Over 13 million is owed to the country's eight Health Loards by thousands of far-mers in unpaid health contri-butions and, according to an article in the "Medical Times," a move is being made, to shift the Bourdon of collec-ton from the health, boards the Severuse Commisto the Revenue Commis-

Estimoto.

Earlier in the year Mr. Peter McQuitlan, C.E.O., said that it was intended to start legal proceedings in the cases longest a outstanding "where liability, is straightforward and clear and to use the civil bill procedure."

The problem is likely to get worse as the own reversingent.

owed an estimated £284,000 and is also believed to be considering legal action.

While still not represented in the Association of Health Boards, the Southern Health Boards, the Southern Health Board is girkley to look favourably organy move to shift the burden of collection as it is owed over £800,000 by farmers.

No legal action has been taken by either the Southern Health Board or by the Mirk.

Action Mr. C. Mansfield, Secretary Mr. C. Mansfield, Secretary of the Association of Health Boards said that the agendator the Annual General Meeting due to be held in October will be decided at a meeting of the executive council to take place of tew weeks prior to the AGM itself. It is not yet known whether he new Minister for Health, Mrs. Eilden Desmond will attend the meeting as did her predecessor in office. Dr. Michael Woods, last year.

WHAT THE PLANS ARE

WHAT THE PLANS ARE

A couple of weeks ago I referred to recent dand purchases made by the Urban Council on Dungarwan and only ward to go back on the point in relation to the 28 ares involved at Gallowshill Kidishi and the order made by Conney Manager, Dan Hurky attenting Messrs, Boyd Parrett Murphy O'Conner, Architects, Cork to prepare a feasibility report as to the best taw which can be made of the land.

Although not aware of it.

best can which can be made of the land.

Alliacidh not aware of all of that since I have since been lold that since I have since been lold that on his brief to the architects, the Manager set early the amerities for the land as fee to did authority houses in a subject of stages; the devitor court of a Co-operative is a subject of stages; the devitor court of a Co-operative is subject of a suitable site within the urban for a new aveyard has been an insoluble stoplem up to now, it has been one which has been an insoluble stoplem up to now to have a summer of a number of a new provider of the council for many years as one after another a number of negotiations aimed at providing a new cemetery site fell through. If the architects now find that the Manager's suggestion is a feasible one and that it can be worked in to part of the 28-acre Gallowshill site, I feel sure that it will be generally welcomed by everyone including the clergy of the Parish and the people of the town as a whole.

Over Street Traders

If street traders are going to continue to enjoy "free access" to the main trading area of Dungarvan the Urben Council may well be faced with a rates beyout by the town's business community.

boycott by the town's business community.

That was the warning issued dast week by Flunn Fail councillor Mrs. Angela Creedon who cloid a meeting of the Urboan Council that the patience of the local rate-paying business people was fast running out as far as this "embittered issue" Is one creedon said that hast week the screet traders began erecting their stable at 2 o'clock in the morning and they then traded virtually from sent-up to sandown. Then to add insult to injury as far as the local graders well as the council of the town the Council coura wenthave a rates hopcott on its hards.
