Minister of State Mr Jackie eyes of the public Fahey from Waterford County open the parity within the county The trouble erupted last week at the convention to select the candidate held in Kilmacthomas and as reported in last week's "Leader" the meeting turned out to be a most stormy affair and ended in a walk-out by a number of delegates when the Minister's 25-year-old son Sean won the nomination on a 40-25 majority from Stradbally contender Tom Cunningham, who as the party's runner-up in last year's local elections in the Kılmacthomas electoral area. was expected to be the man

Following the Kilmacthomas convention and before the meeting of the Comhairle Dail Ceanntair was held, a direction was received from the Party Headquarters in Dublin that the CDC, Mr Sean Whelan, Kilconey, Ballinamult and King Mr Jack Cullinane, Glenniben Lismore were to attend at the office of the Taoiseach, Mr Haughey in Dublin on last Wednesday evening to report on the situation This directions. District Justice Rejects Allegations Against Gardai At Lismore Court

Although refusing the admissibility in evidence of a statement made by an 18-year-old defendant in which he admitted a series of offences District Justice W F O Connell rejected out of hand at Jismore Court out of hand at Lismore Court last week allegations by the de-fendant that he had been threatened by the gardal, or an inference that the Garda officers were guilty of any impropriety during a two-hour interview with them in a patrol car Timothy O'Brien 12 Parks Road Lismore faced a total of eight charges relating to the lar ceny of car spot lamps for lamps, car number plate lights and also receiving property knowing it to have been stolen. The defendant pleaded not guilty to seven of the charges and was acquitted on them after a marathon three-hour hearing He was convicted on the re-maining charge to which he pleaded guilty of the larceny of two fog lamps valued £40 at the Keaneland Hotel car park on

January 4

ON PROBATION Two other defendants also appeared before the court, 13 and 15 years old juveniles The 15 year old faced seven charges re-lating to the larceny of car spot lamps and a car radio and also receiving stolen property He pleaded not guilty to four and they were withdrawn by the prosecution On the other he was fined a total of £20 and ordered to be placed on probation in the care of the Court Welfare Ofn cer for 12 months

A similar Order was made in respect of the 13 year old who was convicted of stealing a car radio valued £45 on January 6 at Ballyca Lismore He was acquitted on a second larceny charge BOUND TO PEACE O'Brien was fined £10 on the luceny charge on which he was convicted and was also bound to the peace for 12 months O Brien had told the court that a statement made by him after two hours of interrogation with three Garda officers in a patrol car in Cappoquin on Jan-uary 10 was made under threat and because he was frightened 'I was threatened I would be taken off to Limerick prison that evening and one of the Gardan caught me by my overalls" the defendant went on I then signed a statement admitting the of-fences which I am innocent of " However the three garda officers Gardai J O Sullivan and F Sweeney and Sergeant D O Keeffe vehemently denied the All defendants allegations All three said there was no question of threats of any kind There were no contests at the being issued to the defendant annual meeting of the County Committee of Agriculture in Dungarvan last Monday when the outgoing Chairman and Vice Chairman were both releasted to the defendant

The Gardal told the court that after signing the statement O'Brien shook hands with them said he was glad to have got everything off his chest and

But again John Colbert proved nigh invincible in the goal as he saved a great effort from OBrien at the expense of a 56 lust before the interval Tom Landy took the free but his shot hit the upright and bounced wide and Stradbally and themselves the content of t Dungarvan Premier
