MOTORIST FINED £90 AT DUNGARVAN

Despite a denial by the defendant that he was at the place when an alleged collision occurred he was fined a total of £60 with £30 expenses at Dungarvan Court by District Justice H Kelleher The defendant was Patrick Fitzgerald Kiladangan Dungarvan and he was charged on a number of counts resulting from the collision which oc-curred at Bridge Street Dun-garvan on December 16

Evidence was given by Denis Begley who stated that he stayed at the Ormond Guest House in Bridge Street and Denis House in Bridge St House in Bridge Street and that on Sunday December 16 he parked his car outside the house As the result of a call which he received later he went out and examined his car which he found damaged It had cost Deasy other car which he passed on to the Gardai Sgt T Carty told the court that he got a complaint about the accident and was given the Games to be played at Ferry- number of a car Around 6 a car parked at the quay and observed a man going towards it who was searching his pockets He passed on but kept a

> Witness then stated that he went back to the car but the defendant drove off Later he visited the defendants house at Kiladangan and saw that his car was damaged A couple of days afterwards he met the de-fendant and questioned him Oreachtas Joint Committee on Catholics and nuns or even to acknowledge that the influence about the incident At first he state sponsored Bodies in place denied having had an accident of Euro MP Mr Tom O'Donnell of the Rule of monks—man is but later admitted it and said the Government Chief Whip Mr of the Rule of monks—man is enormous through the work of the the mol accident of the mol accident and everywhere work is God learning and culture especially about the incident At first he Witness added that the defendant refused to make a watch on the man who returned to the car and got into it

At this point Mr J P Gor- the Augustinian College in Dundon Solr who appeared for the garvan has achieved many defendant asked for a direction dangerous driving tively short period charge on the grounds that there had been no evidence to

Justice Kelleher granted the request stating that as there was no evidence ha would dismiss the charge of dangerous driving He said however that he was satisfied that the defendant was in volved in the accident with the other car and he imposed a fine of £15 for failing to stop after he accident the fine to be endorsed on his licence and a further £15 for failing to remain at the scene of an accident He imposed three additional fines of £10 each for having no front or rear lights on the car and their spending this year by a ordered the defendant to pay massive £12 million This is the

£30 expenses After the Justice had an-nounced his decision Mr Gor-cstimated budget don informed the Court that his client was insisting on giving sworn evidence

Fitzgerald was then sworn in day grave concern was expressand stated that he was in Dun ed about money ceing saved on garvan on Sunday December food medicines and the heat-16 but he left it around 330 ing of hospitals and institutions p m and went out the Shandon In a report to the meeting road by the Gaelic field to the CEO Mr P McQuillan pointed Monument Bar As he was out that since the reductions going home he struck some effected in 1976 there was little pallets which were lying on the room for economies without cur quay He denied that he was in tailing services Bridge Street at all that evening and said that he was at The Ecard estimated that to home at 6 o clock at the time maintain in 1980 the same lavely Sgt Carty was supposed to have of services as in 1979 would cost seen him at the quav

Having heard the defendants, for Health has allocated them evidence the District Justice only £433 million And the said that he would not alter Board officials pointed out tha his decision and told Mr Gor to make the cuts would be a your client is lucky that massive task he is not here on a much more serious charge

Bride View United Soccer Notes — The first team put in a spirited display in Youghal last Sunday, although defeated 2-1 by 1st division St Martin's after extra time in the first round of the County Cup

Bride View Started well and March meeting, Mrs Mangan

Bride View started well and were playing some great football for the first 20 minutes Then a mistake in the defence left St Martin's in for a soft goal and the lead which they held until

In the second half both sides had their chances Then in the 81st minute Raymond Fraser headed home Bride View's

After just three minutes of extra time a corner on the left was misjudged by our keeper and the ball was eventually blasted home for the winning goal for St Martin's Bride View tried hard for the equaliser but never looked capable of scoring in the remaining time

It has been shown in the past. After just three minutes of

In the remaining time

It has been shown in the past few matches that what this Bride View side is lacking is a goalscorer Since Mickey Curley departed to Cork United, goals have been scarce One very good thing did result from this match and that was the good display of new signing A Jacobsen from Denmark He is good on the ground good in the air, and will be a great asset to local soccer Team — K Tobin T McCar-

DUNGARVAN UNITED SOCCER NOTES

This was a hectic week-end under 15 team were defeated in the cup by Johnville while our club were also involved in the Dungarvan Community Games team which qualified for the Co Final at Easter Our 1st Division team played Hibs on St Pat rick's Day while we also had a float in the St Patrick's Day Parade On Sunday morning our under 13 team played their first game a challenge game at Kilrush The highlight of the weekend however was our Munster Junior Cup victory over Pallasenry in Limerick

Pallaskenry 0, Dungaryan 4

This the longest ever trip undertaken by any of our junior teams for a competative game saw our cup team give their best display this season when over-coming a fit Limerick side in a game played on a very tight and bumpy pitch

Pallaskenry were first to mount a serious attack after Gregor saved at the foot of the post Dungarvan began to dicafford and those players who adopted the unexciting style of simple ground play reaped ground play reaped most exciting passages of play J McDonnell R OBrien M J McDonnell R OBrien M Beecher L O'Brien S Curley afford and those players who Fourmilewater 2-5 name is given first with phon post Dungarvan were now playette pronounciation followed by the present Anglicised form the stream of the townland and finally any anecdote or training to the said town Sheehan saw a rebound for the far and players who of the far and players putted in Snot wide of the far and players who of the far and players with phon post Dungarvan were now playetted by the present Anglicised form the stream of the townland interval when a series of shots and finally any anecdote or training to the said town. Sheehan saw a rebound fall to Nick McCarthy, who made no mistake from six yards range Dungarvan had wind advantage for the second half and Johnny Hughes handled and Pat Morrissey made no mistake from the spot despite having to take the penalty twice The Dungarvan defence were row starting to punish the home side with long accurate clear ances and John Hughes set up lic buildings and nistorical ruins a third goal with a great right wing cross which Pat Morrissev pushed to the net for a great goal The final 15 minutes saw Lungarvan play open fast footpail and credit must go to the luture games Our back four of Dixie Deegan Liam and Kleran Walsh winning plenty of the ball for the forwards who stretched the Pallaskenry defence despite playing on a narower and shorter pitch We now await the iraw for the next round but if training is victory could be repeated no matter who we draw
