PENSMAN TAKES YOU behind the SPOTLIGHT

FIANNA FAIL COUNCILLORS REJECT SENATE ELECTION

Although the agenda was a light one consisting of less than a dozen items of no major importance it was deemed sufficient to call a special meeting of Waterford County in Dungarvan last Monday. However the occasion was spoiled by the Fianna Fail members of the Council to come together prior to the meeting to consider a directive from Fianna Fail National Headquarters concerning the marking of ballot papers for the Senate election.

The directive instructed the Councillors to attend a meeting on Thursday, August 6 where they were to mark their papers under the supervision of former Minister of State at the Department of the Environment, Mr. Jackie Fahey, T.D.

possible increase in the workforce in the not too distant future.

A GREAT AND TRAGIC LOSS

The death of Mr. Noel Griffin, Managing Director of Waterford Glass Ltd., in a tragic drowning accident at Dunmore East on Thursday evening of last week, caused a profound shock throughout Dungarvan due to the town's close association through one of its major industries, Dungarvan Crystal, with the parent company, Waterford Glass.

In an appreciation published in the "Irish Times," last Saturday an anonymous contributor over the initials "BM" wrote as follows: "Noel Griffin was one of those rare industrialists with a no-nonsense and direct approach. When I first met him 13 years ago I found his experience hard to penetrate but as an eager cub reporter I was determined to find out about that locomotive who made Waterford Glass grow. He later became a close friend and the experience was well worth while.

"Noel was determined to break the firm away from its reliance on one product and broadened its trading base. He expanded the group by acquiring Aynsley China, the well-known British china manufacturers and, keeping the quality image, purchased John Harde, the Irish picture postcard firm which had imprinted its name in international markets. Then he joined hands with the giant London Harrods stores group by purchasing Switzers. And when Con Smith died in the fatal Staines air disaster, Waterford Glass purchased the Smith group which controls the Renault franchise in the Republic.

"Waterford Glass is now one of the few Irish international groups. Only a handful of others—for example, the Jefferson Smurfit Group, Cement-Roadstone and Dorcen—can boast of having left their mark on the international business scene.

"Those who were close to Noel, saw more than his exterior. For he was a most human person, a good friend, with a great concern for the Irishness of business. His record shows that he pursued those human goals with much success.

"To his wife Ita, and all his family my deepest condolence."

We could not hope to add anything to say that his death is a great and tragic loss.

Many of the Council members of Mr. Fahey's own party were openly in opposition and it would now appear that the hard feelings created by these confrontations of Mr. Fahey with the Council still have not been forgotten or forgiven as when they discussed the directive from National Headquarters appointing Mr. Fahey to supervise the marking of the Senate ballot papers they rejected it out of hand and decided that each member would mark his paper in his own way and in his own time.

There can be no doubt but that this decision indicates that Mr. Fahey is still out of favour with his former County Council colleagues. What the reaction of Fianna Fail National Headquarters will be to the decision is another matter.

PLANNING PERMISSION HOLDING UP CAPPOQUIN FACTORY

In again drawing attention to the plight of those left unemployed by the closure last September of the Cappoquin factory, the loss of 150 jobs at the County Council meeting in Dungarvan last Monday, Councillor James A. Walsh said that there was now a great air of despondency in the town as there was no physical evidence of the building of the advanced factory which had been promised by the IDA for the town. In the short, ensuing discussion the IDA came in for a good deal of stick because of the delay and the Council agreed that the County Development Team should take the position up with the IDA as a matter of urgency.

However the matter took a different turn during the week when enquiries which were pursued revealed that the delay was not one which could be laid at the door of the IDA planning permission had not been granted for the factory. If this is so, then the po-ahead for it is a matter for the County Council to deal with themselves as the County Planning Authority.

These enquiries further revealed that all is not bloom for Cappoquin as I learned that the Cyprus Company are present operating there on a 7,000 square metres plant plan an expansion to quadruple their factory space to 28,000 square metres and this indicates very welcome progress by the Company with a association with the area goes back much further. Although born in America he came to Ring as a young boy in 1919 where he remained for a year during which time he attended the old National School in Ring as a pupil before returning to the U.S.

