Points by John Foley and Sean Harnedy gave them new hope and Lram Ahearne's goal in the 44th minute put a totally new complexion on the game Shamrocks were just two points behind (3 6 to 2-7) and were hurling with great confidence and despite the fact that Clonea had a Gerry Kirwan point in the 47th minute (it proved their final score) it was literally all Shamrocks for the remainder of the game

Lismore gave due notice of their intentions for this year's senior hurling championship at Cappoquin on Sunday last when they scored a comprehensive 12 points win over Abbeyside in their first round encounter. The winners showed little of what was to come in a close first half after which they led by 0 7 to 0-5 But they really turned on the style in the second period in which an avalanche of scores burled Ab beyside's hopes for this year.

literally all Shamrocks for the remainder of the game

But ironically their hunger for a goal and their inability to pick off points from frees as well as from play in the end p oved their undoing

Bi'ly Tobin pointed a '65 in the 49th minute and John Foleys point from a free in the 51st minute left just a point between the sides but despite continued pressure Shamrocks failed to get the vital score as Clonea held on for a narrow

WATERFORD

If there was one theme to the intensive factory tour given to farmers at the recent Open Day in Clover Meats Waterford Farmers were warned to keep an eye on the fat content of their cattle and the new government classification scheme was explained in detail Farmers saw at first hand how different types of cattle measured up under the system - from their acceptance into the pens right up to their emergence as sides of beef and by-product raw material for processing Two year old cattle fattened under the Clover calf-to-beef scheme were also slaughtered and the top quality carcases
