A Housing Crisis In Co. Waterford

When members of Waterford Co Council at their monthly meeting in Dungarvan last Monday came to discuss the Council's house building progress report for the month of March Cilr K O'Ryan declared that they had reached another crisis point in housing in the county and I say that without fear of contradiction," he added The report showed that dur under construction in the county (8 at Ring 4 at Ardmore, 6 at Cheekpoint and 1 each at Grallagh. Shanacoole Boolakiely Knockaunbrandaun and Kilcooney and 35 at Tramore)

Cllr O'Ryan said that his area in the Nire Valley was being ery badly serviced for housing Miss M. O'Donovan Housing Officer said that the position in regard to that area was that no applications had been received for houses

Clir T Kyne Chairman, who supported the point raised by Clir O'Ryan said that the people in the area who needed houses did not apply as they felt there was no use in doing so

EMPHATIC DEFEAT FOR WATERFORD

Galway 3-15, Waterford 2-7

Galway made no mistake in the National Hurling League quarter-final replay at Croke Park on Sunday last when, in contrast to the drawn game, they displayed all the skills when emphatically defeating Waterford by 3-15 to 2-7

But although Waterford no-ticeably affected by the loss of Joe Moore and Noel Connors out through injury were compre-hensively defeated in the end the stubborn resistance which displayed made this clash an exciting one which, over the hour produced some fine performances and some well taken

scores
In the drawn game Galway were forced to come from behind but on this occasion it was the winners who forced the pace throughout Scan Silke who gave a truly memorable display which had the effect of inspiring his col-leagues throughout the field, got the Western side off to a great start when his shot from a 100 yards free went all the way to the Waterford net in the third minute

They were subsequently never headed and even though Waterford lought gailantly to stave off what looked like imminent the Deise side

Nine minutes into the game Silke's score was negatived by midfield area where Galway were sadly missing the services

Our deepest's months is ex ended to the Naville family on he death of their brother Pat who died in Kanturk Hospital after a long illness. In former da s Pat donned the Knockan ore colours with distinction and later with Dungarvan He was also on the Waterford Count Senior selection which brought All-Ireland honours for the first time in 1948 It was most consoling for the family to see so many club members and former playing comrades at the funeral in Kanturk

Dungarvan Lions Club 20-Miles Cycle

Our 20-miles sponsored cycle tour took place on Easter Sun-day The event was blessed with glorious sunshine and a huge group of cyclists took to the road shortly after 1230 p.m

Before the tour commenced over 600 cyclists gathered into the Car Park and were addressed by the President of Dungarvan Lions Club Dr P O Con nell Sergeant Terry Carty gave a brief run down on the rules of the road and the obligations of cyclists on the road We are glad to report that his advice was heeded and all cyclists from 6 to 60 plus behaved in an excellent manner The Lions Club are most grateful to the Gardai for their help and guidance Mr R Walsh Chairman of the Urban Council (who is also a I ion himself) performed the opening ceremony and the Dun-garvan Brass & Reed Band led the parade down Mary Street and up O'Connell Street

The first official stop was at Master- McGrath monument where all were served with yogurt At this stage the field was rather bunched but before tney reached the next stop at Cappagh Creamery the field was well strung out After a welcome bortle of orange the tour went on to the entrance to Whitechurch House where apples were available The last stop was at Carriglea where many of the participants were beginning to flag and a lie on the grass was the order of the day

The most welcome sight of the day for those with aching bones was the roof of the Dungarvan Crystal factory where the tour ended with crisps for all

Tired but happy the cyclists gathered together to discuss the At this point the prosecution the radded that the water depth ups and downs of the trip While called a further witness John where he was fishing was beOKeeffe an Engineer with the tween 2 and 3 fathoms (15 to of Frank Murphy and his able crew everybody finished the journey in great spirits

Kilkenny in the 5th minute added fire to the Galway attack and the winners hit a real purple patch between the 10th and 18th minutes as Ryan shot two great points in the 10th minutes to restore the great points in the 10th minutes to restore the great points in the 10th minutes at the Liam Kelly the defendant charges On count 3 he imposed on Wednesday 23rd at 8 30 pm then gave evidence and said a fine of £25 with £50 expenses All are welcome to attend