While in Helvick last month John and Helen stayed with Mrs. Mary Condon (nee Bateman), his cousin.

EAMONN A' DHNUIG

Most of us will have heard at one time or other, in the original, the beautiful Irish song with the haunting melody "Samoun A' Chnuig." The song is a famous outlaw Edmund Ryan who flourished in the early eighteenth century and he is reputed to have been the author of some of the most famous of all Irish songs himself.

For the benefit of non-Gaelic-speakers give hereunder as our choice for the ballad corner this week, the fine translation of it made by Thomas McDonagh, a signatory of the 1916 Proclamation and one of the leaders who was executed subsequent to the rising, who was also himself a Tipperaryman.

Who is that out there still
 With voice shrill and shrill
 Beating my deer and calling?
 I am Ned of the Hills
 I am weary and chill
 The mountains and glens long walking.

Oh, my dear love do true
 What could I do for you
 But under my mantle draw
 For the bullets like hail
 Fall thick on your trail
 And together we both may be slayers.

Long, lonely I go
 Under frost, under snow
 Humped through hill and through hollow.
 No comfort I know
 No furrow I sow
 My team stands unyoked in the fallow.

No friend will give car
 Or harbour me here,
 'Tis that makes the weight of so my journey must be in the east or the sea
 Where no danger will find me or follow.

There's An Air Of Despondency In Cappoquin Says Co. Councillor

At a special meeting of Waterford County Council held in Dungarvan last Monday, Cllr. James A. Walsh said that since the closing of the Bacon Factory in Cappoquin they had been troubled by the IDA that a new advanced factory would be built there. "Time is moving on," said Cllr. Walsh, "and the people of Cappoquin can no longer live on promises and we would like to see physical evidence of the building and an industry to occupy it."

Cllr. Walsh went on to say that a delegation from the Cappoquin Development Committee had been told last year by the IDA that by this time this year every man and woman who had become unemployed due to the closure would be back at work. "But," he added, "that has not happened."

Cllr. Walsh then asked the Council and the members of the County Development Committee to press the IDA to see that something was done without further delay. "Because things were as they are, there was an air of despondency in Cappoquin," he said.

Cllr. Jimmy Quirk supported the call made by Cllr. Walsh and said that it was an urgent necessity that something be done for Cappoquin.

Cllr. Paddy Kenneally, Chairman said that he was aware that the IDA had advanced their negotiations in regard to Cappoquin a good deal but he was not in a position to divulge anything about them as they were, at present, of a confidential nature.

The Council agreed to support the call made by Cllr. Walsh and to get in touch with the IDA about the position.

Abbeyside Pattern Commences On Sunday

Abbeyside Pattern 1981 commences on Sunday next, August 2nd, and will conclude all the following Sunday, John Fitzgerald and his committee have everything in readiness for a week of fun and games in the Village. The only thing left to change at this stage is the weather. The year has seen more extensive programme than recent years is planned. All the old favourites have been retained, while a number of new events have been included to add even more variety to the proceedings.

As usual, there will be activities on Sunday every evening, with stilt-walks, barman and barmaid races, slow bicycle races, and a number of other events. The highlight of the opening day will be the sports and activities at the Abbeyside G.A.A. field. Eddie Moore has planned a wide ranging programme of events for children and adults.

On Monday at Stokes Field we have the Patrons Supper and event. Joe Duggan will be trying to defend the title which he won last year against a very strong field. An added incentive for this year's winner is that the regional final of the Milk Superslams will be held in St. Augustine's College on August 23rd. In conjunction with the men's event at the Pattern, there will also be a Ladies Superslams event. A strong entry has been received for this also, so the women will have a very enjoyable evening. Starting time on Monday is 2.30 p.m.

