

NOTES

...are a much improved team this year and have been turning in good performances in championship and league fixtures. However, exams and injuries seem likely to rob us of some of our best players for Sunday. We wish them the best of luck on Sunday.

Community Games—On Sunday last the local qualifying rounds for the Community Games Finals were held in glorious sunshine at Sean Griffin's field. There were some excellent competitions and exciting finishes before our representatives were finally chosen. Full details next week.

THE COUNTY COUNCIL CHAIR

The newly elected County Council takes place to-day (Thursday) in Dungarvan and the prime item on the agenda will be the election of a Chairman.

Since the results of the recent local elections left the party strengths on the 23 seat Council at 11 Fine Gael 11 Fianna Fail and 1 Labour there has been speculation as to what would happen when the Council came together for their first meeting to elect a Chairman and Vice Chairman for the coming year.

The sole Labour member on the Council, Mr. Tom Kyne found himself as the man in the middle with the balance of power and since the elections there have been active political behind-the-scenes activities concerning the Chair. As a result Cllr Kyne found himself in an unenviable position as he had approaches made to him by both Fianna Fail and Fine Gael offering him their support for the position should he choose to accept it. The moves climaxed last week end when the newly elected Fine Gael Councillors and party executives met in Dungarvan and at the meeting it was announced that Cllr Kyne had accepted their offer of support for the Chair.

By the agreement reached, Cllr Kyne will be nominated for the Chair and will be elected while Cllr Michael Harz (Fine Gael) will be similarly elected as Vice-Chairman. This will mean that the two oldest and longest serving members of the Council will be the Council's No 1 and No 2 for the coming year.

It is understood that Cllr Kyne in accepting Fine Gael's support made it clear that he would continue to be his own man and would exercise his right as he saw fit to ensure a fair balance of representation on the Council's sub-committees. He also made it clear that in the event of a motion any time during his term of office he would use his vote to ensure that the seat concerned remained with the party to which it belonged.

Personally I am glad that Cllr Kyne is to have a term of office as Chairman of the premier public body in the County. I advocated this here last week before any agreements surfaced because apart from a political point of view, it is an important role of the office. Cllr Kyne will be a most important role of the office. Cllr Kyne will be a most important role of the office. Cllr Kyne will be a most important role of the office.

Should anyone be able to help they might contact us here at the "Leader" Office.

people of the county, the honour of being elected Vice-Chairman of the Council is also richly deserved.

WOMEN IN PUBLIC LIFE Women have been making their presence felt more and more in public life and this is only as it should be seeing that the female sex represents something around 52 per cent of the electorate of the county.

In the June 7 elections at local and European levels several women successfully offered themselves for election. Mrs Eileen Desmond won a European seat for Labour in Munster and the pattern was followed here in Waterford where as a result we have the first-ever lady member on the County Council. Fine Gael's Katherine Bulbulia and another lady member on the Dungarvan Urban, Fianna Fail's Angela Creedon.

However the most outstanding result in favour of the ladies must be that which came from Lismore Town Commissioners where 4 of the 9 member Council elected were women. It must be unique even in these liberated times, for women to win almost 50 per cent of the seats in an election of this kind and in a field that was almost totally male dominated not so many years ago.

THE "THING" IS BACK Summer has come and the "thing" is back in the middle of Dungarvan Square. I refer, of course, to the temporary office of the Tourist Board which was dumped on to the Square recently like a bulk container which it so closely resembles.

Why can't the Tourism Organisation manage to secure proper accommodation for an office in the town instead of dumping eyesores on the Square like this summer after summer. It beats me!

SEeks RELATIVES We have been asked by an Agency in Dublin to assist in the possible tracing of relatives of a US citizen who will be visiting this country next month and who is anxious to meet up with any cousins he may have.

All we have been told is that the man's grandfather, Michael Drohan was born in Dungarvan in 1882 and emigrated to America with his wife Johanna probably in the early 1900's.

It is just possible that some of the Drohan families or their relatives in Dungarvan or the districts surrounding may be able to help.

Michael Drohan's grandson, Tom is the man who is seeking the information and he will be in Ireland in July and will visit Dungarvan during that time.

and we will pass along the information when the visitor arrives.

