

Late Kilkenny Point Foils Waterford

WATERFORD 1-17; KILKENNY 2-14

parishes. Kilkenny, who set the game for long periods, had the game for long periods, and who looked like water would seal round themselves, with an accuracy which edged out in the final National Hurling League semi-final with Waterford at Semple Stadium. Then, as on Sunday, there was no Sunday rest. But with the second semi-final coming on the same day, Kilkenny won a free which Billy Fitzpatrick pointed to tell Waterford, and told a draw to the end, however, it was the second semi-final result which thrilled the crowd which had been watching the first, particularly in the closing minutes.

Although the水ford men were on the recovery line for long periods, they as well as Kilkenny deserved another chance for the manner in which they came back having been trailing by two goals with just 12 minutes remaining.

Tom Casey suspended their comeback when he called from a free, then added two minutes for play and looked to be safely through. But Fitzpatrick safely guided Kilkenny's free between the posts for the equaliser.

The result may have been disappointing from the viewpoint of the large Waterford following present. On the other hand, it spoke volumes for the potential of the side in that they could give a team of Kilkenny's calibre so much leeway and then force them into having to fight for a replay.

Waterford, on the other hand, were limited in attack where Jim Greene posed the main threat but seldom got possession while the roving tactics of full forward Pat Curran failed to pay dividends on this occasion.

Their credit, Waterford played better in the closing stages of the first half as Mossie Walsh found his form and consequently they cut Kilkenny's lead to 0-10 to 0-9 at the interval.

Within seconds of the restart Tom Casey had the sides level for the fourth time in the game.

LIMITED IN ATTACK

Waterford on the other hand were limited in attack where Jim Greene posed the main threat but seldom got possession while the roving tactics of full forward Pat Curran failed to pay dividends on this occasion.

Their credit, Waterford played better in the closing stages of the first half as Mossie Walsh found his form and consequently they cut Kilkenny's lead to 0-10 to 0-9 at the interval.

Within seconds of the restart Tom Casey had the sides level for the fourth time in the game.

LEVEL

McGrath's third point from a '45' brought the sides level with seven minutes left and four minutes from time full forward Pat Curran shot wide.

Kilkenny fought back but Waterford held firm and looked to be clinging to their narrow lead until the last second when, after a Billy Fitzpatrick save, Kilkenny justifiably another chance.

Waterford were best served on the day by John McGrath, Sean Heffernan, Pat Curran, Pat Byrne, Stephen Breen, Joe Murphy, Eddie Nolan and Mossy Whelan.

Best for Kilkenny were Dick O'Hara, Mick Brennan, Paddy Prendergast, Brian Cummins, Noel Skehan, Brian Codd, Joe Hennessy and Ger and Liam Kennedy.

Scorers: Waterford—T. Casey 1-2, J. Curran 0-1, P. Curran 0-3, M. Walsh, P. Curran, J. Maher, T. Curley, P. Curran, J. Greene, Subs—J. Hennessy for L. O'Brien, M. Whelan for M. Walsh.

Kilkenny—N. Skehan, P. Neary, B. Codd, D. O'Hara, N. Brennan, G. Henderson, P. Prendergast, P. Curran, J. Maher, T. Curley, P. Curran, J. Greene, Subs—J. Hennessy for L. O'Brien, M. Whelan for M. Walsh.

Referee: Michael Whelan, Main Referee: K. Brown, Subs: T. Fitzpatrick, K. Brown, C. Heffernan, L. Kennedy, Sub: B. Walton for K. Brown, Ref: N. Duggan (Limerick).

But it was when the chips were down that Waterford showed their true character.

The Currys' goal, which gave them the inspiration to stage what was truly a memorable fight-back.

Mossy Whelan's introduction at the three-quarter stage was also a contributory factor to Waterford's revival. With a rejuvenated Mossie Walsh they took control in the midfield and the team responded to a man.

The forwards, who up to then had been stagnated began to move in rhythm and the scores came in quick succession.