Tuesday night is the night for the walking treasure hunt, and Wednesday night sees another new event on the programme. This is the Abbeyside Half-Marathon, run over a 13.1 mile course starting from the Post Office, and all finishers will receive an official certificate marking their achievement.

This is an opportunity for all those people training for the RTE Marathon to test their stamina. Also on Wednesday night the Abbeyside Band will receive again host Emigrant Night at Minerva.

Friday night sees another new event. This is the "Brain of the Pattern"—an individual quiz competition. The venue is the village lounge in Minerva and already a good entry has been received. The format planned promises a very exciting and enjoyable evening. Admission is of course free.

The Pattern night is held at the Pond, and Saturday afternoon is our treasure hunt time. Despite the budget, Paddy Power will be back to get his name on the trophy, and Fran Walsh will be hoping to finish higher than his usual third place.

Sunday, as usual will be fancy dress day, followed by all the fun and games at the Pond and the village in Minerva. A special feature of the Pattern and this year, pillow fights over the water.

The Pattern is one of the few remaining non-commercial traditional festivals, run solely to give fun and entertainment to the people of the parish. The only entry fees charged are nominal ones, and these only apply where they are necessary to defray expenses.

As you can see, a full and varied programme is planned, for the fun and games for everybody, young and old, to come out and take part, and most of all, enjoy themselves.

AGLISH AND CLASHMORE NOTES

Popular Priest On Holiday—Fr. James Foley, a Columban Father, who is ministering in the diocese of Seattle, U.S.A. is at present enjoying a holiday in his native Clashmore. He spent about 40 years on missionary work in Burma and during World War II was interned by the Japanese, until released by the advancing U.S. army.

In his youth he was a leading all-round athlete and footballer. We join in wishing him a most enjoyable vacation among his family and friends.

The Fishing Extension—The recent decision to extend the duration of the salmon fishing season by one week in this area received a "limited" welcome. Fishermen claim that an extension of a month was needed.

Armore "Pattern"—Friday last, July 24th, was Feast Day of St. Declan, Patron of Armore and on that date the annual "Pattern" in honour of the memory commenced, and will continue to this Sunday.

Sunday last was "Pattern Sunday," and during the afternoon devotees of Declan were to be seen performing the "Rounds" amid the ruins of the old Cathedral, which is situated on high ground and overlooking the sea to the S.E. of the historic and picturesque village and praying at the Holy Well nearby.

Solemn ceremonies were held in the local parish church in the presence of a large congregation.

Another Accident—Yet another motor accident has occurred at the stone bridge at Rilly-

A Hardy Race Of Men, Trained To Sports,

The G.A.A. Their Joy, Unpolished Yet

By Courts

It is a sad sign when the wind is going this way and the clouds are grey, the day turned out to be warm, and the farmers were busy sowing the hay during the headlands, dilly with blisters, the seeds of which the wind would waft every road. I was going in the boat of the forenoon in the strand which skirts the railway tracks to Ballinacorney. It is a beach which only leads a poor few, to make a few. Two strangers landed on a little boat. They began to pace the beach, and I saw the restless waves. "Would you like a spin out to Helvieck?" Peter White said. I only wanted the wind of the word. I took my seat in the boat. The White & Eddie group were in the shop, afterwards owned by Willie Mullar, were distant relatives of one of the strangers. Shaun White, an Irish boy, slid over the slicken water. We chatted about the town. Shaun was a school teacher, and the lovely earth was full of the low sweet music of the sea.

The Biddy family, I think, came from the town. One of them, a jurist barrister, became Judge of the Supreme Court. T. C. Williams, Solicitor, gave him his first brief.

Judge Sealy was popular. A great rugby player in his day. He was the one who was out by The Old Hospital, and back by The Gadie Field. Johnnie Curran was a noted member of the Council. Other members were Paddy Whelan, M. J. Casey, Tom Foley, James Brogan, Bob Knowles, Michael J. Keane, Paddy Vesia, known as The "Lord of Pair Lane," always bested the post.