KERRYMEN'S CURRACH TRIP

In 1975 two West Kerry-men rowed around the coast of Ireland in a currach. One of the oarsmen Ger O Ciobhain a farmer and fisherman from Gorta Dubha ju Corca Dhubhne has written an account of the journey in Irish in a beautifully illustrated book called 'Cogarnach Ar gCosta' which was reviewed last week in the "Leader".

One of the ports of call for the two was at Helvick and in the book Ger recalls memories of young days which he spent in the Old Parish area as an apprentice farmer. Mar seo a scriobhann se "Chonaiceamar an tigh solais ag ceann Chuan Dhun Garbhan agus bhí a fhios againn narbh fhada uainn Ceann Heilbhic Ghluais bad lasmugh dinn agus i ag dul ag tarraingt lionta bradan Bheannaodair duinn agus sturaidoir sinn i dtreo Heilbhic. Bhí an caladh le feiscint uainn isteach againn agus na baid ag tarraingt isteach an t-ath agus an la a bheith tugtha amuis an Cuiread na milte failte romhainn Ba e sin an slua ba mho a chonaiceamar go dtí sin. Ni fhaca a bhformhór aon naomhog riann agus bhí a suile ar leathadh acu ag feachtaint uirthé agus iad a scrudh.

"Bhuaileas le mo shean charde go leir, cuid acu na faca leis na blianta. Bhí ar ndúine fein aon romhainn Múiris Bulaer an bhFearann. Is iontach an cróstaí e Múiris. Ni raibh aon rud uainn na go raibh se le fail agus iad duinn. Casadh Seamus Mac Craith orm agus mo sheanchara Donal O Ciannfhaola. Dheineas drama i bhfochair. Dhonaíl nuair a bhios sa Seanphobal. Is iontach go deo na Gaelgeoirí an bheirt úd. Chuireas aithne ar Ghaeilgeoirí caillua na linne sin. Chuireas aithne ar bhFear Mor Tomas de Bhal ar Labhras O Cadhla, Nioclás Mac Craith, Pilib O Foghlu, Micheal O Ciannfhaola agus ar an seanchaí cailluid úd Maidic Dhait O Turraoin on Seanphobal. Ba iontach go leir an dream iad. Taid go leir inniu ach Nioclás Mac Craith amháin agus port na beathia sioraí bainte amach acu. Is boichte an Rinn ina ndiaidh.

"Thainig bean cughainn agus a fear ceile in einaeach le agus dúirt si linn gur breia le sinn a fhanacht aici fein, fad is a bheims timpeall Dorin Bean Mhic Mhurchu a hainm siud, agus ca mb'headh an Rinn gan?"

"Tar eis duinn beile breia aithe acu siud, thugamar go leir faoi Tigh an Cheoil. Tigh taohairne is ea e sin suite go cluthar i mBaile na nGall. Ba le Tomas O Ceilleachair e tamall ach bhí se díolta faoin trath sin aige le fear darbh ainm O Murchu. Bhí Tomas fein ar saoire i gCeann Tra agus níor bhuaileamar leis in aon chor. Mar sin fein, cuir eadh na milte failte romhainn i dTigh An Cheoil agus níorbh shagó go dtí e."

Ger O Ciobhain whose companion on the trip was Donal Mac Síthigh a young teacher, goes on to his account to give details of the two days which they spent in Helvick, Ring and Old Parish on the occasion and it all makes a well told interesting story.

THE SAILOR BOY

Our choice for the ballad corner this week is the traditional old song 'The Sailor Boy' which dates from the 19th century and which may be sung to the air of the original version of 'The Croppy Boy'.

'Twas early early all in the Spring When my love Willie went to serve the King The rain was falling the wind blew high And parted me from my Sailor boy

Father father, come build me a boat 'Tis on the ocean I mean to float To watch French vessels as they pass by And to enquire for my sailor boy

She was not long sailing over the deep When a man-o-warsman she changed to meet Saying Captain Captain come tell me true Is my love Willie on board with you

'Indeed fair lady, as is not here That he is drowned to say I fear 'Twas on Green Island as we passed by We lost five more and your Sailor boy'

She swung her hands and she tore her hair Just like a lady in deep despair She dashed the small boat against the rocks Saying How can I live and my Willie lost

She wrote a letter she wrote a song And in the letter she wrote a song At every line she shed a tear And every word she cried 'Willie dear'

Father father come dig me a grave And at my head a tombstone lay And in the centre a turtle dove To let the world know I died of love

Mr Denis Spillane—the local community were thrown into deep shock at the tragic death of Mr Denis Spillane Killawarilla Conna on Saturday evening last in a tractor accident at his residence.

