Judge Slates Wanton Damage To Parked Cars In Dungarvan

Wanton damage to parked cars in Dungarvan seemed to have reached epidemic propor tions and he confessed to being greatly disturbed by the spate of mindless vandalism that was taking place in the town Judge D P Sheridan made this comment at Dungaryan Circuit Court after hearing a number of malicious injury claims against Waterford County Council brought by motorist whose cars were damaged on several different dates which

Judge Sheridan described an incident in which a van and car parked at Davis Street car parked at Davis St, Dungar yan was damaged on the night of December 1, 1979, as a vicious attack on private property he was told by Garda E O Sullivan that on the same night a number of other cars were also damaged in the town The Judge awarded Joseph Hunt Snr., Davis Street agreed damages of £105 and costs for the claims brought in respect of both vehicles

It took a goal of questionable CONGRATULATIONS validity almost on the call of Cappoquin have go validity almost on the call of Cappoquin have good reason time to give Abbeyside the draw to take pride in their senior they worked hard for through- hurlers after last Sundays out the second half This was a great win over Mount Ston very good competitive match on Quite candidly most of us a dreadful night when the spiling rain difficult underfoot counter that Cappoquin had conditions and sodden greasy missed the boat — just as we

and indeed only heroic Abbey-side defenders kept Tallow from building a formidable lead at that Cappoquin showed their this stage. Then Bet Trans at character as they took all that this stage Then Pat Moore a character as they took all that very constructive full forward Mount Sion could throw at them—and it wasn't all with customary seven steps before palming the ball to the net This score was the spur that the served win the served his team needed and with John barrier must do wonders for barrier must do when Tal-Mulligan providing the inspirapressure coming up to half time

For the second half Tallow hurling in I had Eddie Condon in the forward line and with John Fitz-Tallow's outstanding player powering his way through it looked very much like a Tallow victory until John Mulligan's powerful left-hander what turned out to be a most city opponents

Pat Murphy were best in a Tallow team badly in need of train

ng
Full marks to Abbeyside whose hurling was far better that we expected and more in keeping with the Abbeyside with successful and succes keeping with the Abbeyside that we all admired and envied before football claimed so much of the clubs concentration

The replay should be good
