HOW FAR THE TOWN

HOW FAR THE TOWN The Virgin asked-Weary from travelling far Joseph—her gentle spouse—replied See there 'neath yonder star Sweet Bethlehem

Soon rest-But the Inn-doors of that sweet named town were closed—no room within For David's daughter in David's town Disowned by kith and kin

No resting place in the bitter night But a filthy stable With ox and ass the Virgin maid laid down to rest awhile When came the silver dawn Tired angels heard the angels sing

"Hosanna—a King is born" HOW FAR THE TOWN Three wise men asked Travelling from afar Shepherds in whispered words replied "See there by yonder star Sweet Bethlehem

Party Time For Abbeyside Junior Athletes

Abbeyside's Community Games new Chairman, Eddie Moore hosted his first official function last Sunday with the ed out to be the biggest and best to date The den took on a festive air with flashing lights and pop music and goodies piled high on the tables

First we had disco dancing and then some feasting and of the committee This was folof he committee This was fol-lowed by more dancing and then we had a line-up of parish talent, so intertaining and so spontaneous Patrick Reynolds sang so well that he was recorded P. J. and this friends followed P. J. and the friends followe lowed Patrick then not to be outdone we had a line-up of girls with Niamh McShane Anne Mulvihill and Granne and Sinead Rossiter (Wasn't it sad Sinead Rossier (Wash 1) sad Sinead forgot her guitar)
Next we had the diminutive cousins! Kathy and Deirdre
O'Mahony and Susan Fahey accompanied by Caroline Lineen
Another highlight was the love-The inimitable Pat Kenealy rounded off with everything from pop to a hymn until 'time" had to be called

SCOR COUNTY FINAL

After what was one of the closest contests ever in the competition our Question Time team of John Flynn, Brian Limeen and Philip Kelly was defeated by just two points in the county final of the Junior Scor competitions held in Tallow Even though we lost our pro-vincial and county titles we are still proud of the team has given us so much to be proud of during the past year Of course the pride of these finals for us was our own Nicola Power who was crowned county champion in the recitation sectruly a superb performance Nicola had prepared well for this final and her dedicated approach work was justly rewarded Now its on to Mallow on January 13 for the Munster semi-finals and we wish Nicola continued success there
