Lismore Courthouse Could Soon Fall Down

Such was the deteriorating ite of repair of Lismore arthouse both internally and ternally that it could soon I down unless some remedial easures were taken Clir W Donnell told last week's reting of Waterford County uncil.

Clir. McDonnell said the gen al state of the Courthouse is nothing short of disgrace is nothing short of disgrace is and he was supported by its J A. Walsh, G Arm rong and J Quirke in calling major improvements to be tried out to it. Cilr Walsh suggested that if money wasn t available to a major job at once then the ulding should be given a genal facelift and the repairs uld be carried out over a per-

d of time
Mr J Shine Acting County
sincer said he accepted that Lismore Courthouse could with a substantial expendi te of money but the simple ct of the matter was that the oncy wasn t there They proposed to do the mini amount of decorating on

Courthouse and also to im ove the heating in the Dis ict Justice's chambers Beyond at however they could not go

this stage
The Chairman, Mr A Deasy
D warned that finances Commod culd be a very scarce commod was far as the Council was received in 1981 but Mr Shine greed to draw up a phased fogramme of repairs for the ismore Courthouse which he ould place before the next
