Dungarvan-Danish Student Exchange*PLACES FOR WATERFORD DIOCESE AT CARDIFF PAPAL YOUTH CEREMONY

Last week was a restful one for the ladies and I am sure this was very well deserved. We are very lucky in that we have some very good friends who are always ready to give a helping hand. We look forward to seeing them again on this anniversary night.

Hayes, the Bike, when our Progressive 45 will once again take place.

COMMITTEE MEETING

Last Tuesday night our committee met in Lawton's Hotel. Apologies were received for non-attendance from Canon Hayes and Eileen Power. Everyone seemed quite happy after our Treasurer Mrs. Costin gave her report on our finances. To everyone's relief we seemed to be on the way to reaching our target of £16,000.

First on the agenda was our forthcoming set dancing competition. I am sure this competition will prove to be very competitive and enjoyable as we have some very well-known names in set dancing circles competing about us. Again, we are very fortunate to have very good sponsorship for this competition.

KIDNEY ASSOCIATION

On Saturday night next, 17th April, all funds raised will go to the Kidney Fund. Please come along and support the Association.

NIOR CHAMBER

ANTIQUITIES Committee have joined anti-social committee with other organisations to pursue the idea of opening a town museum. This committee, headed by Mrs. Joan Ball, of the Society, hope to have this well worth while project underway in time for the summer tourists. Anybody who has any information which would be of historical interest for the museum should contact any of the members or Mrs. Ball, who are only too delighted to receive such information.

At the invitation of Gorer G. Several of our members are taking off to Courtown for a weekend at the end of April.

The entertainment committee have also arranged us on two dates in May. Hollywood will be in Courtown on April 29th and Dungarvan on April 30th. Details to follow.

VISITORS

Never mind, there is more to do than just golfing. We were honoured by the presence of Senator J.C. Mr. Michael Morris and Mr. Vincent Morris, both gentlemen sat through the evening and then spoke to us about the years they had enjoyed with the old Dungarvan. Our sincere thanks to all of you for coming along.

TRAINING COURSE

A Training Course on "How To Run A Project" will be given on Monday night by Eleanor O'Farrell, Regional Director of the South-West Region Chamber. This course is a very interesting and informative course and it is hoped that all members will attend.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Editor,
ABBEYSIDE PATTERN

I wish to thank each and every one who contributed to the collection on Easter Sunday.

It was pleasing also to hear of your express regret at the amount of work which was done. How efforts are being made to form a committee to run a pattern in Minors on Friday 16th April next year. It would be a great pity if an important event such as Abbeyside Pattern was allowed to go.

I know the public of Abbeyside have the answer and the suggestion to form a committee to run a pattern at least in 1982. If it is not possible for you to attend the meeting on Friday 16th April, please let stop you from attending and call from me. You feel that you have nothing to offer.

Yours sincerely,
JOHN FITZGERALD.
Editor,
Abbeyside Pattern

Scout Notes

Mr. Waterford (St. Joseph's)

GENERAL

This Friday 16th we travel to Cork to attend the Cork Cup Regatta on the River Lee on Saturday 17th April, commencing at 12 noon. As you can see from the draw, there is a great fleet of rowers, mostly from Munster, with Cork and University College paying us a visit.

Dungarvan has held the Munster Males Memorial Regatta since 1979 and from the club's very strong showing in Limerick Head of River recently, hopes are high that the cup will return to us again.

We hope to make a short visit to Cork on Saturday.

We trust that our lead will be away last weekend but are awaiting news of how coming week goes.

JIMMY

Homesickness. Never mind, there is more to do than just golfing.

Leading the Dungarvan crew will be Geraldine Murphy, Geraldine Wyke and Caroline Crowley. Gerard will be competing in the senior C and elite sculls, while he will meet his first love, the crew he has been training in since he left Cork City.

We start working about his homesickness. The senior lead has seen a lot of action this weekend and will sort it out but we are not going to let it get us lost.

The instant of motherhood comes calling up, and a plaintive little postcard which arrives on the 18th brings all your maternal instincts to your rescue. You've got to send a big parcel of sweets, cakes, chocolates, biscuits and a five pound note plus a tearful letter urging the poor little offspring to be good and patient and we will soon be home to come home.

Meanwhile the S.I. greets the arrival of the bravely hidden babies and we all hope that we will once again be contented with the giftability of overindulgent mothers!

Such however is human nature that in particular Mother love that we do not doubt lie near the words of wisdom after all. I could not possibly be talking about your little scrub cub! So this glorious opportunity for mother and father to spend a few days on the beach is a welcome break away with worry and concern until at last Jimmy returns home.

Far from being beaten and disengaged, he is in rude good health and is growing like a weed. He has had two sets of clothes, a knife and fork and a soap dish, but has found a pack of cards with only three cards missing and a broken table lamp. It will take you no time to wash his clothes and it will be at least as long before the strong aroma of grass, fumigants, smoke and diesel say. It's a cigarette smoke disappears. But what about the movements?

SWING PRACTICE

"Look dad, I've passed my E.C.T." and as I look on, I wonder on mother wonders how to sew it to the shirt pocket of a shirt that does not have any pockets left on it. Who on earth raises the next problem?

