FIELD WORK
Following a lot of work by our decleated group of workers, our dressing rooms at Kilrush have now got electricity and this is a great help in training. Last Saturday our floodlighting system was improved with poles being created and this again thanks be those,
clubmen that put a lot back into Dungarvan United.

DUNGARVAN SOCCER NOTES

DISAPPOINTMENT

For our junior teams last week-end was disappointing, with both our 4th and 1B league home games being post-point of the class of the centre forward got leave the property of the class of the centre forward got leave the property of the class of the centre forward got leave the property of the class of the vital touch to put Dungarian to the control of the class gain a victory that sets back our league hopes.

Once again a disallowed goal that would have put Dungarian a victory that sets back our league hopes.

Following a lot of work by our dedicated group of work our dedicated group of work of certainty and this is a great help in the class gain thanks to those a challenging second that is a great help in the condition of the condition

The display in the second half by Dimearvan was great, and our backs hold out thanks to great work by our midfield and forwards, not to mention goal-keeper Michael Dwyer.

Kilimachiomas were denied in the fifth militate of the second half, thanks to great tackles by, Pat Curran and Tony Hamilton and in the 10th militate Michael Dwyer saved well with a good advance to the edge of his pendice of the pendice of

yan were up against it.

A great good-line clearance by Meriaci Drummy saved the Blues and this inspired the Blues and this inspired the thome side to mount some great at, neks. A Martin Houthan pass saw Thomas Ourran free on the right wing and his cross was volleyed Just wide by the inrusaling Liam Crotty, who had run well to get in this shot.

Captain Eamon O'Brien, following a great broat from mid-rade a chance for Martin Houthan, but the right winger's shot dried and a chance for the upright to dony what do the party where the control of the property when well worked Dungarvan score.

Last Sunday week we had a very good club night. We started off with a sing song in one big group and following that we broke up into small groups.
Each group was then given a song to mime and act out on stage. I though? it, was really blarious and everyone had a