Johnnie Curran had a sister in Old Parish, who fell out with her neighbours over something or other. The case came before Sealy. When a solicitor asked how she recognised the furniture of the shop stealing her, she replied: "He had a foot than wouldn't miss a beetle in an acre." Wisdom flowed out of his lips. "The whole hen never lays out!" "I'm too old a cat to be fooled by a kitten!" and so on. One day Sealy asked his wife, a daughter of Douglas Hyde, to enter Miss Curran at Lawlor's Hotel.

We stopped while I took over the car. I pointed out the spot where the S. S. Dorey was wrecked in 1881. Dorey's Brig was lost. The Coughlans were scavengers from Cork. They tied the sunken wreck to their ropes and had her towed to a quay yard in Cork.

"Do you know Bob Knowles?" Shaun White asked. "The incident repeating itself in his mind. I said I did. We used to call him 'The'.

His mother used to send him around poking out bargains. They copied the residence attached to the P. O. house, of which Bob's father was principal.

Michael Cusack a Clare schoolmaster, in 1884 called the meeting in Hayes Hotel, Thurles, which founded the G.A.A. There were 150 members. The historic meeting, among them Maurice Davin, an outstanding athlete from Carrick-on-Suir. Brendan Bracy, Tom Fenian, who became Clonmel's first-hardest man. Broken came from Tipperary. He had relatives in Dungarvan. Later, Harold Sheehan Thomas Croke, Michael Keane and Charles Burt Patrick became heroes.

Michael Cusack contacted applicants to the Civil Service. Knowles, our Protestant schoolmaster, sent his son Henry to Dublin to Cusack's Academy. He show you how high Cusack's reputation stood when taking Henry to the examination centre, he gave him a wee drop of wine, as Henry appeared nervous. He must have soaked well, because he became secretary to the Postmaster-General. The football was a cow's bladder and later covered with men and games of THE PAST.

I often thought what a fine rugby player Jimmie Bawn Whelan would make today. Big, boney, strong, he could toss his opponents about like flies. He came from the Ballynahinch. I remember one game he played against Dungarvan. He made a kipper of our best man, knocking him senseless in the first five minutes.

The carman was a curved stick as it is today, the horse in which was made by bolting in a iron boiler. My brother John O'Neill, a sweet harrier, once got Chesey Bine to see a turkey. "It would be a good stick on a day day in the forward line. I would use it in playing in the backs."

At one time the Cappah woods supplied half Ireland with hurlies. The woods had a lot of old ash. A lorry used to come every two weeks for a load. Hurlies were once a half-crown. "Fisher" Whelan was a great hand to make a hurley. He was also a great footballer, but he gave up the game early for his first love—the Colligan river.

I remember the year 1929. Eight special trains arrived here for the Munster final. They had

NEWS FROM CAPPOQUIN

Cappoquin/Affane C.A.A. Notes
Sonior Football League
Affane 2-7, Ballinacorney 1-12.
Affane senior footballers were under by two points to near neighbours Ballinacorney. In their senior football league clash on Tuesday night last.

It was a match where both sides had their moments with football quite good in patches. Affane had one great spell but lost the initiative and left Ballinacorney back into the game to snatch victory in the dying stages. It was a see-saw struggle all through with the scoring quite good and though they were beaten it was a great work-out for their championship game against Dunhill.

Scorers—M. Hackett (1-1), M. Phelan (1-0), P. Curran (0-3), McLaughlin (0-2), T. Scannell and D. Murray (0-1 each).
Team—D. Flynn, P. McCarthy, L. Denn, J. Crotty, B. Murray, P. Murray, M. Hackett, D. Murray, P. Curran, T. Scannell, M. Phelan, J. Mason, Subs—K. McCarthy, K. O'Connor, J. J. Landers.

Affane Defeat Championship Favourites—Affane 1-7, Dunhill 1-0.
Affane senior footballers knocked out championship favourites Dunhill in a dramatic fashion from this year's county championship. Affane took this from the scrum of the neck from the outset and proceeded to play fast, direct, skilful football, never allowing their opponents any leeway. Affane led by 1-4 to 0-1 at half-time and in truth should have had a bigger tally as they missed some golden scoring chances.