Well, mother, if you had any ideas of joining new-work classes at the local technical school, forget it. You are going to get at the sewing practicals need sewing on badges every week.

After the first week there will be all the new badges gained on the first day, and the second week, a knife and fork and a soap dish, but has found a pack of cards with only three cards missing and a broken table lamp. It will take you no time to wash his clothes and it will be at least as long before the strong aroma of grass, fumigants, smoke and diesel say. It's a cigarette smoke disappears. ## Kilkenny Prove Too Good In Replay

KILKENNY 3-14; WATERFORD 4-6

Kilkenny proved the superior team and Kilkenny's score brought them out of danger.

In COMMAND

Some great points put them back in command going into the final quarter. Waterford had a series of goals from the set pieces, but Kilkenny held their noses alive and they came close to turning the tide eleven minutes from time when Greene scored what proved to be the best goal of the game.

Mossie Walsh lofted the ball into the Kilkenny goal area.

Substitute Michael Walsh controlled the ball and Kilkenny's defence were unable to stop him.

As events turned out on Sunday last the sides had finished level in a pulsating semi-final clash.

THE MESSIAH — THE MIRACLE ORATORIO

(No Easter passes without the performance somewhere of Handel's great and holy masterpiece.)

Coming up to Holy Week choirs and orchestras start their round final rehearsals of Handel's best-known composition, the Messiah. Its glorification of God Father is a traditional part of the Easter celebrations.

Tell us again to night in 1741, when a young old man dressed in a tattered coat, shod in dusty London street, George Frederick Handel was on one of his dependent wanderings which were now part of his musical history.

For forty years Handel had composed state music for the aristocracy of England and had written operas, too. He often claimed that he was the greatest British composer — it was certainly during his residence in Britain that he achieved his greatest fame. Royalty showered him with honours. Then suddenly the court society turned against him and he was reduced to penury.

Some years before his death, Handel lived the proceeds going to the Foundling Hospital in London. In his will he left his royalties from the work to the same hospital.

On the evening of April 17, 1741, Handel was now 73 and blind was present at a performance of the Messiah. At the beginning of the "Hallelujah Chorus" he fell down, was quickly rushed to his side and he was taken home to bed. A few days later he said "I would like to die on Good Friday," and a dying man, though weary from his first performance of the Messiah, true to his wish, the soul of George Frederick Handel departed his body, but his spirit lives on in the immortal work. It is a torch that has been carried around the world to light the dark places of the earth.

It is little known in the Posts-Corner of Westminster Abbey where Handel rests today that a piece of statuary can be seen, showing him writing the music for "I Know That My Redeemer Lives." His staunch patroness was Queen Caroline, but with her death his income was reduced and this combined with the rigid English Puritanism no longer finding in theatres or halls, most of his engagements were cancelled and again he found himself deep in debt and sinking into despair, losing his greatest spiritual support, his wife, Queen Caroline, who was a broken man.

As he walked that lonely London street alone the facade of a church loomed in the distance and when he stopped, despite his ploughing became bitter: "Why did my Maker permit my return to health and inspiration only to be buried alive?"

The biggest honour accorded to Handel is the continued popularity of his Messiah for more than 200 years.

Editor's Note: Due to postal strike in Dublin, the above article did not reach us in time for publication in last week's issue, the issue for which it was intended. However, because of its interesting nature and as this is still Easter Week, we do not think that it is yet out-dated.

LAITY WEEK 1982

CHRIST IS IN THE WORLD

Thousands of people throughout the country are presently deeply involved in preparations for the second Laity Week which will be held from April 25 to May 1, 1982, on the theme "Christ in the World." Laity Week, organized by the Commission of the Irish Bishops' Conference, said today what the purpose of the Week is and what it hopes to achieve. To this end, the author of the Commission, Dr. Michael J. Jennings, said: "The Week should be a time of joy and thanksgiving.

The whole approach of the Week will be positive and encouraging. Through the Week there will be a mixture of events, spiritual, social, cultural and educational related to the theme."

The Clash Of The Ash" Goes Into A Second Edition

The 300-page history of hurling, "The Clash of the Ash," which was published before Christmas and reached the top of the Irish best-sellers list, has now gone into a second edition.

The first printing was sold out in a matter of a few weeks. Continued heavy demand from the hurling counties especially Galway, All-Ireland champions 1979, and Cork, who last year won the title over All-Ireland senior hurlers, made a reprint necessary.

A new extended chapter has been included in the second edition, incorporating the views of the author, Dr. Michael J. Jennings, and his wife, Mrs. Maureen.

Included too are the views of Pat St. Patrick who captioned Tipperary to victory in the 1949 All-Ireland final, and Paddy Doyle, who was the first All-Ireland champion to win the All-Ireland title in 1922.

Incised too are the views of Eddie Kehoe, who captained Leinster to victory in the 1972 All-Ireland final, and Eddie Kehoe, who does not hesitate to claim the 1964-65 Tipperary combination as the best ever played on the pitch.

