COUNTY ENGINEER REFERS TO THREE VERY DANGEROUS

PRACTICES At the monthly meeding of Vaterdord County Council in Numerical Inst. Priday of the conclusion of a discussion of the Council's Road Works scheme for 1982, Mr. J. D. wintly. County Engineer said state he would like to refer to what he described as three very damacrous, practices which appeared to be growing in prevalence on the roads. The first, he which had no indicators or reflectors of rear lights which were particularly dangerous at once on the roads. The first, said, were cars towing toalle which had no indicators or relectors of rear lights while were particularly dangerous; thight the second were tracto which towed trailers of a mix groater which had rear lights or reflectors. It was agreed to refer the points raised by the Countrians of the Garda authorities for action.
