GENERAL INTEREST

At a public meeting called bridge upstream to provide onejointly by Clir R A. Walsh, Chairman Dungarvan U.D.C way traffic coming in D Goode, M.C.C UDC, and held at the Courthouse, Dungarvan last Monday was unanimously agreed of the group present that committee be established and that a deputation be appointed to attend the next meeting of Waterford County Council to bring pressure to bear on the members to rescind their decision in regard to the proposed alterations to the Causeway Bridge as recommended by Mr J D Hally County

About 100 people filled the Courthouse for the meeting which was chaired by Cllr Walsh and an unexpected visitor the Department of the Environ-

Mr Walsh told those present that the meeting was held in response to public demand and that the existing bridge was he proposed to explain to them built in 1815 and although it was the feasibility of providing a now 165 years old it was still in pedestrian crossing at the sound structural condition The bridge without damaging it in question to be decided was wheany way Opposition to the dether it was to be retained or not struction of the only structure but any work on it would be of character left in the town is done through 100° o State grant widespread he said

Mr Walsh then called on the scribed as potentially dangerous first speaker appointed to ad- he personally thought that it dress the meeting his son Mr | would be a pity to interfere with John R Walsh who said that its present structure as it was they were not there to knock part and parcel of the town the proposals of the County En and any changes to it should be gineer in regard to the bridge avoided if at all possible just merely for the sake of knocking them He complimented some of the development lief ring road around Dungarwhich had taken place in the yan was town but condemned others £100 000 had been provided in such as the new Bank of Ireland the County Council's estimates building which he said was built this year towards the first stage in such a way as to be com-This would eventually include a pletely out of character in the new bridge upstream of the ex Square He also described as a isting bridge the location of monstrosity the 20 ft high wall which had still to be decided by erected by the County Council the Council 'When this has beyond Grange Creamery and been decided" he said "it will said that they had watched the relieve the Causeway and the Provincial Bank being swallowed existing bridge of much of the up in a metal jungle

a stop to this kind of desecra- ing out that his brief in the Detion and he deplored the stacking of fertiliser on the Quay which prevented visitors from getting a proper view of the bridge from that angle He went on to say that any proposals for the bridge should not include removal of the parapets which would destroy its beauty and if they were to allow the bridge to be cannabalised he said he would prefer to see it removed totally and to retain the memory of it as it was

Clir D Goode who next ad- was very little evidence of any ressed the meeting outlined co-ordinated planning in the the various discussions and decisions which had been taken in regard to the bridge since it was first discussed by the County Council over four or five years ago He recalled his young days when the farmers of Bal liracourty brought their produce in horse and carts to the town | RECOMMENDATIONS to sell and said he remembered an occasion when he saw the Black and Tans stop the farmers on the bridge and throw their produce into the tide Beiesford Mary Kyne Austin rather than leave them bring it Flynn Eleanor Power Gay Morinto the town

He then spoke at length on Power Mrs O Regan Margaret the general traffic problems of Veale John Mansfield John the town and the urgent need Young John Beresford and for the proposed diversion road and concluded by saying that while he was in favour of the proposed cantilever footpaths on bridge should be retained and the bridge for the safety of ped-estrians crossing it he was op-posed to the removal of the

Clir R Walsh then addressed putation be sent to the next Co the meeting and said that it was Council meeting to press this the County Engineer who had recommendation got the members of the County to destroy our bridge Council He said that in regard to the proposed alterations there were two misconceptions the driving public were under the impres sion that the alterations would provide a wider bridge but this was not true and it was a fallacy for them to think otherwise as it would remain the same width as far as the pedestrians were concerned an equal fallacy ex

Cllr Walsh then said that in his view there were a number of alternatives to the County Engineer's plan (1) the erection of a second low level bridge downstream of the existing fridge to allow for one way traffic in and out He described this as the ideal solution but pointed out that the Department would not give the money for the erection of such a bridge nor for the erection of a new bigger bridge on the proposed ring road upstream of the existing bridge (2) to double the width of the footpath on the downstream side of the bridge which he claimed would have the effect of widening the carriageway as prams could then use the foot path (3: an independent foot path on the unstream side of the bridge which would be the least costly of all the sug-

Clir Walsh went on to say that if the Co Engineer's plan to remove the parapets of the bridge was carried out there was a grave danger that the whole bridge would collapse and fall down It would destroy the architectural value of the bridge and the plan was in his opinion the most unworkable plan of all and would only provide an illus-

ion of extra width
Mr W Beresford then suggested a further alternative and produced a drawing which he displayed to the meeting. This was to use the old railway

Election Of New Bishop Of Cashel

And Ossory The Electoral College for the election of a new Bishop of Cashel and Ossory in succession to Archbishop Armstrong has been summoned by the Arch bishop of Dublin Dr Henry Mc Adoo, for to-morrow Friday 28th March at Christ Church Cathedral, Dublin Following Holy Communion at noon the Electoral College will assemble in the music room of the Chapter House for the private electoral proceedings beginning after lunch

The full title of the Bishop is Cashel Waterford Lismore, Ossory Ferns and Leighlin These last three dioceses were added to the first three in 1977 follow-ing the re-organisation of dioceses in the Church of Ire-land aimed at a reduction in the number of Bishops from four-teen to eleven When that am-algamation covering the whole of the south-east corner of Ireland took place, the Bishop moved his house in Waterford to Kilkenny

An Electoral College held following the appointment of an Archbishop of Armagh is differ-ent from all other Electoral Colleges in that it includes special representation of six clergymen and six laymen from Armagh diocese This is recognition of the fact that the people in Armagh diocese have not had any say in the election of the Archbishop who it will be re-called was elected by the House of Bishops from their own number following the retirement of A TOTAL OF SIXTY FOUR

Besides these twelve people from Armagh diocese there wil be twelve clergy and twelve laity from the United Dioceses of Cashel and Ossory plus three clergy and three lasty from each of the dioceses in the Church of Province of Dublin namely from the Dioceses of Dublin and Glendalough the Kildare the United Dioceses of Cork Cloyne and Ross and the United Dioceses of Limerick election Friday 25th April St Mark's Day, has tentatively been fixed for the consecration of the new Bishop of Cashel and Ossory probably also in Christ Church Cathedral Dublin Afthronments being spread over several months

The outcome of the election on 28th March will be announced on the spot but it is not likely to be before mid or late after-

Urgent Need To Develop Roads Out Of Waterford City

At a recent meeting of the South Eastern Regional Development Organisation the Director Mr L Murphy stated that the Board had considered the Road Development Plans for the 1980's at its last meeting and had agreed that the plans and designs of the national routes should be prepared without de lay and in particular those for the Waterford/New Ross and Waterford/Dublin Roads as it was most anxious to raise the question of the improvement of these roads with the Minister for the Environment

He stated that the Technical Committee had considered the matter further at its last meetthe plans for Slieverue by-pass were with the Department of Environment for some twelve months and that the necessar, Compulsory Purchase order could not be made until these plans are approved The plans for the Glenmore/New pared but would not be complettake 9 12 months approximately stated that Kilkenny would welcome the support of the Organisation in obtaining