A profile is included in the book of the new G.A.A. President, Mr. Paddy Murphy, the hurler, Kilkenny, All-Ireland hurler.

"The Clash of the Ash" by Raymond Smith retails at £1.99 (including VAT).

NEWS FROM CAPPOQUIN

TRAGIC BEREAVEMENT

There was widespread regret at the news of the tragic death of fourteen year old Donal Colleender, Cullen House, Kinsale, son of Good Friday. He was with his mother, Mrs. Pege Colleender, and the late Nell Colleender, formerly of Towns who died two years ago. The immense regret at the removal of remains to Pilltown Cemetery on Sunday at St. Declan's Cemetery when the grave was lined with moss and flowers, were indicative of the general sorrow at this tragic happening.

The officiating clergy were Very Rev. J. Murphy, P.P., Rev. W. McGehee, C.C., Clashmore, and Very Rev. J. Walsh, P.P., Cappoquin.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Peg Colleender, Deirdre and Siobhan (sisters), Shay (brother), uncles, aunts, cousins, relatives and friends.

Funeral arrangements were made by M. J. Noonan & Son, Funeral Furnishers. Tel 059-4317.

WEDDING:

SCANLON-MCGROarty

The wedding was held on April 3rd last at St. Peter's Church, Phibsboro, Dublin, of Mr. Matthew Scanlon, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Scanlon, cappoquin, youngest daughter of Mrs. K. McGroarty and the late Mr. G. McGroarty, 13 Calva Park, Phibsboro.

The ceremony was performed by Very Rev. Fr. Francis MacMorrow, P.P., Phibsboro.

The bride, who was born in Waterford, daughter John, son of a full length gown of white batik and Carrickfergus lace with a five foot train, and a full length veil held in place with white roses. She carried a bouquet of roses.

The bestman was Mr. William Scanlon, brother of the groom, the matron of honour, Mrs. Mary Scanlon, sister of the bride, the bride and the flower girl was Clara Redican, niece of the bride.

The groomsman, Thomas Doyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle, and the maid of honour was Mrs. Helen Walsh and the soloist was Mrs. Sheila Crampton.

The reception was held at the Astor Hotel, Waterford, where the honeymoon was spent in Dungarvan. Going away the bride wore a wine velvet jacket and skirt with matching accessories.

SCOUT NOTES

It has indeed been an eventful few weeks for the local 1st Dungarvan Cubs. On Saturday, April 9th, the cubs attending the regional arts and crafts weekend in Melleray Scout Centre, Co. Limerick, participated in a jamboree in the shadow of the Rock of Cashel, and their leader Helen Morley said they should derive great benefit from the activities they were engaged in. The skiers who attended this year's weekend were Trevor O'Donnell, Tomás Ó Sé, Thomas Doyle, Denis Keogh, Roger McLoughlin, John Mullally and Eric Preher. The cubs also participated in a jamboree at Kilkenny, organised by Helen Morley who sacrificed her weekend to attend in Melleray. This is the kind of dedicated and cooperative spirit that we need in our movement. Also in attendance in Melleray was our Unit Leader, Willie Gallagher in his capacity as Cub Commissioner.

On Saturday, April 9th, the cubs took part in a jamboree on the Rock of Cashel, and their leader Helen Morley said they were blithely enjoying themselves. The going was rough, but weather conditions were very favourable, and they were glad they made the decision to tackle this enormous task.

UNDER 21 TRIAL GAME

We had two representatives on Waterford's under 21 hurling side who played Westford in a challenge in New Ross last Saturday week, namely Brian O'Dowd and both hurlers acquitted themselves admirably.

SENIOR FOOTBALL CHALLENGE

The footballers played Tallow on Friday night, week last in an entertaining encounter with holding between the two teams.

This trend continued to the end with just the minimum margin separating the teams, when the final bell went.

SENIOR LEAGUE

The game itself began at a rather slow pace and cautious play as both teams were naturally nervous. It took quite a while for both teams to settle and begin to play. The first goal came from Power's team, but they were saved well by O'Dowd's keeper, Pierce McCarthy. However O'Dowd's team settled quickly to score in the second minute when a rather harmless looking shot from Michael himself stuck in off the goalee's legs. Aidan's team then equalised in the 20th minute on the stroke of half-time, with a fine move involving three players, by hitting the ball to the top corner of the net.

The second half was more intense. O'Dowd's team settled quicker and regained the lead in the 29th minute, when from a kick out, the ball rebounded off O'Dowd's toes and into the net. O'Dowd struck a minute later Power's team a minute later when O'Dowd's team were awarded a penalty for hand ball. Power's team made no mistake from the spot and when the ball bashed into the ball home two minutes from time to make it 4-1, no one would have bet against him winning.

However Aidan's team had a good time and amazingly scored three goals in an explosive final two minutes. Jimmy Walsh got the ball home two minutes from time and the other two were long range efforts. Then in the second minute of injury time, Aidan scored from a free kick, the first time in the competition, a beautiful goal. However Michael O'Dowd himself replied almost immediately to the third goal with a goal at the final whistle of what was an agonising Cup final.