Affane attacked on the resumption of play but Pat Curran struck the upright. Dunhill took up the running for a period and whittled away that lead. It was a valiant struggle for the score at 1-6 each and both sides getting great scoring opportunities but Dunhill's chances of taking the lead in these vital remaining minutes. Play was swinging from end to end with great rapidity but it was Affane who swept into attack with sublimity. O'Connor using his speed to win a terrific race for possession. He then made a bee-line for goal, drew out the backs and hand-passed to Gossie Mason who blasted the ball over the bar. This proved to be the winner as seconds later the sound of referee Tony Mansfield's whistle brought sighs of relief to Affane players, Angela Burke, Pauline Barry 1st and 2nd, Jacinta Unkuck 2nd, Pat Vesia 2nd.

This was a very workmanlike performance from Affane who refused to give in, and in the process displayed some lovely interposing movements. The team really rose to the occasion as very few gave Affane a chance in this game.

In goal Danny Flynn had his best game ever for Affane. In front of him was a rock solid full-back line with Lar Denn the outstanding figure in the entire defence. The half-back line stuck to their task and contained a very speedy Dunhill attack. Centre-field was excellent with Mick Hackett really outstanding, his high fielding was a joy to watch. In Dermot Murray he had a great partner who worked like a Trojan. In attack Pat Curran showed his undoubted class — he was involved in every Affane movement and was really the ideal link man.

Brian Hennessy was also prominent and of course match winner Gossie Mason took his score with the coolness of a veteran and Michael Phelan interchanging with Mick Hackett paid dividends as they both benefited from each switch.

Scorers—M. Phelan (0-3), Hackett (0-2), D. Murray, B. Hennessy, T. Scannell, P. Curran, L. Denn, J. Crotty, S. Denn, P. Egan, B. Murray, M. Hackett, D. Murray, B. McLaughlin, B. Hennessy, T. Scannell, M. Phelan, J. Mason, Subs—K. McCarthy, K. O'Connor, J. J. Landers.

One feature of Gaelic football, not too prevalent now-a-days was used to good effect by Affane — that was the block-down. Lar Denn in particular blocked down his opponents on numerous occasions. His brother Shaun and Pat Egan also performed in this skill to Affane's advantage.

A great night for Affane and a well deserved victory.

The Double is On!—Dare we say it—the double is on! Cappoquin/Affane are now the only club left with a chance of winning that elusive double, it was massive hurdle to climb but the determined play of our players at present inspires complete confidence in both our teams. It is one game at a time and in their mood they can do all the way.

Under 16 Hurling—Our under 16 hurlers are in action this evening in an entry to start defender Shane Prater will make it more difficult for the locals to achieve victory here.

Cappoquin N.A.G.A. Club
Results from Gosteenbridge: Larch 2nd, Slobhain Casey 2 firsts and 2nd; Liam Costin 1st; Delirde Burke 1st and 2nd; Niala Barry 3 firsts; Angela Burke, Pauline Barry 1st and 2nd; Jacinta Unkuck 2nd; Pat Vesia 2nd.

SHAMROCKS GAA NOTES

I.H. WESTERN CHAMPIONSHIP

On last Saturday evening we had a nine point win over Dungarvan in the semi-final at Cappoquin and now meet Tourin or Fourmilwater in the final. This was a game which was spoiled by the slippery conditions of the pitch caused by a heavy drizzle on top of the hard ground, and it made it difficult for players to keep on their feet. The final score was Shamrocks 4-8, Dungarvan 1-8. Our scores came from: Joe O'Neill 1-2, Joe Ahern 1-2, Liam Ahern 1-1, Sean Harnedy 1-0 and Oliver Ahern 0-2.

MINOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Played at Tallow on Friday evening last against Lismore, we had to field without a number of our key players, but still gave a very good display against strong opposition, and were unlikely not to be closer at the end. Score: Lismore 1-9, Shamrocks 1-8.

JUNIOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

On Sunday next we meet Ardmore in the losers group 2nd round at Cappoquin. This game commences at 2 p.m. and all players are requested to be at Walsh's Hotel at 1.30.

CLUB MEETING

A general meeting of the club will take place at Murphy's Lounge, Knockmore, on Tuesday night at 9 p.m.—P.T.O.

ROWING

DUNGARVAN SCULLERS HELP IRELAND WIN QUADRANGULAR

Ireland won the international match with England, Scotland and Wales for the first time since 1968. Trinity College, Dublin represented Ireland in the eight, Neptune Rowing Club, Dublin in the four, Lady Victoria Boat Club, Belfast in the pair and Dungarvan Rowing Club represented Ireland in the double sculls and the single sculls. It was a fitting climax to a spectacularly successful year for 19 year old Gerard Wyley.

Gerard had stroked a successful schools four for the past three years. When the crew broke up this year he turned his attentions to sculling. Coached by Irish lightweight international sculler, Tony Corcoran, Gerard's real potential became apparent culminating in winning the Irish elite double sculls championship with coach Corcoran. This success won for them the nomination to represent Ireland in the quadrangular.

Dungarvan Rowing Club finished up the Regatta season in a blaze of glory winning thirty-three trophies in eight days. On 11th July the club won eight races in Limerick, on the 19th July 9th trophies were won in Dungarvan. The following Friday and Saturday 17th-18th July, eight wins including two Irish championships were recorded at Cork and seven wins including the Overall Trophy for best club was recorded at Fermoy on Sunday, 15th July.

Threat That If He Told He Would Be Burned Out

Referring to walks through Dromana Wood which attracted many visitors and tourists, Cllr. Jerry O'Brien stated at a special meeting of Waterford Co. Council in Dungarvan last Monday that because of indiscriminate dumping there were some disgusting scenes and "unpleasant smells" along some of these walks because of the dumping of unsightly dead carcasses. He asked whether the Council could take any action to deter these actions or introduce some scheme by which these dead carcasses could be disposed of.

Mr. J. D. Bally, Co. Engineer, who raised a similar complaint in regard to the dumping of dead animals at collection points for the Council's refuse collection throughout the county said that he would prefer if they could catch the people responsible for this type of dumping and have them prosecuted. Pointing out that in order to succeed with such a prosecution it would be necessary to have evidence that would stand up in court, Mr. Bally said that he had been told that morning that there was a person who knew some of the people who had done this dumping by name but he was afraid to come forward. That, said Mr. Bally, "is a desperate situation but I think the words used were that if he told he would be burned out."

Mr. Bally agreed that this dumping had now reached very serious proportions and he suggested that some kind of scheme where such dead animals might be handed in might solve the problem. Deputy W. Kennedy said that those who carried out this kind of dumping were so irresponsible that they would even take the dead animals to such depths.

Mr. Bally suggested that Cllr. O'Brien might take up his suggestion of organising a scheme by which such carcasses be collected and taken to the factory with the appropriate sub-committee of the I.F.A. Stating that dead animals and dogs were the principal animals dumped he remarked: "It's a growing problem."

It was agreed to place the matter again on the agenda for the next meeting.

TALLOW & ROUNDABOUT NOTES

Scout Notes - The troop are just back from summer camp which was spent in the picturesque Glen of Aherlow in Co. Tipperary.

Everyone assembled in the den at 10 a.m. on Friday, July 17th and after some last minute repairs departed on bikes at 11 a.m. with the exception of the advance party who were to follow in the afternoon by car and truck with tents and equipment.

After stopping in Cahir for a meal and guided tour of Cahir Castle they reached camp about 7.30 p.m. The advance party had already arrived and begun erecting tents and everyone then pitched in to have tea before retiring for the night at 10.30 p.m.

Day began with breakfast at 10 a.m. and following that everyone proceeded to get the camp in order with the erection of toilets, clothes lines, wash basins, flag poles, etc. After dinner at 1.30 p.m. there was a nature trail to explore before returning to camp for tea and retire for the night.