The interment took place on Monday afternoon to St. Michael's Cemetery attended by the largest and most representative cortege ever seen in Ballyduff. To his loving wife Margaret (nee Ahern, Shean Ballyduff) son daughter brothers sisters relatives and friends sincere and deep sympathy is extended.

Community Games—The local Community Games Committee wish to thank its sponsors for the recent athletic finals also all who helped in any way. The U/14 hurling team were defeated by Cappoquin at the latter's venue on Tuesday night. We wish the best of luck to the camogie team in Saturday night's Co final.

The athletic finals will be held at Lismore on Sunday week July 1st. The first and second in each event qualified for the County final at Lismore on Sunday July 1st, as follows:

Tidy Towns—The structure of this year's competition must be in some doubt this year due to the postal difficulties. Locally the situation is of any thing worse and no definite progress will be possible while this problem exists. Full marks to the hard workers responsible for the gardens at Shanbally Castle Street, Ballinacorney and Square. These are well up to the high standard of former years.

NEWS FROM CAPPOQUIN AND DISTRICT

Eucharistic Procession—The annual Eucharistic Procession was held on Thursday following the evening Mass. The procession was over the usual route from St. Mary's Church through Main Street, Allen Street, Shanbally to the terrace at the Convent of Mercy where Benediction was given.

The Blessed Sacrament was borne by Very Rev J Canon Power P.P. assisted by Rev K Mulcahy C.C. Scouts of the local troop formed a Guard of Honour.

Numbers taking part were smaller than usual and it is sad but true to say that the occasion is now far from the impressive demonstration of faith and reverence of some years ago. General preparation and decoration of streets is almost entirely lacking with some exceptions and the dignity due to such an occasion has been entirely lost.

Apostolic Society Display—The Cappoquin Apostolic Society will hold their annual display of work in aid of the Missions in Our Lady's Hall on Sunday at 3 p.m. Visiting Missionaries will attend. All are welcome. GAA—Tourism's senior hurling venture came to an end at the Sportsfield on Sunday when they were no match for Mt. Sion in a loser's group game. The validity of the decision to go senior will be argued for some time in hurling circles but no doubt the club committee will have felt it was the correct one.

Cub Week-end—Na Daise region cub week-end will be held from Friday evening until Sunday evening at the Scout Centre in Mt. Mellera. The lengthy two day programme of training and sporting competition given on the programme which has reached us shows that the many troops participating will have quite a strenuous week-end.

F.G. Chairman And Lab. Vice-Chairman For U.C.

Although the 9 members of the newly-elected Urban Council in Dungarvan went through the normal voting practices at their first annual meeting held last Monday night for the election of Chairman Vice-Chairman and nominees to other bodies it was obvious that it had all been pre-arranged and that as expected there was a Fine Gael-Labour alignment to out vote Fianna Fail for all positions. At the outset Mr B J McNally Deputy Co Manager occupied the chair and accepted nominations for the position. Deputy A Deasy (FG) proposed that Cllr R A Walsh (FG) be elected Chairman. Pointing out that he had been a member of the Council for almost 30 years Deputy Deasy said it would only be a fitting reward for the outstanding service Cllr Walsh had given to the people of the town over that long period to now elect him Chairman. Cllr J Byrne (Lab) seconded the proposal. Cllr W Cotter (FF) proposed and Cllr A Creedon (FF) seconded a proposal that Cllr D Goode (FF) be elected chairman. When a vote was taken Cllr Walsh was declared elected by 6 votes. Cllrs A Deasy R Walsh M Walsh (FG) Kyne Byrne, Wade (Lab) to 3 (Cllr Goode Creedon and Cotter) for Cllr Goode. Cllr R Walsh then took the Chair and was invested with the chain of Office. A similar procedure followed for the election of Vice Chairman with Cllr T Wade (Lab) being proposed by Cllr J Byrne (Lab) and seconded by Deputy A Deasy (FG). Cllr Goode was proposed by his colleagues Cllrs Cotter and Creedon. Cllr Wade was declared elected by 6 votes to 3 the line-up being the same as for the election of chairman. ON V.E COMMITTEE On a similar 6-3 vote the two

