TO DATE
