HOTEL DEVELOPMENT AT NIRE

Further to my comments in last week's column concerning the refusal of the County Planning Authority to grant planning permission for the erection of a hotel, callets, etc., at Knockaun, Ballyma-carbry. I have been informed that the proposaf had not been totally rejected in that it was suggested to the principals that they might proceed with the development on an incremental scale. This would ensure the gradual development of the proposed plan and enable it to be blended in with the surroundings. Perhaps we the surroundings. Perhaps we may hear more about this

ANOTHER AWARD FOR

ANOTHER AWARD FOR GARRANBANE
STUDENTS
Pupils of Garranbane National School, Dungarvan of Which Mr. Tom McHugh, N.T. is Principal; have won a group award in the 1981. "Follow The Fleet" competition organised by Irish Shipping Ltd., the results of which were announced during the week. Projects for the 10 to 13-year-old, pupils who took part in the competition included ship models and a model of an Irish seaport as well as Irish scaport as well as written presentations on various maritime themes.

This is not the first occasion for Garranhane School to figure in the awards list for this competition and we congratulate teacher and pupils alike on this further achievement.

Inture. Many access for the factor of Ramphol. President. Jyden International Group, said that this was a big day for the Group and having traced briefly the history of the company sluce its establishment in Denmark 60 years ago and the negotiations with the IDA which the award as the teacher longest associated with the "Follow The Fleet" scheme having won the first prize in the competition as far back as 1970.

THE KERRY JUBILEE Our choice for the ballac corner this week is the rousing "Kerry Jubilee"—

Way down in the County Kerry In a pince they call Tratee. A fine old couple they lived

A fine old couple they lived there: Called Kate and Pat McGee, They were going to hold a party On their goiden jubilee Now, Kate says she to Pat McGee "Come listen here to me."

Pat Put on your old caubeen. For to-day's our golden wed-ding

And I'll have you all to know Just how we looked when we

And well do I remember
When three I was your bride
In the little chanel yonder
there
Where we sat side by side;
Of good friends we've bad
many,
Of troubles over few,
Come over here old sweetheard,
And hear what you must do

(Repeat chorus)

Chorus:
Put on your old knes
breeches,
And your coat of emerald
green.
Take off your hat, my darling
Put.

Just how we look were wed Flity years ago. Oh, well do I remember How we denced on the village You held me in your arms, dear Pat, dear Pat. And called me your callin; Your hair was like a raven's wing
But now it's turning grey,
Come over here old sweetheart dear,
And hear what I've to say.

alike on this further achievement.
The school was represented at the awards presentation in Dublin last Monday, by pupils Kevin O'Connell and Philip Flynn and by Mr. McHugh who was the recipient of a special presentation in the form of a Maritime Institute of Iraland pennant presented by the President of the Institute to mark the 40th year of that organisation and also of Irish Shipping Ltd.
Mr. McHugh who is a member of the Institute received

Those not in touch must have wondered about the absence of Eddle Curley from the Tallow line-out on Sunday last. Well it would take quite a lot to keep Eddle from playing an appetation of the Company of the Company last well it would take quite a lot to keep Eddle from playing an appetation of the Limore same — he had a couple of paintil injuries which didn't permit him to swing a stick even in the most gentle fashion. He broke mis nose in the Dugourney Paur Tor Limerick to play on Sunday evening, May 3, with Waterford senior hurlers in an Inter-county tournament against Limerick. Eddle played a star game defying the Limerick for wards time after time to such an extent than after time to such an extent than after time to such an extent than after time to such a control to the surface of the county to take the sheen of his brilliance. Joe McKenna's efforts midway in the opening half seemed to have dished him of but Eddle recovered to finish in heroid tashion X-rays on the following day revealed three bekenning all is difficult enough to comprehend, but to play so fantatically well under those paintid circumstances. Says everything for this courageous title battler who doesn't know when to quit.