EIRE OG G.A.A. NOTES

On Sunday last we scored a good win over Villersstown in the junior championship. It was nice to see most of our players turning up for this game and turning in good displays but we were still short a few very good players and if we train seriously for our next game we could be a hard team to beat. It was nice to see John Woods, Buddy Power and Michael Monahan back again and playing well. Lar Harte gave a very good display in goal and Jack Woods was at his usual best. Thomas Drummy and Pat McGovern and Tony Monahan also played well and Thomas Walsh had his best game for the club for a long time. A very good display all round by all the players and with more training we can expect more success. Tickets are now on sale for our 300 draw.

In-Form Lismore Can Beat Portlaoigh

Ballyduff To Win Decisively

NEXT SUNDAY it was in their drawn game against the then county champions Portlaoigh that Lismore made hurling followers through- out the county...

With some improvement Dun- garvan could win this second round losers group game With Michael Norris Pa Meehan...

away I for one cannot recall when I last saw a team given so many chances and not falling to score Now that their luck has changed...

In the replay Lismore lost by only a score and then ridden with a losers group game on the following Sunday

Now back for another 'go at Portlaoigh at Dungarvan next Sunday Lismore have prepared well they beat Ferrybank without being at full stretch in the first round...

Playing without Michael Clancy was a serious setback to Ballysaggart last Sunday but with Ardmore in such great form I doubt if this made such a difference...

EMMETTS v MELLERAY This will be the second game at Cappoquin on Sunday afternoon and based on that form they won't beat Lismore

Both sides have had a good preparation through the West- ern League - Melleray getting to the semi final

DRUNK DRIVING CHARGE DISMISSED

A charge of drunk driving against a Youghal man was dismissed by the local court after it was claimed that a Garda Station Officer did not comply strictly with the regulations relating to the taking of blood samples.

Denis Francis McNamara, 10, Strand Street, Youghal, pleaded not guilty to drunk driving on November 19 at Dysart Youghal.

Garda Michael Daly said that with Garda Tom Fitzgerald he was operating a checkpoint and saw the defendant's car stop some distance away, then proceed slowly towards the check witness got the smell of alcohol from Mr McNamara's breath and he swayed when asked to step out on the road. Asked to blow into the breathalyser the defendant blew a little then said he could not. He formed the opinion defendant was unfit to drive through drink.

The station orderly, Garda Dan McSweeney said he called for Dr B Foy and the defendant agreed to give a blood sample which was taken by Dr Foy. The sample was divided into two separate bottles which were sealed by the doctor. One of these was offered to Mr McNamara and he accepted it.

His speech was slurred and his eyes watered but he did not sway, said Garda McSweeney. Supt M Byrne said the results of the analysis of the blood sample showed 237 mg of alcohol per 100 ml of blood present.

STATEMENT ISSUE

Mr Pat Lavan said that under the regulations relating to Section 24 of the Road Traffic Act—drunk driving—it was specified that after the blood sample was divided into two one of them must be offered to the accused together with a written statement indicating to the accused that he might retain either of the samples. Mr McNamara was not given this statement, said Mr Lavan. In sworn evidence Mr McNamara said he was not offered the written statement and District Justice W F O'Connell said he must accept what the defendant said on oath. He therefore dismissed the charge as the regulations were not properly complied with.

OBITUARY

MR. JAMES ORMOND

Deep and widespread regret has been occasioned by the unexpected death of Mr James (Jim) Ormond 162, Viewmount Park, Waterford and formerly of West Street Lismore, which occurred at his son's residence in London recently.

The deceased, who was aged 78 years, was a member of one of County Waterford's best known and most distinguished families. A brother of former Fianna Fail Minister for Posts and Telegraphs, Mr Sean Ormond he was an esteemed member of the farming community in West Waterford for a long number of years before moving to take up residence with his daughter and son-in-law in Waterford city some years ago following the death of his wife.

