waterford's John Treacy seemingly assured of a place in the final had collapsed only 200 metres from the finishing line.

Treacy was carried from the arena on a stretcher and a hush fell momentarily over a crowd of 80 000 m the vast stadium.

When for the first time in a race he had controlled as much as anybody the first flaws appeared in the long rhythmac strides and his head uncommonly began to roll.

On the third last lap he wobbled slightly and at one stage appeared to step off the

SENIOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP
Our senior footballers step out in defence of their title when they take on Tallow at Cappoquin at 330 pm on Sunday next This is indeed a crunch game and one which is going to be very hard to win Players will leave from Kiely's Corner at Another vital game down for decision this week-end is our Senior Hurling League game v Tourin which will be played on Tuesday next, 5th August at the Fraher Field at 730 p.m

A win here would put us into the knock-out stages of the competition, but Tourin are sure to make a win hard to come by in this one CLUB HISTORY

Friday night next will surely be a great occasion for hurlers and footballers in the parish when they gather at the Ocean View Hotel, Clonea to launch Dun na Mannistreach-Baile na Cuirte, the story of the growth and development of the GAA locally Of course it is not only Abbeyside and Ballinacourty units of the present who are involved but also Ballycoe Ballinroad and the Pike who carried the flag for the parish at various times

All past and present members and especially those who helped by providing written photogra phic or verbal material in combining this history are invited to attend the 'get-together" at

There should be some great "crack" when the different generations get talking and re-membering their experiences is very impressive running to more than 300 pages and containing well over 100 photo graphs County Board and Divisional Board Officials will be present for the official launching which will take place during the course of the evening U 16 HURLING REPLAY

To the firms who sponsored the orizes Central Dairies Tayto Jack Kiely we also say hank you

As we now reflect on what was an important day for the Club Development Committee who organised the would like to say that it was also a great day for the club as a whole We were both hon-oured and delighted to have had so many wonderful people involved with us on such a great occasion Thank you one and

JUNIOR HURLING Abbeyside 2.2 Tallow 2.12 We bowed out of the junior hurling championship on Thursday night last when Tallow beat us in the replay at Cappoquin We never seemed to get going in this one and we had to give way to a very skuful Tallow fifteen

This win by Tallow brings the recent junior saga between the clubs to a draw with Eallinacourty winning the football and the junior hurling being won by Tallow

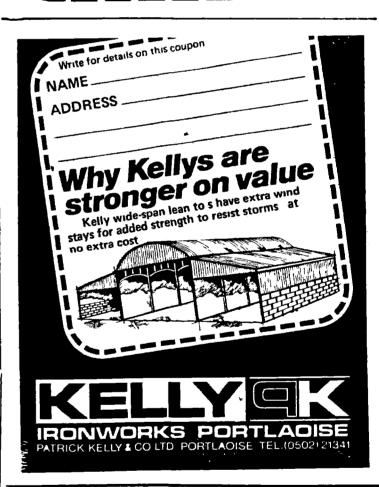

Interesting to note from both the hurling games was the displays of our own Michael Col lins at full-back He must surely rate as one of the best minor hurlers in the county at the moment and must surely be a good prospect for next years minor championship
