Similarly we would ask OTHER FARMERS who may be considering growing beet in 1980 and who have not already applied to contact their nearest sugar factory as soon as possible

The earlier the sugar beet is sown, the bigger the yield,

GALWAY 1 12

Waterford for so long immer sed in mediocrity in the lower division of the National Hurling League and recently promoted to the top division shook Railway Cup winners Galway to the core when the sides failed to resolve the issue in the league quarter final at Thurles last Sunday

Played in superb conditions the game produced an exhilira ting struggle as Waterford rock ed the favourites with the cham pionship like fervour of their display and although Waterford must now bemoan the fact that they let slip a game they might have won they can look back with satisfaction on a game in which the pride and prestige of Deise hurling was restored with a vengeance

Never once during the how were Waterford headed and folhowing a good first half display they turned over with an un-flattering 1-8 to 0-6 interval lead They continued to take the game to Galway in the second half and increased their lead to and Declan Fitzpatrick lording it Waterford were concerned and Mocollop Cumann Chairper- for them at any rate it cost

> Full back Joe Murphy ros the Waterford supporters referee Jinimy Rankins blew up play for a goal which Galway never

Waterford were awarded penalty in the 51st minute but with a two point advantage Jim Green elected to play safe and took his point

The last nine minutes pro way spurred on by their goal fought tigerishly to salvage the sub Bernie Forde had points to with 6 minutes left for play and continued pressure yielded the equaliser in the 57th minute when Linnane scoreo direct

Waterford however some golden opportunities to stages when Declan Fitzpatrick missed scorable frees in the 55th

These missed chances apart shooting 16 wides during the game as against 8 for Galway were Waterford's heroes in what was their best display to date in the league the Deise side Ormonde Jim Greene and Pat Curran.

Galway left it until late in the game to produce the form they showed in the Railway Cup final They had outstanding players in the final quarter in half backs Sylvie Lennane Sean Silke and Iggy Clarke while Joe Connolly was best in artack where he gol most assistance from Jerry Cur tin and Finbarr Gantley