A man of the strongest nationalistic ideals he was without question one of the country's greatest freedom fighters. His attachment to all things Irish was widely known and in his earlier years made an immense contribution to the GAA as did other members of his family including his late father John Ormond who was a former chairman of the West Waterford Board.

Throughout his lifetime he was a devoted husband and father a man of outstanding integrity and one who deservedly enjoyed the esteem and affection of all sections of the community.

His record as one who fought valiantly for Irish freedom spoke for itself. At the age of 15 years he joined Fianna Eireann in 1916 and from then until 1918 was involved in despatch and intelligence work. From early in 1918 he was actively engaged with the IRA and successfully led attacks on Lismore Courthouse jail and the adjacent RIC barracks. He harassed Crown forces at every opportunity until his arrest in November 1920.

He was interned in Ballyknin from then until July 1921 and on his release continued to serve with his old unit the Lismore Column of the West Waterford Brigade on the anti-Treaty side under Commanding Officers William Power and J Coady. He himself was the unit's Quartermaster which was transferred to the Cork 2nd Brigade during the Civil War.

He was engaged in frequent attacks on Lismore Castle Youghal Bridge and other outposts in the area until his arrest in possession of arms on November 10th 1922. He was tried by Military Court in Cork and sentenced to death which was later commuted to ten years penal servitude. He was released however in June 1924.

Fittingly the coffin which arrived at Cork Airport from London on Thursday morning was draped in the tricolour. The remains were taken by road to St Carthage's Church Lismore where they were received and blessed by Rev Michael O'Gorman CC, in the presence of a hugely representative concourse.

Requiem Mass was celebrated on Friday morning by Rev John O'Brien, U.S., a cousin of the deceased, and the funeral took place to St Carthage's cemetery for interment. Old IRA colleagues were there wearing their service medals and members of the First Motor Squadron, Fermoy fired a volley of shots at the graveside and the Last Post and Reveille was sounded. Fr James and Sally Harrington (grandchildren) niece nephews and relatives.

AGLISH AND CLASHMORE

Death of Mr J Ahearne, Piltown—It is with regret that we record the unexpected death of Mr James Ahearne Piltown Kinsalebeg. Deceased was popular among all sections of the community and his demise is much regretted.

The funeral to Piltown cemetery was of a large and representative nature. Very Rev G McDonnell P and Rev. W Meehan CC officiated.

Clashmore Festival—The big annual festival will be held in Clashmore again this year and a record attendance is assured. A massive programme of attractive and unique events has been arranged. All arrangements are in the capable hands of Mr James Fitzgerald and his hard-working committee. For full details see advertisement in this paper.

Don't let your E.S.B. bills mount up

When the present postal difficulties are over, you could face bills for nearly six months electricity—six months of a very severe Winter when all fuel bills were high. For your own sake, act now, so you aren't faced with an unmanageable bill.

If you haven't paid anything... since the beginning of the dispute, the first thing to do is to find out how much you owe now. Your local ESB Service Centre (address on your bill) can tell you how much this is. Try to clear this now, or at least make a payment on account. Bring an old bill with you—it'll speed things up.

If you've made a payment... thank you very much. To keep up-to-date, you should make a payment every 2 months. So if the date on your last ESB receipt is more than 2 months ago, you're due to pay again now.

Remember, you can pay the ESB by Bank Giro at any bank. Please quote your ESB account number (on your last bill) and "E S B Account, AIB Dame Street, Dublin Giro No. 81900087".

PLEASE KEEP YOUR ESB PAYMENTS UP TO DATE

Archdeacon Cassidy, P.P., V.F. carrying the Sacred Host under a canopy which was flanked by the members of the Dungarvan Civil Defence Organisation.

TALLOW AND ROUNDABOUT NOTES

Presentation To New Council
On Friday night last a function was held at the Hotel Tallow in honour of all those who helped Willie McDonnell in his recent election campaign. Mr. Moss Geary, Vice-Chairman of the Tallow Fine Gael Branch presented a silver tray on behalf of the Branch to our new Councillor to mark the historic occasion. Mr. Geary complimented Willie on his great election result. He said it was a wonderful achievement to head the poll with 923 first preference votes first time in the field. He spoke on behalf of the Branch in saying that its members were justifiably proud of Willie's election performance and felt that Tallow would benefit greatly in having a local Councillor.