Day 2 began with breakfast at 10 a.m. flag poles and inspection at 10.30 a.m. followed by 11 a.m. Mass in the nearby village of Lisvenagh.

After dinner everyone took off for Rappery town for a welcome dip in the swimming pool, returning then to camp at 8.30 p.m. to have tea, this was followed by games before retiring for the night.

Day 4 saw breakfast and flag parade completed by 10.30 a.m. The patrols then split up in half with the first lot cycling to Cahir over 20 miles distant and the 2nd lot going by car. The patrol to be swapped over for the return journey. A fine dinner in Cahir was eaten to tour the famous Rock where we marvelled at signs like the Irish Romanesque architecture so beautifully exemplified in Cormac's Chapel and all those other structures.

On those days when Cahil was the seat of the monster. Back in camp that evening we were joined by a troop of scouts from Heiland and after tea we engaged them in a game of international soccer which we lost 7-5. Nevertheless it was all good fun.

The game was refereed by a Dutch Scout Master by the name of de Wit. He is also the International Commissioner in Holland.

On day 5 half of the patrol again cycled to Mibelskown to visit the caves. The other half prepared lunch and then proceeded to link up with those cycling at the site of the caves, where we had a picnic lunch of tea and sandwiches. After a guided tour of the caves we again switched patrols with one half going back to camp by car to prepare the evening meal. We found the caves very interesting with their amazing example of stalactites and stalagmites formed over thousands of years.

Day 6 was spent mostly in camp doing ring work such as making flags, camp tables, washstands, etc. using most of the timber from the nearby wood. In the afternoon everyone went to Tipperary town by car and bicycle for a well earned dip in the swimming pool. Most of the lads can now swim very well following the excellent instruction they received during the early part of the year. After tea and the usual games everyone went to bed about 11 p.m.

To be continued next week.
 O'Mahony, P.R.O.

St. Catherine's GAA Notes - St. Catherine's Junior hurling team defeated Aghada in one of the most outstanding and thrilling games of hurling ever seen in the second round of the Senior Cork championship played at Castlemartyr sports field on Sunday evening last.

This close contest held the interest of the crowd up to the final whistle. Turning over with a medal after the break St. Catherine's were quickly on the offensive and were rewarded with a well-taken goal. Points were exchanged after that by both sides and entering the last quarter it was anybody's game. The exchanges were hard and pretty robust at times but overall it was always played in a fine sporting spirit which was a credit to both sides.

NEWS FROM LISMORE

Festival Starts This Week-end - This week-end Lismore's Annual Festival commences and let us hope the weather remains reasonably fine for its duration. The committee have for the past few months been busy in drawing up a three-class programme to suit all ages and tastes and let us hope all will have a most enjoyable time.

The Castle Gardens will be open on Sunday afternoon while novelty events such as the 'Bullyrafter Inch' Dog Show at 7.00 p.m. there will be a Festival Queen dance with the Maher family supplying the music. Saturday night is set for a dancing competition night, mixed senior and junior with music by Welsh Trio.

Lismore G.A.A. Notes - On Thursday last, our senior hurlers travelled to Aragon to play Ballyduff in a tournament in conjunction with the festival. After our disappointing defeat the previous Saturday we were eager to salvage some pride but after a most entertaining game we were beaten by a goal.

We faced a stiffish breeze in the first half and after 15 minutes we were level but then for the third time. Play swung from end to end with both sides missing scoring chances and after a very evenly matched first half we trailed by one point, 0-6 to 0-5 with the wind advantage in the second half.

However, a cruel blow struck us at the start of the second half when Ballyduff were awarded a penalty which was converted, and after 20 minutes of the half gone the score stood Ballyduff 1-3, Lismore 0-7. Some good goalkeeping by the Ballyduff goalkeeper had kept us level until the 30th minute when we got a 20m. free and B. Cunningham stepped up and hit the ball into the net. This gave us hope to leave the score at 1-11 to 1-8 and only a save by Ballyduff's keeper from a post-shot by Tom Shanahan kept the score the same going into extra time.