Waterford on the other hand were limited in attack where Jim Greene posed the main threat but seldom got possession while the roving tactics of full forward Pat Curran failed to pay dividends on this occasion.

Their credit, Waterford played better in the closing stages of the first half as Mossie Walsh found his form and consequently they cut Kilkenny's lead to 0-10 to 0-9 at the interval.

Within seconds of the restart Tom Casey had the sides level for the fourth time in the game.

Experience Fine Gael backbencher, Mr. Austin Deasy, Waterford's Poll topper in the recent general election criticised the party leader, Dr. FitzGerald, last weekend for failure of political judgment and insufficient contact with the party's rank-and-file.

Deasy, one of the five members of the parliamentary party who voted against Dr. FitzGerald's poll win last weekend, said that the party's rank-and-file had voted against Dr. FitzGerald's leadership.

He said on radio that it would be dishonest of him to say that he was happy with Dr. FitzGerald's leadership. It was common knowledge in Fine Gael that he had been critical of Dr. FitzGerald's political judgement, ago to express his frustration at the sequence of events over the last few months.

He believed Dr. FitzGerald's ministerial appointments had been made without due care and attention.

"We did not have the proper blend. And you need people with a political instinct, outstanding political judgement and sufficient contact with the party's rank-and-file."

Deasy, one of the five members of the parliamentary party who voted against Dr. FitzGerald's poll win last weekend, said that the party's rank-and-file had voted against Dr. FitzGerald's leadership.

He continued: "But, having said that I say that it is practically everyone else in the country who has been critical of Dr. FitzGerald's leadership ability as an outstanding economist and as a brilliant statesman, though there is a question-mark about his judgement and political judgement."

He said that he should now favour Dr. FitzGerald's continuing as party leader since he was "the best thing we have going for us".

BALLYSAGGART NOTES

WEDDING: MURPHY-FOLEY

On Friday last St. Mary's Church, Ballysaggart, was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Bridie, only daughter of Mrs. Bridie Daly, Feagarrid, Ballysaggart, married Timmy, eldest son of Jimmy and Bridie Murphy, Coole, Ballysaggart.

The bride, who was given away by her brother Johnny, looked beautiful in a full-length chiffon dress trimmed with guipure lace. Her train fell was held in place with a rose. She carried a bouquet of white and pink carnations.

The wedding party included Miss Mary Savage and Miss Anna Quirke (cousins of the bride) and Miss Jane Murphy (sister of the groom). They were peach-clad bridesmaids and carried bouquets of pink carnations.

Best men were Mr. and Mrs. Murphy and Mr. Liam Murphy (brother of the groom) and Mr. Paddy Daly (brother of the bride). Train bearers were Miss Maide Barry and Miss Iris Fitzgibbons (cousins of the bride).

The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Fr. O'Gorman, C.C., Lismore and Ballysaggart, assisted by Rev. Fr. Keating, C.C., Lismore and Ballysaggart. The Mass server was Mr. Paul McPhibson, cousin of the bride. Organist was Mr. Brendan Moher and the singers were sisters Helen and Teresa Savage.

The groom's team-mates in the Ballysaggart Hurling Club were present and honourable guests were present. A very enjoyable reception was held in the Blue Dragon Inn, Clonmel for upwards of 130 guests.

Going away the bride wore a coral blue skirt suit with matching accessories. The honeymoon is being spent touring Ireland.

We wish Timmy and Bridie many years of wedded bliss.

HOSPITAL

We wish Timmy and Bridie good health. John Daly, Ballysaggart, who is at present in Lismore District Hospital. We hope to see John out among us soon.

G.A.A. NOTES

McGrath Out For Replay

INJURIES CAUSE PROBLEMS FOR SELECTORS

If we have lost our chance? Will some of our players play better than they did on Sunday when centre back Pat McGrath is out with a broken bone in his wrist and Jim Greene and Pat McGuire are also injured?

It is not going to make things easy for the county selectors when they sit down to name their side for the replay. They will have to consider what the new squad problems will be.

They will have to consider what the new squad problems will be.