He paid tribute to the wonderful back-up team which could certainly claim some of the reward for Willie's high poll. They gave of their time and energy unsparsingly. Mr. Declan Doovey speaking on behalf of Lismore and Ballinvelia Fine Gael wished to be associated with Mr. Geary's remarks and assured Councillor McDonnell of his support. Councillor McDonnell in accepting the tray paid tribute to all those present and to his fellow party candidates namely James Aidan Walsh and Mr. Seamus Hampton. He said both men afforded him every courtesy during the election campaign.

TALLOW G.A.A. NOTES

CONVINCING WIN
Tallow 5 12, Erin's Own 1 4
Eager to resume the victory road Tallow senior hurlers gave their championship meeting - their first meeting in this grade for nearly thirty years - at last splashed Dungarvan on Sunday afternoon. Masters of the throw-in Tallow had the game in firm control after ten minutes and at half-time the only question remaining to be answered was the final victory margin.

As a contest it must have been very disappointing for the fine crowd but to Tallow folk there was the satisfaction of watching how level of fitness and considerable level of fitness and pass skills properly utilised bring results it was not Tallow's fault that the city team were weak, you have a good game only when they separate themselves from the other teams. There was much to admire in Tallow's win and we saw hints of what may yet be possible before 1979 has run its course.

Tommas Doyle separates the competing teams. There was much to admire in Tallow's win and we saw hints of what may yet be possible before 1979 has run its course. Tommas Doyle separates the competing teams. There was much to admire in Tallow's win and we saw hints of what may yet be possible before 1979 has run its course.

There were several skillful controlled forwards and good marks. Treacy used their considerable talents to create and take scores. Curley, McDonnell, work rate and further back Frankie Ryan showed how determined he is to stake a claim to a permanent defensive position. The whole defence was in command all through and there were very few uneasy moments.

The tests ahead will undoubtedly be of sterner quality. The team expect anything else at this stage it is now a matter of increased attention to preparation so that a higher standard of performance can be achieved and maintained. Treacy and McDonnell to treat training for senior hurling in a casual manner will have reason to regret it. For now enough has been said and authority it gives you the right to face the rest of the championship year with confidence.

NEWS FROM LISMORE

Town Commissioners - Lismore Town Commissioners held their monthly meeting on Monday night last and as a result of the recent elections five new members made their debut here. Prior to the commencement of the outgoing Chairman Mr. P. Dowd thanked all who had helped him during his term of office. Those who did not see the election among those who were unsuccessful. He also thanked Town Clerk Mr. M. Pollard and the Press. Then the election for Chairman and Vice-Chairman was held and he proposed Mr. Jack Mulward as Chairman. This was seconded by Mr. Tom Murphy. Mr. Mulward declined despite appeals from all present. Mr. Tom Whelan then proposed Mr. T. Hegarty as Chairman and this was seconded by Mr. P. Dowd. The outgoing Chair Mr. P. Dowd was 'then proposed by Miss Mona O'Connell and seconded by Miss M. Fenton and Mr. J. Hegarty was elected by 6 votes to three.

Mr. Hegarty then took the Chair and appealed to all irrespective of Party affiliations for their support to help to make Lismore a better town for all. Mr. J. Mulward Labour was then proposed as Vice Chairman by Mr. T. Whelan and seconded by T. Murphy and this was passed unanimously.

Many items were then discussed - the replacement of the Town Clock, the ladies toilet, the extension of the town boundaries, additional lights at the hospital, the provision of a playground on the triangular site at Parks Road, the legality of the water rate than they pay at the Lismore road and a lengthy discussion on the increased water rates which had now been increased from £8.00 to £12.00. This motion which was put forward by Mr. J. Mulward was discussed in depth and as the proposer stated that now at least 25 per cent of the houses in the town were now paying more for their water than they pay when rates were on houses.

It was also proposed and seconded that copies of the various proposals and recommendations from this and future meetings be forwarded to the local County Councillors seeking their support and backing. Indisposed - As this correspondent will be indisposed next week Mr. P. O. S. and advertisers kindly endeavour to get their correspondence to the Leader either by phone or otherwise before Tuesday midday.