Final scoreline: Ballyduff 1-3, Lismore 0-7.

Scorers: E. Cunningham 1-0, B. Landers 0-3, B. Ormonde 0-2, N. Daly, Denis Donnell, Tom Shanahan 0-1 each.

Team: D. Buckley, J. J. Duggan, P. Quinn, P. Kiernan, L. Buckley, E. O'Connell, C. Barry, E. Carrigan, D. Landers, J. Cashman, N. Daly, Tom Shanahan (capt.), B. Landers, E. Cunningham, Denis Donnell, Dave Landers, Subs. - Edward Farrell, Dave Landers (half-time), L. Shanahan, Donal Cunningham.

On last Wednesday night a hurling match was played at Ballyduff to play Dungarvan in the championship and duly won against a very weak Dungarvan side 0-10 to 0-3. This is a very young side and with a bit of training could well go a long way. A highlight of this game was the ability of full forward Jimmy Geoghegan who scored 4-2.

Scorers: J. Geoghegan 4-2, Eric Sullivan 1-2, R. Ormonde, D. Cunningham and P. Lincen 0-1 each.

Team - M. McNamara, B. O'Leary, M. Connell, J. Cahill, Jimmy Flynn, P. Lincen, John P. Swenney, C. Barry, P. Sullivan, P. Donoghue, J. Lenehan, D. Cunningham, J. Geoghegan, E. O'Connell, John Flynn for B. O'Leary, K. Ryan and H. Whelan (not used).

On Sunday last, it was the turn of the junior footballers to take on the senior side of Slabh gCua in Cappoquin.

We played with the strongest wind in the first half, and so had to attack from the word go. That we did, after one minute Denis Donnell pointed, 9 minutes later, Dave Landers goal, 3 minutes later Dave Landers pointed. Score stood after 15 minutes Lismore 1-2, Slabh gCua 0-0. But then we cut back and let the opposition into the game, and that they did, and by the 22nd minute had racked in 3-3 to our 1-2. However, two points from N. Twomey and a point from the opposition left the score a half-time - Slabh gCua 3-4, Lismore 1-2.

The second half turned out to be a "no-contest" as Slabh gCua, the wind in their backs ran out convincing winners in the end.

Team - K. Ryan, T. O'Donoghue, P. Quinn, J. J. Duggan, W. Donnell, B. Ormonde, P. Ahearne, P. Shanahan, Donal Landers, B. Landers, N. Daly, B. Cunningham, Dave Landers, Denis O'Donnell, Niall Twomey.

Subs - J. Cashman for W. O'Connell, E. Geoghegan for P. Quinn, B. O'Leary for J. Cashman.

On Sunday next, in Cappoquin the junior footballers are in action again when they take on Geraldine in the league semi-final. Naturally enough we will be looking for an all-round improvement from the team - K. Ryan, P.R.O.

A HAZARDOUS

It seems to complex junctions to motorists and will occur again unless traffic is there. It was Judge Sheridan who was adjudged action for the day in the Circuit week in which brought claim against the Council for its failure to bring about the junction. Judge Sheridan described the junction as a puzzle almost impossible to see while he knew the way to solve the junction. The junction is a mess of things about this was a major authority and happened in the Council made these things was only 24 in County. English had told me for the erect lights to control the junction. These were put in on September 1. When I saw the Engineer and for traffic at the Corner at the formed area planned to light the junction. This work will out during the night. I am sure people negotiate it or speed with a generous regard their daily work.

THE DUNGARVAN

On the 13th Hally also reorganising being designed to through the cause of practically streets. Work on the junction will be completed by the bridge across the river. Colligan road to Abbeyside, link in the department will be deciding in the manner in the grant. The bridge cost £2.75 for its installation. Consulting Walsh, G.P. proved at meeting of and forward for the bridge. The bridge will be without any absence of through the town show and if this cannot be through it traffic in the create a
