complaints about the disaster which the current tourist season is turning out to be. As a matter of fact in the sixty or seventy miles that I covered, I noticed only one indication that it was "high."

sixty or seventy miles that covered, I noticed only one indication that it was "high" season for holidays—a caravan parked in the lay-by at the "Towers" outside Lismore. We are now almost into the middle of July and I remember not so many years ago at this time of year meeting big numbers of cars with British and European registrations in the area but hardly ene was to be seen this year. A will-known shopkeeper in Lismore told me that beyond a few bus-loads of children on day outings they had seen no tourists at all so far this year. The reasons, for this disappearance of the tourist are in part economic and part in part economic and part political, and the disastrous situation is not improved by the dreadful and depressing weather which we have been experiencing.

Miss de Valera explained that only six schemes had been completed in Ireland under the 1993 Coast Protection Act. The
to linancial resources available
were totally inadequate to cope with the considerable demand
for coastal protection schemes.
Schemes that had been completed included areas such as she said that action at Community level was cruelat to help overcome the actio problems around the Irish coasts.

NO PHYSIOTHERAPISTS AVAILABLE TO PROVIDE SERVICE IN DUNGARVAN AND WEST WATERFORD

The whole of West Waterford, step to getting a proper serincluding Dungarran, had been vice, when Deputy Deasy asked without a physiotherapy service in recent months and this recessitated a round trip of sixty miles at least for people Miller replied that they could having to come to arckeen monthly medical properties of the Language of the Lan

Our county intermediate hun-ing championship hopes were dashed for another year at Walsh Park last Saturday even-ing when we were decisively beaten 6-9 to 1-8, by De La Salle. Saile.

This was one of the most disappointing defeats we have suffered for many years but in truth it was on the cards even before the game started when injury ruled out key defenders. Pa Mechan and Jinny Sullivan. As it was however, we more than held out own territorially over the hour, but held concession of many ridiculous soft goals spelled disaster for us.

Strawberry Fair

We are in action in the Western intermediate foot-ball championship against Shammocks at Cappoquin on Saturday evening (7.30) and after the disappointing defeats of recent weeks a victory here would be welcome. There is no good reason either why we shouldn't take the honours in this one and so earn a place in the Western dnal. Players leave the Youghal Road Corner at 6.30.

Deputy Deasy gave notice that he would be raising the issue at each subsequent Board meeting until it was resolved.
