Avonmore Drama Festival Opened

The Avonmore Drama Festival was officially opened in St. Michael's Hall, Ballyvaughan before a capacity attendance.
The opening was performed by Mr. George Crossin, Director of the "Cork Examiner" who complimented the organising committee on undertaking the organisation of such a festival. He said that amateur drama played an important part in the cultural and social aspects of life around us.
Mr. Bill Canning, Chairman of the organising committee, welcomed the attendance and said he hoped the festival would prove a source of strength to the strength he appealed for the support of a large concourse of mourners, including some of his former pupils, to the funeral of the late John O'Neil.

Very Rev. Fr. P. Quigley, P.P., said the festival was a milestone in the long history of drama in Ballyvaughan.
The festival adjudicator, Mr. Peter Dallas, Cork, also spoke. Following the opening, the Avonmore Drama Group, West Cork, presented "Johnny Healy" in a very sympathetic and appreciative audience.
On tonight (Thursday), Kilmacrossbeg Drama Group, presented "The Plough" which will star John E. Keane's "The Plough".

Tomorrow (Friday) night, Holy Cross (Ballyvaughan) Drama Group, Co. Tipperary will present "Drama At Irish".
On Saturday night the local group will present "Dale Wasserman's" "One Plow Over The Church's Nose". This play has won major awards at both the West Cork and Clare Drama Festivals.
Closing night of the festival, the Paddy Youth Theatre, Cork, will stage "Noah".
Nightly tickets, available at Pat Flynn's, Ballyvaughan, Phone 121.

AGLISH AND CLASHMORE NOTES

Death of Mr. T. Foley, Kilmacrossbeg — It is with deep regret that we record the death of Mr. Timothy Foley, Monaghan, Kilmacrossbeg. A popular and respected citizen, he was a retired postman and a member of the West Waterford Brigade, Old IRA. His death is much regretted and sympathy is extended to his bereaved wife and relatives.
The remains were removed to Filton Church and following the celebration of Requiem Mass for the repose of his soul, the internment, with military honours, took place in the adjoining cemetery in the presence of a large concourse of mourners, including some of his former pupils, to the funeral of the late John O'Neil.

Very Rev. Fr. J. Murphy, P.P., said the festival was a milestone in the long history of drama in Ballyvaughan.
The festival adjudicator, Mr. Peter Dallas, Cork, also spoke. Following the opening, the Avonmore Drama Group, West Cork, presented "Johnny Healy" in a very sympathetic and appreciative audience.
On tonight (Thursday), Kilmacrossbeg Drama Group, presented "The Plough" which will star John E. Keane's "The Plough".

Closing night of the festival, the Paddy Youth Theatre, Cork, will stage "Noah".
Nightly tickets, available at Pat Flynn's, Ballyvaughan, Phone 121.

Mr. John O'Brien

Widespread and deep regret was occasioned at the news of the death of Mr. John O'Brien, Dungarvan, who died on Thursday, March 12th at his residence after a duration of illness, but at a comparatively early age. Deceased was well-known and a most popular member of the community. Prior to his illness he was a most industrious and hard-working man and was engaged in the building trade and for many years was an employee of the local building contractors, John McGrath & Sons. He had a great interest in all forms of sport but most especially with open coursing.
To his sorrowing wife, daughters, sisters, relatives and friends we wish to express our deepest condolences.
His remains were removed on Friday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church, followed by a Requiem Mass, officiated at by Rev. Fr. W. Carey, C.C.

Requiem Mass was offered on Saturday morning for the happy repose of his gentle soul and the internment took place in the adjoining family plot. Arrangements were made by Rev. Fr. W. Carey, C.C., Rev. Fr. M. Cullinan, C.C. and Rev. Fr. J. P. Morrissey, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. J. P. Morrissey, P.P., officiated at the graveside and a large concourse of mourners was present. Very many Mass cards were received.

Mr. John Moroney

Deep feelings of sincere regret were expressed at the announcement of the death of Mr. John (Johnny) Moroney, Coolin, Dungarvan, who died on Thursday night, 12th March at Filton Street Hospital, Dungarvan, after a duration of illness, at a comparatively early age. Deceased was member of a well-known and highly respected family and was a friend of all who had the great pleasure of his acquaintance by reason of his ready and cheerful nature. He was a man with a great will to help others when they were in need and a wonderful husband and a kind and loving father.
He was survived by his wife, three daughters, two sons, sisters, cousins, relatives and friends, to whom our deepest sympathy is tendered.