Lismore GAA Notes - Under 12 Hurling - At the Castle Farm on Wednesday last the under 12 hurlers won the Bord na Moig Tournament against a gallant Abbeyside team by 2 to 1. Lismore playing with a strong wind and sun piled on the pressure in the first half but could only register 1 to nil on the scoreboard by half-time. Early sides turn and after ten minutes there was just one point in it 1-2 to 1-1. Then Kieran Lawton scored a great goal and Lismore again took control for the final ten minutes. Dan Geoghegan kept a good goal all through. He was well protected by a solid full back line of Pat Sheehan, Brendan Crowley and Niall Power. The half-back line of Martin O'Brien, Frank Power and M. Twomey were brilliant all through and really laid the foundation for this victory. Mark Feeney and the stylish Ger (Speedy) Sheehan were on top all through at midfield.

Under 12 Football - Lismore 3 6, Stradally 1 1 - At Abbeyside on Monday last the under 12 footballers qualified for the semi-final of the football tournament to be held on Monday next against Tallow or Abbeyside. Junior Hurling - Lismore 7 5, Fourmlewater 3 3 - The junior hurlers had a runaway victory over Fourmlewater at Lismore on Sunday last. The team consisted mainly of minors and under 21 and backboned by veteran Marty McNamara, Donal Coughlan and R. Ormonde and their performance all-round was creditable. Senior Hurling - Sunday next is D Day for the senior hurlers when they line-out against Forthlaw at Dungarvan at 3.30. Players are asked to be at the Monument at 2.45.

Late Peter Kiernan - We regret to record the passing of one of our best known personalities Peter Kiernan. What can one say of him but that he was a true and loyal member of our club. Ever ready to help out in what ever occasion arose. Peter from his advent to Lismore - in the mid-forties - became totally and actively engaged in the affairs of the club and remained a true and loyal member up to the time of his illness. He was a man of many parts having served as player, mentor and groundsman and in all of these activities he gave of his very best. I think he achieved his finest hour in 1957 when helping Lismore annex the Western junior hurling title. Peter had no enemies and this was amply evidenced by the huge crowds which attended both the removal of his remains from the District Hospital and his interment in the local cemetery. There too to pay him honour were members of the club some of whom bore the remains while others formed the guard of honour. On his coffin rested a jersey - the Black and Amber of which he was so proud. To his beloved wife and family we extend our sincerest sympathy. Whist - The winner of the 1st prize in the weekly whist drive held in St. Carthage's Hall on Tuesday night last was Mrs. E. O'Donoghue, Dungarvan. Mr. H. Cooke and Mrs. M. Canning, both of Lismore shared 2nd and 3rd and Mr. Cooke was also successful in winning the miniature Bonus in this competition now stands at £175. Summer Bridge Results - 4 Table Howell - June 13th - 1st Miss G. Beecher and Mr. W.

What can one say of him but that he was a true and loyal member of our club. Ever ready to help out in what ever occasion arose. Peter from his advent to Lismore - in the mid-forties - became totally and actively engaged in the affairs of the club and remained a true and loyal member up to the time of his illness. He was a man of many parts having served as player, mentor and groundsman and in all of these activities he gave of his very best. I think he achieved his finest hour in 1957 when helping Lismore annex the Western junior hurling title. Peter had no enemies and this was amply evidenced by the huge crowds which attended both the removal of his remains from the District Hospital and his interment in the local cemetery. There too to pay him honour were members of the club some of whom bore the remains while others formed the guard of honour. On his coffin rested a jersey - the Black and Amber of which he was so proud. To his beloved wife and family we extend our sincerest sympathy. Whist - The winner of the 1st prize in the weekly whist drive held in St. Carthage's Hall on Tuesday night last was Mrs. E. O'Donoghue, Dungarvan. Mr. H. Cooke and Mrs. M. Canning, both of Lismore shared 2nd and 3rd and Mr. Cooke was also successful in winning the miniature Bonus in this competition now stands at £175. Summer Bridge Results - 4 Table Howell - June 13th - 1st Miss G. Beecher and Mr. W.