If the team is available, having been selected on Thursday night, it will appear at the end of these notes.

Dungarvan-Danish Student ExchangePLACES FOR WATERFORD DIOCESE AT CARDIFF PAPAL YOUTH CEREMONY

Last week was a restful one for the ladies and I am sure this was very well deserved. We are very lucky in that we have some very good friends who are always ready to give a helping hand. We look forward to seeing them again on this anniversary night.

Hayes, the Bike, when our Progressive 45 will once again take place.

COMMITTEE MEETING

Last Tuesday night our committee met in Lawton's Hotel. Apologies were received for non-attendance from Canon Hayes and Eileen Power. Everyone seemed quite happy after our Treasurer Mrs. Costin gave her report on our finances. To everyone's relief we seemed to be on the way to reaching our target of £16,000.

First on the agenda was our forthcoming set dancing competition. I am sure this competition will prove to be very competitive and enjoyable as we have some very well-known names in set dancing circles competing about us. Again, we are very fortunate to have very good sponsorship for this competition.

KIDNEY ASSOCIATION

On Saturday night next, 17th April, all funds raised will go to the Kidney Fund, Clonmel.

On Saturday night, 24th April, the total number involved in the competition will be 100.

Final costs have yet to be decided on but it is expected to travel in the order of £15.

Interest young people between 16 and 21 years old, and teenagers should write to Fr. Paul Murphy, St. John's College, Waterford (addressed envelope).

ANTIQUITIES Committee have joined anti-social committee with other organisations to pursue the idea of opening a town museum. This committee, headed by Mrs. Joan Ball, of the Society, hope to have this well worth while project underway in time for the summer tourists. Anybody who has any information which would be of historical interest for the museum should contact any of the members or Mrs. Ball, who are only too delighted to receive such information.

ENTERTAINMENT

At the invitation of Gorer G. Several of our members are taking off to Courtown for a weekend at the end of April.

The entertainment committee have also arranged us on two dates in May. Hollywood will be in Courtown on April 29th and Dungarvan on April 30th. Details to follow.

VISITORS

Never mind, there is more to do than just golfing. We were honoured by the presence of Senator J.C. Mr. Michael Morris and Mr. Vincent Morris, both gentlemen sat through the evening and then spoke to us about the years they had enjoyed with the old Dungarvan. Our sincere thanks to all of you for coming along.

TRAINING COURSE

A Training Course on "How To Run A Project" will be given on Monday night by Eleanor O'Farrell, Regional Director of the South-West Region Chamber. This course is a very interesting and informative course and it is hoped that all members will attend.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Editor,
ABBEYSIDE PATTERN

I wish to thank each and every one who contributed to the collection on Easter Sunday.

It was pleasing also to hear of your express regret at the amount of work done. Your efforts are being made to a committee to run again in 1982 and if you feel you can help, come along and help in Minutes on Friday 16th April at 8pm.

It would be a great pity if an important event such as Abbeyside Pattern was allowed to go, knowing the public of Abbeyside have the answer and the desire to see our service.

A committee to run again is being formed at least in 1982. If it is not possible for you to attend the meeting on Friday 16th April, please let stop you down the road and call from me. You feel that you have nothing to offer.

Yours sincerely,
JOHN FITZGERALD,
Editor,
Abbeyside Pattern

RISHON PATTERN

After attending 230 Mass on Saturday morning we'd like to say a special thank you to the beautiful priest which was celebrated by Fr. Kearne. Also Mr. Murphy and his daughter who read the profession. Thanks also to Fr. O'Dea who sang accompaniment. Dr. James Stacey on organ.

We feel that we are very lucky to have Canon Farrell and Fr. Murphy as priests in our parish. It is a great privilege to be taking part in the Masses here. Thank you all again.

Parishioners of Abbeyside.

FOR THE YOUNG TRAVELLER

This weekend sees the camping season begin at Glenshane Park, the 33rd Cork with Peter O'Brien, St. arrive and spend a few days with us. Our Cork Troop made good use of the site and it seems they intend doing likewise this year.