His remains were removed on Friday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church, followed by a Requiem Mass, officiated at by Rev. Fr. W. Carey, C.C., Rev. Fr. M. Cullinan, C.C. and Rev. Fr. J. P. Morrissey, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. J. P. Morrissey, P.P., officiated at the graveside and a large concourse of mourners was present. Very many Mass cards were received and some beautiful floral tributes were placed on the coffin.

Late Johanna McGrath

Profound and deep regret was expressed at the announcement of the death of Johanna McGrath, Sheskin, Dungarvan, who died on Friday, March 13th.
The deceased was a well-known and most likeable lady, who was a member of a most respected and popular family. She was the possessor of many fine qualities and was a devoted wife and mother. Her death is much regretted and sympathy is extended to her bereaved husband and relatives.
The remains were removed to St. Mary's Parish Church, followed by a Requiem Mass, officiated at by Rev. Fr. W. Carey, C.C., Rev. Fr. M. Cullinan, C.C. and Rev. Fr. J. P. Morrissey, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. J. P. Morrissey, P.P., officiated at the graveside and a large concourse of mourners was present. Very many Mass cards were received and some beautiful floral tributes were placed on the coffin.

Baby Andrew Stearn

Our deepest and most sincere sympathy is extended to David and Ann Stearn, of Newsway, Lismore, in connection with the death of their baby son Andrew, which occurred on Wednesday morning, March 11th, and whose internment took place in St. Mary's Cemetery, Dungarvan, on Thursday afternoon, March 12th.
Very Rev. Canon M. Farrell, P.P., Abbeyside, assisted by Rev. Fr. N. O'Mahoney, C.C., Rev. Fr. J. P. Morrissey, P.P., V.F., Dungarvan, Rev. Fr. W. Carey, C.C., Rev. Fr. M. Cullinan, C.C., Rev. Fr. J. P. Morrissey, P.P., officiated at the graveside and a large concourse of mourners was present. Very many Mass cards were received and some beautiful floral tributes were placed on the coffin.

Council Extends Sympathy

Dungarvan Urban Council at its meeting on Monday night, extended sympathy to Mr. Bertie O'Neill, Abbeyside, and other members of the bereaved family on the death of their brother John, which occurred recently.

MR. PATRICK WRIGHT

It is with regret that we record the passing of Mr. Patrick Wright, Fitzgerald Terrace, Dungarvan, who unexpectedly died on Wednesday, March 11th at his residence. Deceased was a well-known and most popular member of a very old Dungarvan family and prior to his retirement he was an employee of the road maintenance staff of the Waterford County Council for many years and whilst employed there he enjoyed the popularity of both senior officials and from his fellow employees.
Our deepest sympathy is extended to his brother, nephews, nieces, sister-in-law, relatives and friends.
His remains were removed on Thursday evening to St. Mary's Parish Church, followed by a Requiem Mass, officiated at by Rev. Fr. W. Carey, C.C., Rev. Fr. M. Cullinan, C.C. and Rev. Fr. J. P. Morrissey, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. J. P. Morrissey, P.P., officiated at the graveside and a large concourse of mourners was present. Very many Mass cards were received.

Requiem Mass was offered on Saturday morning for the happy repose of his gentle soul and the internment took place in the adjoining family plot. Arrangements were made by Rev. Fr. W. Carey, C.C., Rev. Fr. M. Cullinan, C.C. and Rev. Fr. J. P. Morrissey, P.P., assisted by Rev. Fr. J. P. Morrissey, P.P., officiated at the graveside and a large concourse of mourners was present. Very many Mass cards were received.

BALLYSAGGART NOTES

Pioneer Centre's Annual Concert An Outstanding Success — The local Pioneer Centre staged their annual concert on Friday night, 13th March. As usual this proved to be an outstanding success and the full house of 1,000 people was treated to a great night's entertainment. The talents were drawn mainly from the local centre with a little help from our friends in the neighbouring centres.
Sponsored Walk — The club's annual sponsored walk went ahead on St. Patrick's Day. Due to the fact that Lismore races were also on that day, there were two starts to the walk. The "punters" set off at 11.00 while the "non-runners" got underway at 2.00 and all over 80 walkers took part and money and sponsorship cards should be returned to the Secretary, James Bennett or Treasurer, Jim Kenney as soon as possible.
The club would like to thank all who walked and all those who sponsored walkers.
Soccer Notes: Ballysaggart 3; Dungarvan 2. — Ballysaggart came from the goal down to clinch both points in this bottom of the table clash in Ballysaggart recently. This was the first time in a long while that the "manager" had a full squad to pick from and as a result we were treated to a fine open and exciting game of football with Ballysaggart deserving winners by 3-2.
Our last game in the league is a home game with Tallow. No date has been fixed for this game as yet.
